Mr. LEWIS of California (during the reading). Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to dispense with the reading of the amendment.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

Mr. VAN HOLLEN. Reserving the right to object, I just want to underwrite. Is this an amendment to the whistleblower bill or this is the whistleblower bill?

Mr. LEWIS of California. It is a very extensive amendment I had planned to have read, but I understand the gentleman is not going to object. So I am anxious to hear him.

Mr. VAN HOLLEN. This is the whistleblower amendment?

Mr. LEWIS of California. It is.

Mr. VAN HOLLEN. I withdraw my reservation.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

The amendment was agreed to. The bill was ordered to be read a third time, was read the third time, and passed, and a motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS THE HOUSE FOR 1 MINUTE

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to address the House for 1 minute on the national priorities we’re neglecting, including middle class tax cuts, responsible deficit reduction, the Violence Against Women Act, veterans benefits, and protecting Medicare.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Recognition of Members for such requests is within the discretion of the Chair. The Chair is limiting recognition today to consideration of legislative matters before the House, and such request for a 1-minute speech is not recognized.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WAXMAN. Mr. Speaker, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WAXMAN. During pro forma session, can the Chair entertain legislative business? Because I have a further parliamentary inquiry: If we can take up legislation to create jobs and avoid the fiscal cliff, if we’re taking up other items, I would like to know whether we could do business in the House of Representatives to address the priorities in this Nation?

People want jobs. People want the deficit reduced.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the gentleman have a specific parliamentary inquiry?

Mr. WAXMAN. My specific request is whether, during a pro forma session, can the Chair entertain legislative business?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is asking a question regarding a matter of scheduling. The House just

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

A TRIBUTE TO KEN WALSH, 2012
ST. JOSEPH’S SCHOOL HENRY SCHIMPF AWARD RECIPIENT

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO
OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Ken Walsh, a member of the faculty of St. Joseph’s School of the Sacred Heart in Atherton, California, who is being honored with the Henry Schimpf Award for his selfless service contributions, commitment and dedication within the St. Joseph’s community. Like the man for whom the award is named, Ken Walsh has touched and improved the lives of so many while at St. Joseph’s School of the Sacred Heart, and embodies the kind of patient, humble, selfless teaching methods we should all aspire to practice.

Ken was behind the founding of the entire Athletic program for St. Joseph’s School. He expanded the sports program from beyond basketball and baseball, and included other sports programs such as, tennis, track and soccer. Because of Ken’s dedication, SJS has a strong sports presence along the Peninsula. His actions have provided more opportunities to more students, enabling many of them to participate in a variety of sports of their choosing. With the help and support of the community, along with SJS faculty, Ken raised money for a new field, which was named after Henry Schimpf. Ken is not only an outstanding educator, but he is also a great collaborator. He has been known to offer other schools in the region, like Sacred Heart Preparatory to utilize SJS tennis courts, and has taken the opportunity to organizing various tournaments between the two schools for both boys and girls. He is well respected by the community, his peers, his family, and his students as a teacher, an athletic director and as a friend.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring Ken Walsh, an educator who lives a life which embodies the goals and criteria of Sacred Heart Schools. He lives the five commitments of faith, respect, social awareness, community building and personal growth, and his contributions to his students have strengthened our community and our country immeasurably.

MANHATTAN PROJECT NATIONAL HISTORICAL PARK ACT

SPEECH OF
OF MINNESOTA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, September 19, 2012

Ms. McCOLLUM. Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak regarding H.R. 5987, which establishes the Manhattan Project National Historical Park in Oak Ridge, Tennessee; Los Alamos, New Mexico; and Hanford, Washington. These American cities were the primary locations of the Manhattan Project—an unprecedented American research and development effort during World War II that harnessed the power of the atom to produce the world’s first atomic weapons. The project produced the atomic bombs detonated over the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki that ultimately led to the surrender of Japan in August 1945.

The Manhattan Project is worthy of national recognition as a scientific achievement and a historical turning point in the greatest conflict of the 20th century. However, the highest degree of sensitivity is required in doing so. The same blasts that ended America’s war and brought joy to our streets resulted in the death of over 300,000 Japanese civilians.

There are important questions about how the National Park Service will interpret this new monument. These questions should be answered before H.R. 5987 moves forward. While I do not oppose the establishment of a national historic park recognizing the Manhattan Project, I expect the necessary consultations with stakeholders to occur prior to passage of this legislation.

Hon. Darrell Issa,
Chairman, Committee on Oversight and Government Reform, Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, DC.

Dear Chairman Issa: In recognition of the importance of expediting the passage of S. 743, the Whistleblower Protection Enhancement Act of 2012,” the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence will not object to consideration of a motion to suspend the rules and pass the bill. We very much appreciate the efforts of you and your staff to address issues of jurisdictional interest to the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence during consideration of this legislation.

The Committee takes this action only with the understanding that this procedural route should not be construed to prejudice the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence’s jurisdictional interest over this bill or any similar bill and will not be considered as precedent for consideration of matters of jurisdictional interest to the Committee in the future, including in connection with any subsequent consideration of the bill by the House. In addition, the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence will seek conferees on any provisions of the bill that are within its jurisdiction during any House-Senate conference that may be convened on this legislation.

Dear Mr. Chairman: Thank you for your letter regarding the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence’s jurisdictional interest in S. 743, the “Whistleblower Protection Enhancement Act of 2012,” and your willingness to forego consideration of S. 743 by your committee.

I agree that the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence has a valid jurisdictional interest in certain provisions of S. 743 and that the Committee’s jurisdiction will not be adversely affected by your decision to forego consideration of S. 743. As you know, I will support your request for an appropriate appointment of outside conferees from your Committee in the event of a House-Senate conference on this or similar legislation should such a conference be convened.

Finally, I will include a copy of your letter and this response in the Congressional Record during the floor consideration of this bill. Thank you again for your cooperation.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring Denise Sheldon, an athlete who lives a life which embodies the goals and criteria of Sacred Heart Schools. She lives the five commitments of faith, respect, social awareness, community building and personal growth, and her contributions to her sport have strengthened our community and our country immeasurably.

CELEBRATING TAIWAN’S 101ST ANNIVERSARY

HON. CHARLES B. RANGEL
OF NEW YORK
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. RANGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to wish our good friends in Southeast Asia, Taiwan, a Happy Anniversary on October 10th. Known as Double Ten Day due to it being the tenth day of the tenth month, it marks the day that the Republic of China/Taiwan came into existence.

Taiwan will be 101 years old on this day. Young by comparison to other nations in the world, but they have done so much in these relatively few years.

Most impressively, Taiwan has become a thriving democracy during this time. In 1996 they held their first direct President elections. Since then, Taiwan has seen different political parties hold the title of President. A true mark of a democracy.

Taiwan’s economy is strong and their unemployment is low compared to much of the world. A lot of this can be attributed to them being recognized as a powerhouse in the electronics field.

Taiwan is also an important world citizen—constantly giving aid and assistance where it is needed throughout the globe. If a natural disaster occurs in another country, Taiwan is often one of the first nations on the scene providing much needed help.

One last note, Taiwan’s top diplomat in the U.S. and our longtime friend Jason Yuan is leaving his post here to assume the awesome responsibilities of Chief of the Republic of China’s National Security Council. We wish him well in this new role and assure him of our continuing confidence in the special relationship between Taiwan and the U.S.

For these reasons and more I congratulate Taiwan and wish them a very happy celebration on their 101st year.

CARROLLTON, GA VA FACILITY OPENING

OF GEORGIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. GINGREY of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, we are here today to honor and celebrate our veterans, American heroes, who have bravely served their country, to open a first class health facility to aid our wounded warriors in their recovery and treatment, and to honor the legacy of the woman who made it all possible—Katherine “Trinka” Davis.

