The House met at 11 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. LATOURETTE).

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

I hereby appoint the Honorable STEVEN C. LATOURETTE to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

JOHN A. BOEHNER,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Patrick J. Conroy, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, we give You thanks for giving us another day.

Once again, we come to You to ask wisdom, patience, peace, and understanding for the Members of this people’s House. The words and sentiments that have been spoken and heard in these recent days were born of principle, conviction, and commitment.

We ask discernment for the Members that they might judge anew their adherence to principle, conviction, and commitment, lest they slide uncharitably toward an inability to listen to one another and work cooperatively to solve the important issues of our day.

Give them the generosity of heart and the courage of true leadership to work toward a common solution, with sacrifice on both sides. We pray that their work results not in a Nation comprised of winners and losers, but where our citizens know in their hearts that we Americans are all winners.

May all that is done this day be for Your greater honor and glory. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day’s proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

The SPEAKER pro tempore led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

ADJOURNMENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Without objection, the House stands adjourned until noon on Tuesday, May 15, 2012, for morning-hour debate.

There was no objection. Accordingly (at 11 o’clock and 4 minutes a.m.), under its previous order, the House adjourned until Tuesday, May 15, 2012, at noon.

UNITED STATES HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES PROCLAMATION
HON. HENRY C. “HANK” JOHNSON, JR.
OF GEORGIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, May 11, 2012

Mr. JOHNSON of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, Whereas, in the Fourth Congressional District of Georgia, there are many individuals who are called to contribute to the needs of our community through leadership and service; and Whereas, Mrs. Melody Poole Ellis has answered that call by giving of herself as an educator at Dunaike Elementary, and as a beloved daughter, mother, wife and friend; and Whereas, Mrs. Ellis has been chosen as the 2012 Teacher of the Year, representing Dunaike Elementary school; and Whereas, this phenomenal woman has shared her time and talents for the betterment of our community and our nation through her tireless works, motivational speeches and words of wisdom; and Whereas, Mrs. Ellis is a virtuous woman, a courageous woman and a fearless leader who has shared her vision, talents and passion to help ensure that our children receive an education that is relevant not only for today, but well into the future, as she truly understands that our children are the future; and Whereas, the U.S. Representative of the Fourth District of Georgia has set aside this day to honor and recognize Mrs. Melody Poole Ellis for her leadership and service for our District and in recognition of this singular honor as 2012 Teacher of the Year at Dunaike Elementary School; Now therefore, I, HENRY C. “HANK” JOHN-SON, Jr., do hereby proclaim April 25, 2012, as Mrs. Melody Poole Ellis Day in the 4th Congressional District.
Proclaimed, this 25th day of April, 2012.

REGARDING MAY 9, 2012 “PRESENT” VOTE ON H.R. 4133
HON. BARBARA LEE
OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, May 11, 2012

Ms. LEE of California. Mr. Speaker, I strongly support Israel, its rights as a nation, and its unequivocal right to defend itself. I fully support the provisions of this resolution aimed at strengthening Israel’s defensive military capabilities. Unfortunately, this resolution also contains overly broad provisions that go well beyond support for those defensive capabilities. Specifically, I am concerned about provisions that include the terms “defensive articles” and “defensive services” and “specialized munitions,” which security experts understand to include a vast array of offensive weapons, including bunker-buster bombs. The increased militarization of the Middle East could endanger Israel’s security and is a source of regional and global instability. While the bill enumerated ways the U.S. can lend military support to Israel, there was not an emphasis on achieving a negotiated peace with its neighbors. No amount of American military assistance will fully compensate for the lack of a productive and effective peace process. This bill was a missed opportunity for Congress to show balanced support for a comprehensive peace plan. The neglected Israel–Palestinian peace process must be given stronger support by the United States, and this bill reflects the lack of U.S. leadership in achieving a lasting peace. Because of these flawed provisions, I voted present on H.R. 4133.

HONORS TEMPLE EMANUEL ON THEIR 50TH ANNIVERSARY
HON. ROSA L. DELAURO OF CONNECTICUT
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, May 11, 2012

