unemployment benefits, and there’s a way of paying for it. You show it there on that. The super wealthy, it’s time for them to pick up their fair share. Thank you so very much for this wonderful evening and telling the story of the wonderful America that we can have once again. This is America. This is a great country. We have within our power to get back on our feet and to charge forward, and we really appreciate all these things you’re doing to make that happen in the great Midwest and in New York and in Houston.

Ms. KAPTUR. I really have enjoyed sharing this hour with Congressman TONKO of New York and Congressman GARAMENDI of California, speaking out for 100 percent—the 99 percent that are often forgotten, the 1 percent that we don’t forget but know that your patriotism really will come to shine in this holiday season—and to urge our colleagues in the House and Senate to do what’s right, to make the decisions on extending the payroll tax holiday for the middle class, making sure we extend unemployment benefits which are earned by 99 percent that we stand for all of America because we’re all in this together.

I thank my colleagues very much, the listening audience, and those who are out there helping us to move the ship of state in a direction so that we create jobs in this country and we keep this economy on an upward roll.

Mr. GARAMENDI. It’s for the 99 percent.

Ms. KAPTUR. For the 99 percent as well.

Mr. GARAMENDI. And 100 percent of Americans moving forward.

Ms. KAPTUR. That is right.

Mr. Speaker, I yield back the balance of my time.