With a war in Afghanistan, a recent one in Iraq, and unrest around the globe, the United States has more than 196,000 active duty servicemen and women that put their lives on the line, night and day, to protect our families and our freedoms. These men and women accepted the call of duty, leaving behind their loved ones and life as they know it to protect the lives of others.

When our soldiers return from battle, sometimes they do not get the support and assistance they deserve. Simply put, we owe them more. Just as they have answered the call to serve our country, we must answer the call to serve them. That is what Trinka Davis did and why we are gathered here today.

Trinka Davis was a businesswoman from Carroll County who founded The Trinka Davis Foundation in 2004 after realizing the struggles many servicemen and women faced upon returning from Iraq and Afghanistan. The Foundation exists to support veterans and their families. Though she is no longer with us, her memory lives on. Thanks to her generosity and the tireless dedication of her foundation, the Community Foundation of West Georgia, and the Georgia Department of Veterans Services, we are here today to open the Trinka Davis Veterans Village.

This facility will serve recent veterans, and allow them to receive treatment closer to home. Prior to construction, veterans were often forced to drive two hours or more for treatment.

The facility will offer primary health care, mental health services, physical and occupational therapy, health and wellness counseling, and social services. I am happy to report that veterans began receiving outpatient treatment at the Trinka Davis Veterans Village on Monday.

In the coming months, the facility will also include a 42-bed community living center for veterans needing inpatient rehab in a “home-like, family-oriented, atmosphere.”

Like our veterans, Ms. Davis is a hero, who recognized the needs of veterans and worked tirelessly to meet them. The Trinka Davis Foundation ensured that Ms. Davis’s commitment to the veterans and their families in our own community and beyond would be preserved through construction of this facility.

This facility has a motto, “Until everyone everyone comes home.” Trinka realized that our work did not end there. She is an example to us all.

CONGRATULATING WESTLAKE CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

HON. GUS M. BILIRAKIS
OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Mr. Speaker I rise today to congratulate Westlake Christian School for receiving the Department of Education’s esteemed designation of a 2012 National Blue Ribbon School.

Established in 1995 as a ministry of Palm Harbor United Methodist Church, Westlake Christian School quickly ascended to academic excellence. From its humble beginnings in a church hall with just eight kindergarteners, the school now enrolls more than 300 kindergarten through eighth grade students on its 11-acre campus. The school focuses on their mission to guide and inspire students to develop their God-given potential, while fostering a lifelong love of learning, in a nurturing Christ-centered environment.

It is no small feat for a school to receive the distinguished honor of the Blue Ribbon Award.
In fact, Westlake Christian School was one of just two private schools in Florida and 50 private schools throughout the entire Nation to receive this distinction. Their integrated spiritual and educational approach is providing students the building blocks of a successful education foundation.

As Westlake Christian School proudly raises the Blue Ribbon flag on its campus, may those in our community and across the Nation be reminded of the good work done there daily and look to this school as a model of exemplary educational practices.

A TRIBUTE TO HONOR THE LIFE OF MATTHEW PATRICK MANOUKIAN

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO
OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the extraordinary life of the always faithful Captain Matthew Patrick Manoukian, United States Marine Corps. Captain Manoukian made the ultimate sacrifice on August 10, 2012, giving his life for his country during his service in Afghanistan. He was 29 years old.

Captain Manoukian was a lifelong resident of Los Altos Hills, California, and graduated from Saint Francis High School in 2001. Since the age of 10, it had been Matthew’s goal to become a Marine. Shortly after graduating from the University of Arizona in 2005, he attended Officer Candidates School in Quantico, Virginia. After commissioning as a Second Lieutenant into the Marine Corps, he joined Camp Pendleton’s 1st Marine Special Operations Battalion after enduring a grueling training program that only 40 of 100 men passed. Captain Manoukian was in the top five.

Captain Manoukian rose through the ranks and was deployed twice to Iraq and twice to Afghanistan, always at “the tip of the spear.” He saw his role in Afghanistan as freeing the oppressed from the Taliban and bringing a fair legal system to a country that has never had one. He also had a deep respect for Middle Eastern cultures and history, learning to speak Arabic, and insisting on walking through villages, greeting children and their parents in person, instead of patrolling in a Humvee.

Captain Manoukian was completing his fourth tour of duty in Afghanistan and had plans to attend law school after completing his military obligation. He had already been accepted at Golden Gate University where he planned to begin his studies in 2014.

On a fateful early morning on August 10th during a predawn Ramadan meal that Captain Manoukian insisted his troops respectfully observe during the Muslim holy month, an insurgent dressed as an Afghan police officer opened fire and took his life, and the lives of two other fellow Marines.

Captain Manoukian is survived by his father, Santa Clara County Superior Court Judge Socrates “Pete” Manoukian; his mother, Patricia Bamattre-Manoukian, Associate Justice of the Siskiyou County Court of Appeal; brothers Michael and Martin; and the extended Manoukian and Bamattre families.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in extending our deepest condolences to Captain Manoukian’s beloved family. We celebrate his life and his accomplishments, and we are proud to honor his memory in the U.S. House of Representatives. Our nation has lost a beloved citizen who made his community proud and his country stronger. His life enriched ours and may our tribute be a source of comfort to his beautiful family during their time of great grief.

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.
OF NEW JERSEY
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the borough of Atlantic Highlands, New Jersey on their 125th anniversary celebration. Atlantic Highlands and its citizens, with their hard work, dedication, and commitment to community, personify the quintessential American spirit.

Founded in 1887, the borough of Atlantic Highlands was originally part of Middletown Township. However, during the latter part of the 1800’s, the area that is currently known as Atlantic Highlands was beginning to gain the attention of local businessmen and vacationers for its scenic landscape and proximity to Raritan Bay and the Atlantic Ocean. After its incorporation as a borough in 1897, Atlantic Highlands began to develop steadily. Steamship and rail service were the source of major transportation in the area, with steam ships bringing vacationers to the borough from New York City and the surrounding area. In 1940, the municipal harbor was completed, which allowed the borough to accommodate significantly more travelers and vessels, which increased access to the borough.

Today, the borough remains a destination for travelers and vacationers, as well as home to more than 4,300 residents. The municipal harbor is the largest on the east coast, with the ability to accommodate upwards of 700 vessels. Offering high speed ferry service since 1992, the harbor and its ferry service serves as a scenic and convenient method of transportation for commuters traveling to New York City. The local businesses and business owners in the borough take great pride in their ability to provide great destinations for their local community and vacationers to enjoy. The citizens of Atlantic Highlands, along with the leadership of Mayor Fred Rast III and the borough council, make the Borough of Atlantic Highlands a truly great place to live, work, and visit.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in leading this body in congratulating the borough of Atlantic Highlands, New Jersey on their 125th anniversary. I take great pride in having the opportunity and responsibility of representing the borough and its citizen’s interests here in Washington DC.

IN RECOGNITION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT EL PASO

HON. SILVESTRE REYES
OF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. REYES. Mr. Speaker, I rise in recognition of the achievements and success of two programs at the University of Texas at El Paso (UTEP) - The Master of Business Administration (MBA) Program and the Reverse Transfer Program. These programs are being recognized by Excellencia in Education.

Excellencia in Education focuses on accelerating success for Latino students at the associate, baccalaureate, and graduate levels. Since 2005, Excellencia has honored programs and departments at the cutting edge of increasing and improving academic achievement for Latinos.

UTEP’s Reverse Transfer Program, honored by Excellencia as a finalist, allows transfer students to earn their final credits at UTEP, and then have those credits sent back to El Paso Community College to fulfill the balance of the associate degree requirement. This program increases the graduation rates at El Paso Community College, and increases UTEP’s retention rate. Which results in improving access to higher education for all students.

UTEP’s Master of Business Administration Program, honored by Excellencia as an awardee, serves over 400 students from more than 20 countries from a variety of backgrounds. The MBA program was recognized for the third year in a row as the number one program for Hispanics in the Nation by the Hispanic Business Magazine. The program reflects Excellencia in Education by blending quality graduate education and affordability.