Ms. DELAURO. Mr. Speaker, it gives me great pleasure to rise today to join the many who have gathered in celebration of Temple Emanuel’s 50th Anniversary. This milestone is a very special occasion, not only for the administration and members, but for the community as well. Founded in 1962, Temple Emanuel was the vision of a group of families seeking a better quality of Jewish education for their children and an experience different from what they had found in more typical Reform congregations. Chartered by the Union of American Congregations in 1966, Temple Emanuel, under the direction of Rabbi Mark Winer, found its home on what was originally a working farm. While awaiting the construction of its sanctuary, congregants first used the barn for services and the property’s home was used for the offices and as a school building. Working with members knowledgeable in architecture, design, and finance, their Temple Emanuel’s current sanctuary was completed in 1981. Rabbi Winer had introduced the concept of “services in the round,” so the new sanctuary was built with movable seating to fit any occasion. Services were participatory, with animated discussion and a self-published Siddur, the traditional Jewish prayer book.
Rabbi Briege, Temple Emanuel’s second rabbi, continued this style of worship. A former song leader with the North American Federation of Temple Youth and codirector of the International Torah Corps, Rabbi Briege had strong roots in the Reform movement and excellent musical skills. Under his direction, and through song and communal prayer, Temple Emanuel’s congregation developed its unique style and strengthened their connection to Judaism. Temple Emanuel is currently led by Rabbi Michael Farbman who came to the congregation following Rabbi Briege’s retirement in 2009. With his dynamic guitar playing services and the creation of the Temple Emanuel Band, whose members range from middle school to retirement age, Rabbi Farbman continues the strong musical influence of his predecessors while bringing a new joy and energy to the congregation’s worship.
In addition to their religious dedication, the congregants of Temple Emanuel are also deeply concerned with their community and their work on behalf of others extends far beyond the walls of their synagogue. Their members collect and donate food to local food pantries several times a year; they have been involved with Sister City projects; they have participated in Abraham’s Tent—an effort to address homelessness in which congregations volunteer to provide meals and overnight shelter to twelve homeless men for the duration of their week, alleviating overcrowding in the shelters and demonstrating support for the homeless members of our communities—since its inception. Temple Emanuel’s religious school students have regular Tzedakah projects which include making gift baskets for children residing in domestic violence shelters, collecting books and school supplies for area children’s programs, and raising money for animal shelters. Through all of these efforts and more, the members of Temple Emanuel have touched the lives of thousands of people in need—setting a example of service to which we should all strive.
Our houses of worship play a vital role in our communities—providing people with a place to turn to for comfort when they are most in need. In its first fifty years, there have been many who have worshiped within its halls and many who have found peace and strength in the outstretched arms of Temple Emanuel. It is with my deepest thanks and appreciation for all of their good work that I stand today to pay tribute to Temple Emanuel as they celebrate their 50th Anniversary. Their contributions have left an indelible mark on our community and a legacy that will live on for generations to come.

IN SUPPORT OF FUNDING FOR THE DEBBIE SMITH DNA BACKLOG PROGRAM

HON. LAURA RICHARDSON
OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, May 11, 2012

Ms. RICHARDSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to express my appreciation to Chairman WOLF and Ranking Member FATTAH for working together to ensure that the Debbie Smith DNA Backlog Grant Program is adequately funded in the 112th Congress. The Debbie Smith DNA Backlog Grant Program is adequately funded in the Commerce, Justice, and Science Appropriations Act for Fiscal Year 2013. Given these difficult economic times, difficult choices must be made as to where scarce funds are to be allocated. Given the importance of the DNA Backlog Grant program to law enforcement agencies in my congressional district, I would have liked for the program to have received even more funding. But I am very pleased that the bill provides funding at the amount requested by the Administration, the sponsor of the authorizing legislation and my good friend, Congresswoman MALONEY from New York, and is more than eighty percent of the amount of funding I requested the Committee to provide.

The DNA Backlog Grant program provides funding to help reduce and eliminate the backlog of DNA evidence in state and local labs across the nation. The “Justice For All Act” (P.L. 108–405) expanded the use of DNA technology to convict the guilty and free the innocent. In 2008, Congress again showed its overwhelming bipartisan support for this initiative by passing the “Debbie Smith Reauthorization Act” which extends this program through FY 2014.

There is an ever-present need to continue robust funding for programs such as the Debbie Smith DNA Backlog Grant Program in order to make sure victims do not fall through the cracks of the system.

Women who have been raped have a right to expect police to thoroughly investigate the case and prosecute the offenders; however, many rape kits across the country are never even tested, and the perpetrators never face justice. Nowhere is this problem greater than in Los Angeles County, where there is a backlog of more than 12,000 rape kits sitting untested in storage facilities. Of those kits, 499 are attached to cases past the 10-year statute of limitations for rape in California, meaning that even if those kits are tested, the offenders cannot be tried for their crimes.

The current fiscal crisis has already hindered efforts to eliminate the backlog, as Los Angeles city officials have been denied the funds necessary for hiring crime laboratory analysts, one of the greatest priorities, and continue to lose key personnel. In the future, we will continue a trend of neglecting this pursuit of justice, and thousands of women and their families will be denied their basic security and peace of mind.