I want to personally congratulate UTEP’s Master of Business Administration and Reverse Transfer programs for their recognition, which is a testament to the hard work and dedication of faculty, administration, and students. I look forward to the continued success of UTEP, and I am honored to represent this outstanding institution.

She attended the University of Michigan, but left early to serve her country as a member of the U.S. Navy WAVES where she was trained as a nurse’s aide during the greatest conflict of our time.

Following World War II, she married Jack Braude and moved to California to pursue a career in modeling and acting. She soon became involved with California politics and local civic activities in Westchester. In the early 1950s she was a driving force in the Democratic Party, serving in leadership roles with the League of Women Voters.

Lee Anderson then married former Lieutenant Governor and Congressman of California

HON. ANNA G. ESHOO OF CALIFORNIA IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Friday, September 28, 2012

Ms. ESHOO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Sean Cole, a 1992 graduate of Sacred Heart Preparatory. The School is proud to offer the Athletic Hall of Fame to honor him for his athletic achievements. Before Sean Cole became an outstanding goalkeeper, he was varsity baseball starter for four years and was the first topline pitcher to attend SHP. While playing baseball he played third base and batted in middle of lineup, which is reserved for strong hitters. Sean is a tremendous athlete with unmatched effort and integrity. While attending college at Skyline College in San Bruno, California he played soccer and coached at Menlo College and SHP. Sean is a perfect representation of what is required to be a Hall of Famer. He works hard, he focuses, and he believes in what he is doing. He is an example of what we want our students to be in the future.

HONORING THE LIFE OF MR. JOSÉ JIMÉNEZ GUTIERREZ

HON. JIM COSTA OF CALIFORNIA IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the life of José Jiménez Gutierrez, who passed away earlier this month. His lifelong work ethic and deep commitment to family truly exemplified the essence of the American Dream and exhibited the resilience of the human spirit. His contributions to California and our nation will live on through his long-lasting legacy.

After migrating to the United States, José and his wife made Los Angeles their home, where they worked hard to ensure that they could provide the very best for their only daughter, Maria. José possessed a strong sense of responsibility and was a conscientious and trustworthy man.

His superior moral character was passed on to his daughter, Maria, who was perhaps José’s greatest pride and joy. José always encouraged Maria to establish goals and go after them regardless of how impossible they seemed. Education was of great importance to the Gutierrez family. Maria was the first in her family to attend college, earning a Bachelor’s Degree from Loyola Marymount University and her graduate degree from the University of Southern California. Maria went on to have a successful career with Univision and has become a staple in our community and California politics. It is clear that her father’s encouragement, nurturing, and influence contributed greatly to Maria’s success.

José’s charisma, warm nature, and loyalty will undoubtedly be missed. His vibrant life filled with laughter and love was a genuine example of the attainment of the American Dream.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in paying tribute to the life of José Jiménez Gutierrez, a respected and honorable man. His selfless nature and strong work ethic truly made him a source of pride for all Californians and our country.
Mr. Breland has been president and CEO of Tower Federal Credit Union in Laurel, Maryland, since 1994. Under his leadership, Tower has experienced significant and healthy asset growth. WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION ENHANCEMENT ACT (S. 743)

HON. TODD RUSSELL PLATTS
OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. PLATTS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in support of the Whistleblower Protection Enhancement Act, S. 743, and, as a long-time sponsor and cosponsor of similar legislation this session and in past sessions, hope to clarify the intent of the application of the bill’s provisions in two important ways.

By way of background, I first introduced a version of this legislation in 2003, H.R. 3281, to respond to a series of decisions by the Merit Systems Protection Board, MSPB, and the Federal Circuit Court. Those decisions undermined Congressional intent with respect to the original Whistleblower Protection Act of 1989.

Specifically, Congress intended that “any” protected disclosure of waste, fraud, and abuse by a federal employee be covered by the law. As interpreted by the MSPB and the Federal Circuit Court, however, loopholes began to develop. Congress strengthened the law in 1994, but decisions by the MSPB and Federal Circuit Court continued to undermine the intent of Congress.

A mark-up of my original legislation was held in 2004. A mark-up of a re-introduced version of the bill, H.R. 1317, was held in 2006. A version introduced by Representative Henry Waxman and myself, H.R. 985, was passed by the House in 2007. At the core, all of these bills—and their Senate versions—restored the Congressional intent of the original Whistleblower Protection Act by plugging the loopholes that had developed.

The bill before us today makes the same attempt at restoring Congressional intent, but—if interpreted incorrectly—I fear the possibility of two more loopholes opening up.

First, agencies must not be allowed to circumvent whistleblower protections through so-called “secrecy” regulations, such as a new category of information labeled “Sensitive Security Information”) created by the Department of Homeland Security. Whistleblower law understandingly already exempts from whistleblower protections information which is classified or “specifically prohibited by law” from release. This same information affecting national security is kept secret by Executive Order, not a hybrid category of information created by agency regulation like “Sensitive Security Information.”

Moreover, “prohibited by law” has long been understood to mean statutory law and court interpretations of those statutes, not to agency rules and regulations. Any exceptions to these rights must be created by Congress, and Congress must act with specificity. That has been the law since 1978, and it continues to be the law.

Second, it must be understood that those whistleblowers who have been waiting for this bill to be enacted are protected by its provisions. As stated by the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs in its report accompanying this bill, S. Rpt. 112–155:

The Committee expects and intends that the Act’s provisions shall be applied in OSC [Office of Special Counsel], MSPB, and judicial proceedings initiated by or on behalf of a whistleblower and pending on or after that effective date [90 days after the date of enactment of the bill]. Such application is expected and appropriate because the legislation generally corrects erroneous decisions by the MSPB and the courts; removes and compensates for burdens that were wrongly imposed on individual whistleblowers exercising their rights in the public interest; and improves the rules of administrative and judicial procedure and jurisdiction applicable to the vindication of whistleblowers’ rights.

Some in the whistleblower community have been waiting for more than a decade to see Congressional intent with respect to whistleblower law restored. The number who could actually take advantage of the protections in this bill is probably not large, but their cases are significant and justice requires protections for them.

In concluding, I would like to thank the many, many individuals and organizations that have championed this important “good government” issue over the years. There are more than I could possibly mention, but allow me to name just a few: Senator Daniel Akaka, who has pushed this issue for years in the Senate; former Representative Connie Morella, who introduced the first House version of the bill before her retirement; former Representatives Tom Davis and current Representative E. J. Garmisch, who pushed the issue during their service on the Government Reform Committee; my colleagues Darrell Issa, Elijah Cummings, Chris Van Hollen and their staffs; and, finally, the Government Accountability Project (GAP), Project on Government Oversight (POGO), and National Taxpayers Union (NTU). Without all of their efforts, we would not be in a position to finally secure enactment of this important legislation that ensures whistleblowers with the courage to report waste, fraud, and abuse are applauded—not punished.

IN RECOGNITION OF FRED RICHARD "FRED" MEYER

HON. MICHAEL C. BURGESS
OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Fredrick R. “Fred” Meyer. Mr. Meyer was a successful businessman, the Texas GOP chairman for six years, and the chairman of the Republican Party in Dallas for 7 years. Last week he passed away at the age of 84. Mr. Meyer will always be remembered as the man who made the Texas GOP unstoppable.

Mr. Meyer graduated in 1949 from Purdue University with a Bachelor’s Degree in Mechanical Engineering and received a Master of Business Administration degree from Harvard University in 1958, graduating from both with high distinction.

While working as senior vice president of the information services company, Tyler Corporation, in Dallas, Mr. Meyer was asked by Republican congressional candidate Alan Steelman to manage his campaign. After surprisingly winning the race against the former mayor of Dallas, Earle Cabell, Mr. Meyer couldn’t help but become more involved. Beginning in 1972, he became a state delegate at that and every subsequent Republican convention.

Even though Texas was primarily a Democratic state, Mr. Meyer used his skills in fundraising and managing to convince potential candidates to run for Republican seats. About 10 percent of Dallas County elected officials were Republicans when he was elected as Dallas GOP Chairman in 1979, but towards the end of his last term, almost 80 percent of the county elected officials were Republican.

When he lost the race for Dallas mayor to Annette Strauss in 1987, he served three terms as the state GOP chairman, aiding Texas George H.W. Bush in winning the presidency.

His success for the party lasted for two full decades until the Democrats took Dallas County in 2006. His admirable reputation will not be forgotten. During the last few weeks of his life, Mr. Meyer was fundraising in his hospital room for the Cooper Institute. It is presumed that he could never give up his passion.

Mr. Meyer is survived by his wife, Barbara Meyer, his son Brad Meyer, his two daughters, Amy and Cheryl, and his five grandchildren. I would like to extend my sincerest condolences to Fred Meyer’s family and friends.

A TRIBUTE TO HONOR JOE WISE

HON. ANNA G. ESCEO
OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Ms. ESCEO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor an exceptional young man for his outstanding performance at the 2012 London Paralympics. Joe Wise is a tenacious athlete, a brilliant student and a dedicated son. Despite being diagnosed at age nine with mitochondrial myopathy—a severe muscular disorder affecting his legs, hips, core muscles, and lungs, and was told by his doctors that he may not reach his fifteenth birthday—Joe Wise has never given up on his dreams of living an extraordinary life. Joe is an enthusiastic and energetic nineteen year old from Menlo Park, California, who with a passion for swimming was selected to represent the U.S. Paralympics swim team at the 2012 London Paralympics.

Joe’s dedication to swimming began the same year he was diagnosed, and although he suffered from allergies and asthma, his mother never doubted his health. It wasn’t until a fellow swimming mate, Kelly Crowley, introduced him to the Paralympic Games that Joe began to aspire to compete.
In 2004, he competed in the trials for the Athens Paralympics in Minneapolis, but did not make the team. Instead of giving up, Joe tried again at age fifteen and was successful, competing in one event at the 2008 Beijing Paralympics. His goal after Beijing was to make it to London, but this time he wanted to make it to the Paralympics. Joe’s strength and perseverance was tested once again in February of 2012 when he was preparing for the 2012 London trials. His health forced him to take a medical withdrawal from college and pause from swimming. His “time out” has allowed his heart to continue to weaken, and he began spending more time on the ventilator. Joe’s doctors and coaches refused to give in and vowed to get him to London. By early May, Joe’s condition drastically improved and in June he tried out and earned a place on the team.

All of Joe’s time, effort and hard work paid off as he competed in five Paralympic events: the 200-meter individual medley; the 100-meter butterfly; the 100- and 400-meter freestyle; and the 400-meter individual medley. Joe finished second in the 400-meter freestyle race, with a personal best time of 4:15:66. Joe is extremely proud of his results and says the victory was in being selected for the team. Joe has now returned to Loyola University, Maryland, to pursue a degree in political science, with a minor in communications. He intends to continue swimming and will be preparing for Rio 2016.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that the entire House of Representatives join me in honoring this brave and gentle young man. Joe is determined to reach for gold. He’s not only won us over with his smile and spirit, he has also won our hearts with his courage and can-do attitude. Joe is deeply loved and supported by his community of family and friends, and his secret weapon is his mother, Marie Wise. Joe is an inspiration to us all and it is a high privilege to represent him and his family, and pay tribute to him and his extraordinary accomplishments.

S. 743, THE WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION ENHANCEMENT ACT

HON. ELIJAH E. CUMMINGS
OF MARYLAND
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. CUMMINGS. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of the Whistleblower Protection Enhancement Act. This bill will significantly expand the protections available to government whistleblowers. Whistleblowers risk their careers and loses of power and the mismanagement of government resources. Protecting the rights of whistleblowers is critical to rooting out waste and fraud within the government.

I applaud the leadership and commitment of all of my colleagues in Congress and the advocates who have worked on this legislation. The bill we are considering today was introduced by Senator AKAKA. This bill should be a proud addition to his legacy as he closes out his long and distinguished career in Congress. Congressman TODD PLATT and Congressman Chris Van Hollen have also been tireless in their efforts to protect whistleblowers.

This bill provides whistleblower protections to Transportation Security Administration employees. Current law leaves TSA employees unprotected. Giving Transportation Security Officers the same protections as other federal employees will encourage the disclosure of issues that may threaten the safety of our airports.

Under this bill, whistleblowers can appeal a decision of the Merit Systems Protection Board to any federal court of appeals. Currently, all appeals go to the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals which has consistently misinterpreted the intent of Congress with regard to the Whistleblower Protection Act.

This bill also protects government scientists for disclosures about agency censorship or other problems with the integrity of the scientific process. This bill does a lot of good things but I will be honest. The bill that we are considering today is not as strong as I hoped it would be. Even if this bill passes we will still have work to do. We need to provide meaningful rights to whistleblowers in the intelligence community and we need to amend the law to allow whistleblowers the ability to go to court and have their case heard by a jury. I know this bill represents a compromise based on the political realities of today. But the fight is not over. I will continue to fight for the protections that are not in this bill and hope that my colleagues on both sides of the aisle will join me in that fight.

The journey of this legislation has been a long and frustrating one for the advocates of whistleblowers. We have been trying for almost a decade to get a strong bill enacted. We have been so close so many times only to have another roadblock get in the way. Mr. Speaker, I hope that today is different. I hope that this bill will have a clear path to the President’s desk and become law. I urge every Member of Congress to stand up for whistleblowers, to stand up for good government, to pass this legislation, and then to join me tomorrow to continue the fight for whistleblower protections.

HONORING DEVEREUX’S 100TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. PATRICK MEEHAN
OF PENNSYLVANIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. MEEHAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate the Devereux Foundation on its upcoming 100-year anniversary.

The Devereux Foundation, founded in 1912, was the inspiration of Helena Devereux. During her years of service as a public school teacher, Helena developed an interest in students who exhibited learning difficulties. Ms. Devereux theorized that students who had previously failed to achieve academically would thrive if given an individualized approach to learning as well as lesson plans that included social skills. She believed that all students have the ability to become “a contributing and valued member of their community.”

Moving from the classroom to a rented home, where she could provide intensive instruction, Helena mastered individualized education plans for students with learning differences and emotional handicaps. Her philosophy of “every child is a program” empowered her to work day and night to help children overcome their challenges.

As the success of Helena’s methods continued to spread, the reach of the foundation also expanded. In 1938, the Devereux Schools received a non-profit charter establishing the Devereux Foundation. Today the Devereux Foundation has locations in eleven states across the Nation.

The Devereux Foundation students have proven Helena’s hypothesis correct. Students performed the National Anthem a cappella at Columbia University, which is a feat for even the most musically gifted singers. Annually 15,000 individuals receive professional and quality services from the Devereux Foundation to overcome their learning and behavioral differences.

Although Helena is no longer with us, the Devereux Foundation’s staff continues her legacy. Recently Dr. Megan Russell, Corporate Director of Clinical and Professional Affairs, has been invited to present her research findings of a recently completed Devereux study at the American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. This research benefits not only children and adults of the Devereux Foundation but all individuals facing behavioral health challenges. The Devereux Foundation’s work has been highlighted in Microsoft Case Studies. The Devereux Foundation uses specialized software to serve students more effectively by collecting data on their behavior to analyze and modify progress and treatment plans.

The innovation of Helena Devereux continues in the Devereux Foundation as they complete one hundred years of exemplary service throughout the Seventh Congressional District of Pennsylvania and beyond. I send them my sincere congratulations and wish them continued success.

OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the First Special Service Force for their unique service to the allied cause during World War Two. It is with a profound sense of gratitude that I honor the service and sacrifice of these forefathers of modern combined special operations forces. Their heroic contribution to our allied war effort in Europe played a crucial part in stemming the spread of tyranny and securing for future generations the blessings of freedom.
The First Special Service Force was the first official special operations unit in American history. It was formed in July 1942 as a result of a top secret plan conceived by the Chiefs of Staff of the United States and Great Britain to assemble a new type of fighting force capable of conducting special warfare tactics and speed of movement to attack and destroy key military and industrial installations in Europe supporting the Nazi war effort.

It was initially composed of 1,800 American and Canadian volunteers who had been mountaineers, loggers, ranch hands and outdoorsmen before the war. They received extensive training at Fort William Henry Harrison, Montana, in parachuting, demolitions, mountain-climbing, winter warfare and amphibious landings.

From 1943 onward, the First Special Service Force took part in high risk missions in the Aleutian Islands in Alaska, in Italy and in the south of France; and they were the first Allied unit to enter liberated Rome. During combat operations at Anzio, Italy, captured Nazi documents indicated that, due to their ferocity and stealth in combat, the Germans had begun referring to the First Special Service Force as “the Black Devils.” It was from this revelation that the unit received its nickname—the Devil’s Brigade. By the end of the war, the First Special Service Force lost a total of 2,314 men, equating to 134 percent of the original combat force.

Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the United States Congress, it is my honor to recognize the service and sacrifice of those valiant American and Canadian volunteers who served the cause of freedom as members of the First Special Service Force. Their dedication to duty, their selfless service to their countries, and their enormous contribution toward halting the spread of Nazi tyranny bear testament to the shared heritage of freedom between the United States and Canada. My wife Vicki joins me in saluting the men of the First Special Service Force on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the formation of the First Special Service Force.

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor of Mr. Bujar Nishani, the President of Albania, on the occasion of the dedication of the Albanian Cultural Garden, taking place on September 22, 2012.

President Nishani was born in Durres on November 2, 1930. President Nishani began a long career in public service in 1993 as the Director of Foreign Affairs at the Ministry of Defense. A year later, he began serving at the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Relations Department of the Ministry of Affairs.

President Nishani’s political career began in 1991, when he first became a member of the Democratic Party. In 2001, he was elected as the Secretary of the Tirana Democratic Party Branch. Two years later he was elected as a member of the Tirana Municipal Council. In 2005, President Nishani was elected as a parliamentary member of Tirana’s 34th electoral district. He later went on to serve as Minister of Interior and the Minister of Justice. In July of this year, Mr. Nishani was sworn in as President of the Ministry of Affairs.

Mr. Speaker and colleagues, please join me in honor of President Bujar Nishani and in recognition of his visit to Cleveland, Ohio on the occasion of the dedication of the Albanian Cultural Garden.

CHRIST EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN CHURCH

HON. LOU BARLETTA
OF PENNSYLVANIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. BARLETTA. Mr. Speaker, I rise to congratulate the parishioners of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church in Hazleton, Pennsylvania, who are celebrating the church’s 150th anniversary. In 1862, several members of the first German congregation in Hazleton established a separate church to identify themselves as distinctly Lutheran. The cornerstone was laid in 1890, and the cornerstone was dedicated, and the Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church began its mission of glorifying God.

The church faced many challenges throughout the years, from adjusting to our nation’s customs and general society to growing its congregation. In the late 1800s, parishioners of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church recognized the importance of helping parishioners assimilate into the community and culture, so the English language was introduced at worship services. By 1903, parishioners formed their first English Sunday School and demonstrated a strong commitment to a Christian education for all ages. As the number of the church’s devoted parishioners grew, the congregation built a new church and, most importantly, a new Sunday school. The buildings, which still stand today, were dedicated on November 2, 1930.

Today, the dedicated parishioners of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church continue the virtuous work started by their forefathers 150 years ago. To help the people in their community, the church has partnered with Seeds of Hope, a nonprofit organization that assists families in crisis, and the Salvation Army. Through these organizations, this church’s parishioners help maintain a food pantry, provide services such as property cleanup to promote a safe environment for children, and donate to the Salvation Army’s food and clothing drives. The present church is the result of faithfulness to the teachings, customs, and traditions of the Lutheran church. With the guidance of their present pastor, Reverend Wayne Lupole, the church welcomes all families as they seek to explore their Christian faith.

Mr. Speaker, I offer my most sincere congratulations and deepest respect to the parishioners of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church of Hazleton, Pennsylvania, and I wish them many years of successful, faithful future service.

HONORING THE LIFE OF RAQUEL CRETIOFF

HON. JOSÉ E. SERRANO
OF NEW YORK
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. SERRANO. Mr. Speaker, today I would like to commemorate the life and work of Raquel Creitoff, who passed away on September 6 at the age of 90.

Raquel Creitoff was born in Cabo Rojo, Puerto Rico, on December 7, 1921, but left her native island in the mid-1940s to live in Manhattan. Raquel soon began working as a member of the staff of the old Migration Division of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico office in New York City. The office’s goal, and Raquel’s work, was to help Puerto Ricans moving from the island to New York City, adjust to their new home.

From housing to jobs to health services, the Migration Division helped Puerto Ricans establish new lives in unfamiliar surroundings. For close to half a century, Raquel worked in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico’s office in New York City, and was a dedicated public servant who helped countless Puerto Ricans who had made the trip from the island to New York City in search of economic opportunity.

Raquel was a well-recognized leader of the Puerto Rican community in New York. She was active in numerous organizations, including the Puerto Rican Family Institute and the New York Chapter of the National Conference of Puerto Rican Women. Additionally, she served on the Board of Universidad Boricua, previously known as Boricua College.

Over the years, Raquel helped countless individuals in the Bronx and in New York City. She will be missed.

Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. MICA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the Central Florida Veterans who will be participating in the Volusia Honor Air flight to our Nation’s capital on Saturday, September 29, 2012. Over the past five years, the Volusia Honor Air program has provided an opportunity for our World War II Veterans from the Central Florida area to travel to Washington, DC to visit the memorial built in their honor. That one day event for these World War II heroes is one of the most special in their lives and is certainly well deserved.

Since the first flight in 2008 the program has accommodated more than 1,000 veterans in hosting a special visit to their memorial. This flight marks the 10th and final flight for the program.

I would like to take this opportunity to recognize each veteran of this final Volusia Honor

HON. JEFF MILLER OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to recognize the Ward family for being selected as the 2012 Walton County, Florida, Outstanding Farm Family. Bruce and Shirley Ward have been farming and raising livestock in the Liberty Community of Walton County for many years. They raise cattle and grow a variety of fresh produce, peanuts, cotton, and soybeans. The Wards’ vegetable stand located off of Highway 331 af-fords local citizens and those traveling through the area an opportunity to enjoy their fresh produce. The Wards’ farm also includes a portable sawmill, which Mr. Ward operates in his spare time to grind sugarcane.

Bruce and Shirley share their time on the farm with their loved ones and have always cherished the time they have spent with their children and grandchildren. They are also longtime members of the Florida Farm Bu-reau. It is appropriate to say that the Wards exemplify the perfect balance of farm, family, and community.

Mr. Speaker, our great nation was built by farmers and their families, and I take great pride in recognizing and paying tribute to the outstanding farm families located in Northwest Florida. On behalf of the United States Con-gress, I would like to offer my congratulations to the Ward family and thank them for their contributions to the Northwest Florida commu-nity. My wife Vicki and I extend our best wish-es for their continued success.

ABILITYONE PROGRAM

HON. KRISTI L. NOEM OF SOUTH DAKOTA

Friday, September 28, 2012

Mrs. NOEM. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recog-nize the AbilityOne program, which is one of the largest providers for people who are blind or have severe disabilities. AbilityOne has helped over 40,000 people gain the necessary skills to enter and succeed in the workforce. In my home State of South Dakota, Black Hills Services Inc., helps to implement this critical program.