DNA evidence is critical in sexual assault cases. I would like to highlight one recent success story from my district in Long Beach. The alleged crime occurred in August of 2003, when a 17-year-old student was sexually assaulted by a stranger on her high school campus. The DNA collected at the scene went untested for 7 years due to the laboratory’s backlog, but in 2011 Redondo Beach police arrested the attacker. The DNA match showed the chance of the DNA belonging to someone else was one in a trillion, providing nearly irrefutable proof of his guilt. I ask for unanimous consent to include in the Record copies of newspaper stories that discuss in greater detail the importance of robust funding for the DNA initiative to reduce the backlog in Los Angeles, California.

Mr. Speaker, the DNA Initiative is an invaluable tool for law enforcement today, and it will continue to be a legislative priority of mine. That is why I am pleased that funding for this vitally important program was not reduced as so many other worthwhile programs have been. I commend my colleagues on the Committee for funding the program at the level requested by the President and those of us in this body that strongly support the program.

ZOE LICK LEAVES A LASTING LEGACY AT THE WORLD BANK

HON. BETTY MCCOLLUM OF MINNESOTA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, May 11, 2012

Ms. McCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, today’s global challenges demand global solutions. From poverty and hunger, to climate change and the financial crisis, the complexities of the 21st century require not only American leadership, but also effective global institutions. While the world continues to change at a rapid pace, the World Bank—with its wealth of expertise and resources for fighting poverty—is a critical multilateral instrument for addressing these global challenges.

During his 5-year term, outgoing World Bank President Robert Zoellick has helped lead a turnaround at the World Bank and reestablished for the United States a key partner in advancing vital U.S. interests abroad. President Zoellick has placed new focus on pragmatic, common-sense solutions. He recognizes that in order to meet the challenges of a changing world, the World Bank had to change along with it. In the last 5 years, the Bank has transitioned from a once rigid top-down approach to development, into a flexible, collaborative, and more democratic institution.

President Zoellick’s leadership has emphasized a critical reality: that alleviating poverty is vital to economic recovery. Investments in global health, education, food security, and empowering women and girls not only lift millions of people out of poverty, but create important sources for economic growth. These investments make the world a safer place to do business. Even as it responded to the global financial crisis, the World Bank under President Zoellick raised $80 billion for the International Development Association, the Bank’s small loan arm, for the world’s poorest. The World Bank worked with developing countries to strengthen their social safety nets and build resilience to crisis, and invested in critical infrastructure to remove investment barriers.

At the World Bank, President Zoellick leaves behind a real, tangible legacy. His push to institute a “Freedom of Information Act” unleashes public innovation by allowing free, open access to the World Bank’s trove of economic data. This unprecedented step has ushered in a new era of accountability and transparency. President Zoellick created the Climate Investment Funds, which have already leveraged nearly $50 billion for practical investments in energy efficiency, technology development, and combating deforestation. These remarkable contributions will continue long after President Zoellick leaves the World Bank next month.

As co-chair of the bipartisan Caucus for Congressional-World Bank Dialogue, I look forward to working with the World Bank to continue the progress achieved during President Zoellick’s tenure.

Dr. Jim Yong Kim, the World Bank’s next president, should give Congress—a major investor in the World Bank—confidence that an American with a proven track record of success will be advancing this shared vision for development. Dr. Kim’s significant contributions to global health, his commitment to partnerships on the ground in developing countries, and his proven management skills will make him an effective leader of this vital multilateral institution.

Together, we can build on the innovation, accountability, and effectiveness that President Zoellick has brought to the World Bank during his successful 5-year term.

COMMERCe, JUSTICE, SCIENCE, AND RELATED AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 2013

SPEECH OF

HON. TOM LATHAM OF IOWA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, May 10, 2012

The House Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union had under consideration the bill (H.R. 5326) making appropriations for the Departments of Commerce, Justice, Science, and Related Agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 2013, and for other purposes:

Mr. LATHAM. Mr. Chair, because of limited funding resources, the Subcommittee was not able to provide funding, as requested by the Office of Juvenile Justice, for a needed evidence-based competitive juvenile justice demonstration grant program. This type of a program would allow for new, innovative practices that may well lead to comprehensive change which, in turn, would likely produce better outcomes in treating at-risk juveniles.

A number of Members requested that the Subcommittee consider amending the Administration to request to provide, within existing levels of funding in this bill, competitive grant program funding for qualified non-profit, private youth and family service organizations that can provide an integrated continuum of treatment services and programs for at-risk youth and their families.

We believe this approach is still important because it is estimated that 70 percent of youth in the juvenile justice system suffer from mental health issues, substance abuse, and/or learning disabilities. Most of these juveniles require an integrated, comprehensive treatment in order to allow them to succeed within their peer groups and families, in school, on jobs, or in their communities. Just as important, the families of most at-risk juveniles also require services and treatment programs to ensure that a juvenile’s home environment is addressed.