The AbilityOne program connects Federal Government agencies with community based non-profits that are dedicated to employing the blind and disabled. This program affords Americans with disabilities opportunities to acquire job skills and training, receive good wages and benefits, gain greater inde-pendence and quality of life. This program provides essential assistance to a segment of the population that has one of the highest lev-els of unemployment in our country.

I am proud to acknowledge the important work of Services at Ellsworth Air Force Base. I recently had the pleasure of visiting with many team members and seeing first hand the great job they do. With the support of the AbilityOne Program, BH Services provides as-sistance and employment to more than 325 people with disabilities in the Rapid City area. The direct impact this program has on the lives of Americans with disabilities cannot be understated.

For an individual with a significant disability who has never had the opportunity to work, be independent, participate in commu-nity life, or contribute to their society; the AbilityOne Program and agencies like BH Services are invaluable.

The work AbilityOne and BH Services do everyday help people live fuller lives and be-come more active members of society. I ap-plaud each AbilityOne employee who works every day to improve their lives and make South Dakota and our country, a better place to live.

HONORING THE 100TH ANNIVER-SARY OF THE COALINGA HURON LIBRARY DISTRICT

HON. JIM COSTA OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratuate the Coalinga Huron Library Dis-trict on its 100th anniversary. The Coalinga Huron Library District has served as a great asset to the community as well as a historical site for the citizens of Coalinga and Huron to enjoy every day.

On June 25, 1912, the vote passed by the County Supervisors to form the Coalinga Huron Library District. After gaining over-whelming support for the Library District, they successfully received a Carnegie grant of $20,000. Today, the main library sits on 4th and Durian streets which is the site of the original purchase.

Libraries serve as the ideal place for people to read, study, and research and beyond that libraries have turned into great venues for holding workshops, seminars, and events. The Coalinga Huron Library District is a place for people of all ages and backgrounds. Thanks to the renovatons done in 1955, 1994, and today, the citizens of Coalinga and Huron have beautiful libraries to visit.

Research and technology are vital compo-nents to education today, and public libraries are great tools for students to get research done for free. The Coalinga Huron Library Dis-trict understands the importance of technology in our world today, and they are staying up-to-date with software programs. Members of the library have access to view books, e-books, periodicals, and historical documents.

Thanks to the public library system, citizens are provided access to books and computers that they normally would not have access to. Along with the access to books and reading materials comes literacy. The abilities to read and write can be overlooked by some people, but librarians and educators know that without the current availability of books, literacy rates would be greatly reduced.

It is appropriate to say that the Coalinga Huron Library District is obviously aware of their importance and is committed to staying open. They should be commended for their hard work.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing the Coalinga Huron Library District for its numerous contributions to the cities of Coalinga and Huron and central California. The libraries serve as a great source for mem-bers, and the services provided will hopefully be available for many more years to come.

HONORING STEVE CHANEY FOR HIS SERVICE TO REDWOOD NA-TIONAL PARK

HON. MIKE THOMPSON OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. THOMPSON of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Steve Chaney, Superintendent of Redwood National Park, hon-oring his 40-year dedication to our nation’s na-tional parks.
Mr. Chaney has dedicated his professional life to preserving our nation’s abundant beauty. His career has included service in several different parks, from Arkansas to Colorado, Kentucky, Utah and Northern California.

Mr. Chaney has served in many roles, ranging from park aid, to ranger, technician and superintendent.

As superintendent of Redwood National Park, Mr. Chaney has worked to protect and preserve the health of the vast forests and watersheds of Del Norte and Humboldt counties.

In his role as superintendent, Mr. Chaney has worked to support California State Parks to prevent the closure of one of three area state parks; he has prioritized relations with the Yurok and other local tribes; has improved the culture of safety at Redwood National Park; has addressed illegal and ecologically harmful marijuana cultivation on park lands; and has overseen the effort to improve the park’s second-growth Douglas fir and redwood stands.

Mr. Speaker, it is appropriate at this time that we recognize Steve Chaney for his dedication to our national parks and for his long record of service to our national park’s visitors.

Mr. WALZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the accomplishments of Russell-Tyler-Ruthton (RTR) Elementary School in Ruthton, Minnesota.

On September 7th, RTR Elementary School was named one of two schools from the First District of Minnesota to be designated as a 2012 National Blue Ribbon School.

This award recognizes exemplary schools like RTR Elementary School where students have consistently achieved the top of assessment results. Recipients of this award truly exemplify the State of Minnesota’s belief that every child has promise and must receive a high quality education.

As a teacher on leave from Mankato West, I know that achieving success for all students takes a commitment from the entire school, from the principal to the counselors to the teachers. When students see every adult in their school dedicated to their success and achieving a higher goal, they are motivated to do their best.

This is exactly what RTR Elementary has done for its students. Under the leadership of Principal Amy Christensen, they have focused on building relationships with every student, and executing the RTR Literacy Plan to ensure success in the English Language Arts. Their efforts have led to exceptional results.

This award recognizes what the RTR Elementary School community already knows—RTR Elementary is a place where every student, no matter their ability or background, can fulfill their potential. RTR Elementary is an outstanding model of achievement for schools across Minnesota and the country.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in honoring RTR Elementary School for its dedication to the students of Ruthton.

RECOGNIZING THE BARTON FAMILY AS THE HOLMES COUNTY, FLORIDA, 2012 FARM FAMILY OF THE YEAR

HON. JEFF MILLER OF FLORIDA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. MILLER of Florida. Mr. Speaker, it is with great pleasure that I rise to recognize the Barton family for being selected as the 2012 Holmes County, Florida, Farm Family of the Year.

Ken and Rhonda Barton are Northwest Florida natives with a deep connection to the local farming community. Farming became a part of their childhood and way of life. Thirty-three years ago, they were married, and it then became a love they have since shared as husband and wife and one that they now share with their children and grandchildren. Together, they successfully operate a 1,200 acre farm, where they raise livestock and grow peanuts, cotton, oats, and hay. The success of the farm is largely due to the way in which the Barton family operates. Each plays a supporting role, while following the best management practices. It is through their tireless work and dedication that the Barton Family demonstrates a true love of agriculture and family.

Outside of the farm, the family plays an active role in the community. Ken and Rhonda are heavily involved in numerous state agriculture associations, including the Florida Peanut Producers Association, the Southern Peanut Farmers Federation, the Florida Cattlemen’s Association, and the Florida Farm Bureau. In 2003, Ken became the Executive Director of the Florida Peanut Producers Association, where he proudly represents the peanut farmers of the state of Florida in both Tallahassee and Washington, D.C. He also dedicates his time to research, promotion, and education in Florida peanut production.

Their daughter Tonya is an elementary school teacher at Bethlehem School and is currently representing the peanut farmers of the Holmes County, Florida, Farm Family of the Year. In 2003, Ken became the Executive Director of the Florida Peanut Producers Association, where he proudly represents the peanut farmers of the state of Florida in both Tallahassee and Washington, D.C. He also dedicates his time to research, promotion, and education in Florida peanut production.

Their daughter Tonya is an elementary school teacher at Bethlehem School and is married to Kevin Amerson, who is a field representative with Dothan Livestock. They have instilled in their two young children, Kason and Kolton, a dedication and appreciation for farming. They are always eager to assist with hay operations or working the cattle. And Ken and Rhonda’s son, Chad, is an aircraft mechanic at Fort Rucker and is active with the row-crop operation of the farm. He is married to Ashley Miller who assists with the daily workings of the farm. One of the greatest joys of their two young children, Kason and Kolton, is spending time in the field or on a tractor with Ken and Rhonda.

In addition to their love for farming and love of family, as great stewards of the land, Ken and Rhonda are dedicated farmers who are ever grateful to the Lord.

Mr. Speaker, our great nation was built by the hard work and commitment she has given to her community, family, and church. Edna has never lost her passion for fun and, when she’s not on a golf course, you can find her at the card table playing games or telling stories with friends and family. Edna will celebrate this special birthday surrounded by friends and family, including her four grandchildren and ten great grandchildren.

Mr. Speaker, it is an honor to represent Edna in the United States Congress and it is my pleasure to wish her a very happy 100th birthday. I invite my colleagues in the House to join me in congratulating Ms. Knudson on
IN RECOGNITION OF BARRY CONWAY’S RETIREMENT

HON. FRANK C. GIUNTA
OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. GIUNTA. Mr. Speaker, on September 30, 2012 Barry Conway will retire as Com- mendant of the New Hampshire State Vet- erans Home after forty years of faithful service in health care administration. Mr. Conway began his career as a Corpsman with the United States Air Force serving from 1960–1964. Soon after leaving the Air Force, he pur- sued his post secondary education in Rhode Island, before beginning his work in health care administration working in long-term care facilities, ambulatory care centers and hos- pitals.

For the last twenty-three years, Mr. Conway has worked at the New Hampshire State Vet- erans Home, providing quality care and serv- ices to our state’s aging and disabled vet- erans. Under his leadership the Veterans Home has become a sought after long-term care facility, focusing on the special needs of our veterans. The care provided to our veterans not only meets their specific challenges and needs, but honors both them and their service to our country.

Mr. Conway has also shared his expertise and experience in caring for the elderly, frail, and disabled veterans as a member of many associations including the National Association of State Veterans Homes, American College of Health Care Administrators, New Hamp- shire Health Care Association, and the Amer- ican Legion. He has served New Hampshire and its residents well, especially our veterans community, and he will be sorely missed when he leaves the Veterans Home.

I congratulate Barry Conway on his well earned retirement and thank him for his out- standing support of our veterans here in New Hampshire. I wish both Barry and his wife Bar- bara continued success in their life together.

TRIBUTE TO SARAH DEMAREE

HON. GREG WALDEN
OF OREGON
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. WALDEN. Mr. Speaker, now that we have returned to our districts before the election, I’d like to highlight a valuable staff mem- ber of mine who recently left my office. I rise today to pay tribute and say thanks to Sarah Demaree, a member of my staff who dedi- cated herself to the people of Oregon’s Sec- ond Congressional District for nearly three years in my Washington, DC, Office.

Sarah is a talented young woman who filled many different roles in my office, and was up to the challenge for each one. First joining the office after graduating from Colgate University, Sarah quickly stepped into the role of staff assistant and has continued to take on more responsibility as a legislative correspondent and legislative assistant handling education issues.

Whatever she was asked to do—even if she wasn’t asked directly to do it—Sarah was up to the challenge. When she was staff assist- ant, she went above and beyond to make all Oregonians who visited feel welcome. Each and every one came a long way, and she gave them some of the best Capitol tours on the Hill. As legislative correspondent, she helped me keep in close touch with all corners of the Second District.

Sarah adeptly handled complex policy issues as my education advisor. In that role, Sarah kept in close touch with teachers throughout Oregon and maintained a close re- lationship to teacher groups and education ad- ministrators.

Sarah also organized several visits from a group of special men and women, World War II veterans from Oregon as part of Honor Flight of Oregon and Honor Flight of Eastern Oregon. Each time a group travelled to Wash- ington, Sarah would plan their visits for weeks to make sure each and every one of these he- roes had a perfect trip to our nation’s capital. She was known to rise early on Saturday mornings to go to the World War II Memorial to greet these veterans, and present them with flags flown over the Capitol. The organizers of these visits, Gail Yakopatz and Dick Tobison, always singled out Sarah for her help, praising her dedication and Tenacity.

While not a native Oregonian, Sarah has deep ties to the state, whether through her an- nual family camping trip to Howard Prairie Lake outside of Ashland or her extended fam- ily in Portland. These deep connections to the state allowed her to connect with Oregonians from around the Second District.

While Sarah has dedicated herself to public service here in our nation’s capital, she has headed back to her native Washington State to enter a new and exciting phase of her life. Sarah has given up the “maroon and white” of her alma mater, Colgate University, for the “purple and gold” of her home state University of Washington where she began law school this fall.

I’m sure that law school has been keeping Sarah plenty busy, but with her industrious work ethic, and desire to make the world a better place, I can imagine Sarah will soon be putting her energy into public service in Wash- ington State. She’s also closer to her mom and dad, Walt and Liz, and to her beloved Sea- attle Seahawks. I speak for all members of Team Walden when I say Sarah’s dedication and talent have been missed, but we wish her best of luck as she begins her new life in “the other” Washington.

I ask my colleagues to join me in wishing Sarah the best of luck as she returns West and pursues new personal and professional endeavors. Sarah, thanks for exemplary serv- ice to the Congress and citizens of Oregon.

TRIBUTE TO EAGLE SCOUT WILLIAM M. HITTLE IV

HON. TOM LATHAM
OF IOWA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. LATHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize William M. Hittle IV of Nora Springs, Iowa for achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. The Eagle Scout rank is the highest advance- ment rank in scouting. Only about 5 per- cent of Boy Scouts earn the Eagle Scout Award. The award is a performance-based achievement with high standards that have been maintained consistently.

To earn the Eagle Scout rank, a Boy Scout is obligated to pass specific tests that are or- ganized by requirements and merit badges, as well as completing an Eagle Project to benefit the community. The work ethic William has shown in his Eagle Project and every other project leading up to his Eagle Scout rank speaks volumes of his commitment to serving a cause greater than himself and assisting his community.

Mr. Speaker, the example set by this young man and his family demonstrates the rewards of hard work, dedication and perse- verance. I am honored to represent William and his family in the United States Congress. I know that all of my colleagues in the House will join me in congratulating him on obtaining the Eagle Scout ranking, and I wish him continued success in his future education and ca- reer.

IN RECOGNITION OF FRIENDS OF LIGHT RAIL AND TRANSIT

HON. DORIS O. MATSUI
OF CALIFORNIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Ms. MATSUI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Friends of Light Rail and Transit as they celebrate their 25th anniversary. As sup- porters and members of this fine organization gather together to celebrate a quarter century of steadfast public transit advocacy, I ask all my colleagues to join me in recognizing them for their efforts to advocate for the improve- ment and expansion of bus and light rail serv- ice in Sacramento.

For the past 25 years, Friends of Light Rail and Transit has been a staunch supporter of public transportation in the Sacramento area. Since the inception of light rail in 1987, they have been instrumental in the growth and pro- motion of the public transportation system in the Sacramento region. With Friends of Light Rail and Transit’s support, the Sacramento Regional Transit District has continued to ex- pand light rail service in Sacramento and most recently add the new Green Line, which will eventually link Natomas and the Sacramento Airport to the rest of the light rail system. Friends of Light Rail and Transit has also fought for improved bus service for every neighborhood in the region.

Friends of Light Rail and Transit have hosted, sponsored and participated in count- less community workshops for transit oriented planning projects across the region. They have pushed decision makers and policy- makers to ensure public transit is at the fore- front of their minds. Headed by Executive Di- rector Seann Rooney and Board President Dain Domic, this great organization has been prominent in voicing their support for improved air quality, infill development, and congestion relief; consistently and tirelessly pushing for a better tomorrow.
Mr. Speaker, as members and supporters of Friends of Light Rail and Transit gather to celebrate this milestone, and their many achievements over the last 25 years, I ask my colleagues to join me in saluting these fine individuals for their excellent work and commitment to our community.

His efforts also focused on implementing Primary Care Mental Health Integration and expanding the Home Based Primary Care Program to the Community Based Outpatient Clinics throughout the State. He has also stepped in to help out at other Medical Centers in White River Junction, Vermont and Bedford, Massachusetts when these facilities were transitioning between directors.

Dr. Levenson has been a great leader for our veterans here in New Hampshire and provided all of our veterans with the services and care they need when transitioning back from active duty to civilian life, and into their later years. His work has been outstanding and is greatly appreciated. I congratulate Dr. Levenson on his well earned retirement and thank him for his outstanding support of our veterans in New Hampshire and New England.