There is a wide range of existing national, regional and state-wide, nonprofit, qualified youth and family serving organizations that can provide evidence-based, integrated continuum treatment services and programs for at-risk juveniles and their families. However, most, if not all, of the existing program funding opportunities only provide funding for limited services and treatments for at-risk juveniles. They do not allow, where necessary, services and treatment programs for the families of juveniles.

Using an integrated continuum is critical to providing programs and services (including mental health and drug treatment), for both juveniles and their families, that will result in juveniles being permanently returned to improved home environments and becoming productive citizens. Early evidence suggests that an integrated approach is preferable to isolated and limited programs, because the integrated approach shows more promising potential for keeping youth out of the juvenile justice system and avoiding further arrest and recidivism.

Mr. Chair, I hope we can work with you, through the process, as your bill moves forward, to see if we can find a way to dedicate some resources to this integrated continuum of comprehensive services and treatment programs for both at-risk juveniles and their families.

Mr. Speaker, I submit the following for the RECORD:

NEW HOPE

From out of that darkness of most evil war!
From out of that pain and such heartache
That one must endure!
From out of that death and destruction,
And oh such suffering of all the more!
As from out of this most dreadful of woes!
Come, all of those and their loved ones . . .
Whose daily lives are but filled with such anguish for sure!
And from out of all of this, must now all somehow, someway so endure!
To find the strength and the courage, to rebuild with not much more!
Then Hope to insure!
As comes their most swollen of tears so for sure!
That which their Mothers and Fathers, their so Sisters and Brothers, and their Husbands and Wives,
And all of their most precious of all Children whose eyes must now pour!
And just when all so seems lost!
All out of this darkness of war, with its most tragic of all costs!
With but nothing so left, but to cling to Hope so to bless!
To strive us the strength to take just one more most courageous of steps!
But, comes only our very best of the best!
Our most bright ones of all lights, as are you Mark so yes!
So shining above all of the rest!
Such brilliance, to all of our souls to caress!
That with all of your courage Mark, our Nation you have so blessed!
Bringing Hope, from out of your most magnificent of heart’s breath!
So splendid and pure, so very special for sure!
Giving us Hope!
With something which so reaches so deep down inside all of our souls!
To have and to hold, which so helped you to so somehow endure!
While, against all the odds Mark . . . your victory it now so insured!
With that kind of Hope, that which set’s one so march off to war!
And come back home from a battlefields of honor so injured,
And still somehow to give more!
With Such New Hope!
All In Your Profiles In Courage!
All in what you so bore!
Teaching us all, what Heaven is for!
And Heather, your most magnificent of wife!
All in her devotion and love, and so selfless of sacrifice!
Standing by her Man!
Bringing tears to even our Lord eyes!
Yes Mark, with all of your Hope and fine faith
You have, to all of us so shown us the way!
Because, no matter the cost . . . your fine heart would never so wave!
As we’ve so watched you Mark, so heroically moving onward day after day!
To So Teach Us!
To So Reach Us!
To So Beseach Us!
All in what your fine heart has all to say!
All in your Most Splendid Shades of Green . . .
Ooo . . . Rah, Jar Head!
For you are but a Marine’s Marine!
Because, all in you . . .
There is New Hope for all human beings!
And you and your family,
are some of the best things that this county has ever seen!
Coming back without an arm and both of your legs . . .
Teaching us all about,
what the word selfless sacrifice all so conveys!
As on that morning when you so awoke . . .
All there in that darkness,
as it was there somehow that you so found such Hope!
That so gave you the strength,
all in what your fine heart so meant . . .
but to so help your fine soul to somehow to cope!
Showing us all,
the very meaning of the word Hope!
And as we look into your eyes,
it’s the tears we now find . . .
As so easily you could of so given up,
or so given in and so died!
And yet instead,
you so chose all in your most gallant heart
to so keep Hope alive!
Because, just in a few short month’s my son
Marine . . . already, look what you’ve done!
And look at all of what you’ve so begun!
As you’ve climbed mountains!
Took beaches!
Won major battles, to so beseech us!
So Fearless! So Brave!
For Mark, you are one of America’s greatest of all son’s!
And you and your fine wife,
shining there ever so bright . . .
have so shone us all how so to behave!
As you’ve come so far and so fast,
all from that grave of a past!
Shining like a Star,
to so carry our heart’s far!
Yea Mark . . . That’s who you are, A Shining Star!
A Star of Hope!
And as long as one finds, so very deep down inside . . .
That kind of courage and strength!
From all of that Hope and what it so meant!
Then, so surely, there is no mountain that we can not so climb!
With New Hope we will find!