HONORING TEAM ACADEMY

HON. TIMOTHY J. WALZ
OF MINNESOTA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. WALZ. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the accomplishments of TEAM Academy in Waseca, Minnesota.

On September 7th, TEAM Academy was named one of two schools from the First District of Minnesota to be designated as a 2012 National Blue Ribbon School.

This award recognizes exemplary schools like TEAM Academy where students have made significant progress. Schools that receive this award truly exemplify the belief that every child has promise and must receive a high quality education.

As a teacher on leave from Mankato West, I know that achieving success for all students takes a commitment from the entire school, from the principal to the counselors to the teachers. Their dedication every day toward success and achieving a higher goal motivates students to do their best.

This is exactly what TEAM Academy has done for its students. Under the leadership of Director Jil Ladwig, the school practices individualized learning in small groups, and focuses on reading, mathematics and exposure to art, Spanish, physical education and music. Every day, students walk into an environment where they are encouraged to reach their full potential, become a productive member of society, and understand the importance of post-secondary education.

This award recognizes what the Waseca community already knows—TEAM Academy is a place where every student, no matter their background or ability, can fulfill their potential.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in honoring TEAM Academy for its dedication to the students of Waseca.
Mr. THOMPSON of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Bette Boyd. Mrs. Boyd has exercised the most important duty of citizenship, voting in every election since she registered to vote at the age of 21 in 1947. She has dedicated her time and efforts to community endeavors and good citizenship since being first employed in war work in 1943.

When the demand for skilled workers was at a high in 1943, Mrs. Boyd went to work in the American Motors plant in Los Angeles. Shortly after, she was promoted to lead the work group of women engaged in essential war work. Bette embraced her responsibilities and welcomed the opportunity to contribute to the war effort.

Her first job after WWII exposed her to the need for a union voice and she began an organizing effort for the United Electrical Workers. She advocated for better wages and working conditions for men and women engaged in assembly line work. Bette took fellow workers out on strike and experienced for the first time the power of owners and management when the strike was broken. After the Vietnam War, Bette met refugees from Southeast Asia who needed help adjusting to American life. She assisted refugees in securing employment and was responsible for integrating 1500 refugee families into American culture.

Through her work with Vietnamese refugees, Bette became aware of the onset of AIDS in Los Angeles and the Bay Area. She volunteered to work with AIDS patients at an early point in the epidemic that would become a global scourge. She met Mother Teresa and helped establish an AIDS clinic in India. Bette continues her work with AIDS patients today.

Bette became involved with the poor in India. She proposed to provide funds to improve educational opportunities in a rural South India village and insisted that girls be offered the same educational opportunities as boys. She contributed to the construction of a school that would touch hundreds of children. Today that school in Madahalli, Karnataka State enrolls 850 children.

Bette moved to Humboldt County in 1993 and has been involved in volunteer work ever since. Her work ranges from helping cancer patients get treatment to working with HIV patients, and helping the mentally ill. She is a stalwart at Democratic Headquarters and is regularly at booths and street fairs. She encourages all who are eligible to register and vote, thereby fulfilling the first duty of citizenship.

Mr. Speaker, it is appropriate at this time that we recognize Bette Boyd for her outstanding service to a global citizenry.
Tribute to Andrew Whelan

Hon. Greg Walden of Oregon
In the House of Representatives
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. WALDEN. Mr. Speaker, now that we have returned to our districts before the election, I'd like to highlight a valuable staff member of mine who recently left my office. I rise today to honor an outstanding golfer, a barbecue master, and an intensely devoted San Francisco 49ers fan who ably and professionally served for many years as my press secretary, Andrew Whelan. Andrew and his wife Paige recently moved back to their home state of California, and I've greatly missed his keen advice and genuine friendship.

Andrew started the Capitol Hill chapter of his career nearly seven years ago, working on the House Committee on Resources, eventually rising to deputy press secretary. In December 2006, I hired him as my press secretary, where he has successfully served the people of Oregon ever since.

Mr. Speaker, there may be no more challenging job on Capitol Hill than being a press secretary to a Member of Congress who was a press secretary to a Member of Congress. But Andrew went above and beyond by facing this demanding role with unflinching resolve and dedication—all while making it look nearly effortless and easy.

Before pursuing federal public service in Washington, Andrew worked for a state assemblyman in California, and edited his alma mater's campus newspaper, the California Aggie at University of California, Davis.

A Member of Congress relies on his or her staff to be his eyes and ears across the district—especially when the district covers 70,000 square miles, like Oregon's Second. Andrew has always been a highly effective representative of me whether it be when speaking to a national news outlet, the local hometown newspaper reporter, or an eager young student angling for an inside scoop for a school project on Congress.

Andrew made it a point to maintain a genuine connection to constituents he came into contact with in all corners of the district—those who agree with my policy positions and those who do not. He listened sincerely to their points of view and, even if they challenged him with extreme emotion, his responses were always civil and respectful and his demeanor was patient.

Andrew made it his highest goal to keep in touch with the citizens of the Second District. He believes, as do I, that we are here to do the people's business, and the people have the right to know what their government is doing. It was Andrew's job to help communicate what we as Members are doing back to the people we serve.

Andrew played a leading role in a number of public affairs efforts that made a real difference in our country. From helping to uncover negligence in federal agencies, to spotlighting an unfair and misleading National Guard bonus program for new recruits, to restoring housing rights for homeless veterans, to developing many other communications strategies that forced the government to better help the people they are supposed to serve, Andrew accomplished much for his fellow citizens during his time in Washington.

As a press secretary, Andrew had to have a handle on a wide range of policy issues—and often had to know the issues as well as or better than the policy staff. He had to figure out how to explain complicated issues to people, often on a very tight deadline. To better keep in touch with people, he helped me expand the use of social media to more effectively reach Oregonians on Facebook, YouTube, and Twitter.

On a personal level, Andrew's love of golf is only overshadowed by his love for his wife, Paige. According to his mother, he was seen swinging a golf club even in diapers and won his first tournament at eight years old. He's even played in the qualifier for the U.S. Open twice. Also according to his mother, the only time he's looked happier than his time on the golf course was the day he married Paige.

While living in Washington, DC, Andrew became an uncle, and he enjoyed being able to visit his brothers Don and Rob and his four nieces and nephews who live here on the East Coast.

But now Andrew and Paige have moved back home to California. While Team Walden was very sorry to see him go, I know his parents Bill and Lindy are happy to be close to their son once again. I speak for all my current and former staff when I say we have missed Andrew very much. I should also add that I know the folks at Potbelly's around Washington have also been very sad to see him go, but delighted at the prospects of him opening the first Potbelly's franchise in the Bay Area, which will be necessary to satisfy his cravings.

I ask my colleagues to join me in wishing Andrew and Paige the best of luck as they return West and pursue new personal and professional endeavors. Andrew, thanks for exemplary service to the Congress and citizens of Oregon.

Tribute to Ramona Esbeck

Hon. Tom Latham of Iowa
In the House of Representatives
Friday, September 28, 2012

Mr. LATHAM. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and congratulate Ramona Esbeck on the upcoming celebration of her 100th birthday. Ramona will celebrate a century of life on October 7th, 2012.

Our world has changed a great deal during the course of Ramona’s life. Since her birth, we have revolutionized air travel and walked on the moon. We have invented the television, cellular phones and the internet. We have fought in wars overseas, seen the rise and fall of Soviet communism and witnessed the birth of new democracies. Ramona has lived through eighteen United States Presidents and twenty-two Governors of Iowa. In her lifetime, the population of the United States has more than tripled.

Mr. Speaker, it is an honor to represent Ramona in the United States Congress and it is my pleasure to wish her a very happy 100th birthday. I invite my colleagues in the House to join me in congratulating Ms. Esbeck on reaching this incredible milestone, and wishing her even more health and happiness in the years to come.
