

COAST GUARD AUTHORIZATION
ACT OF 2012 AMENDMENTS

SPEECH OF

HON. FRANK A. LOBIONDO

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 5, 2012

Mr. LOBIONDO. Mr. Speaker, I understand a concern has been raised by the gentleman from Alaska, Mr. YOUNG and others that wording in Section 307 of the Coast Guard and Maritime Transportation Act of 2012 relating to a vessel's "eligibility" to participate in the non-AFA trawl catcher/processor sector could potentially be read to result in the loss of fishery endorsements for AFA catcher/processors. I can affirm that it is not the intent of the legislation that either existing AFA vessels or rebuilt or replacement AFA vessels suffer a loss of fishery endorsements merely for being considered eligible to participate in a fishery in which they are not participating.

As my colleagues know, this provision came as the result of a request from the other body during negotiations with them on a final text of the legislation. I can assure my colleagues that it was never contemplated that either existing AFA catcher/processors or rebuilt or replacement AFA vessels would lose, or be precluded from acquiring, fishery endorsements just because a federal agency might find such vessels eligible to participate in certain fisheries. The wording of Section 307, that amends 46 U.S.C. section 12113(d)(2)(C), relates to a section in statute pertaining to rebuilt or replacement AFA vessels. It creates restrictions on those vessels from entering the non-AFA pollock catcher/processor sector as replacement vessels, but it is not intended to affect the fishery endorsements for existing AFA catcher/processors or rebuilt or replacement AFA vessels that are not participating in the non-AFA trawl catcher/processor sector.

HONORING THE WORK OF MARK
RIDLEY-THOMASHON. KAREN BASS

OF CALIFORNIA

Monday, December 17, 2012

Ms. BASS of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the work of a distinguished public servant from Los Angeles, Mr. Mark Ridley-Thomas. In 2008, Mr. Ridley-Thomas was overwhelmingly elected as the first African American man to the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors. This past November, Mr. Ridley-Thomas' leadership was further acknowledged and he was unanimously approved by the Board to become the first African American man to chair the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors.

First elected to public office over twenty years ago, Mr. Ridley-Thomas served with distinction on the Los Angeles City Council for nearly a dozen years. He later served two terms in the California State Assembly, where he chaired the Assembly Democratic Caucus. Thereafter, he served as a California State Senator where he chaired the Legislative Black Caucus and initiated unprecedented levels of cooperation and collaboration between the Black, Latino, and Asian-Pacific Islander Legislative Caucuses.

Mr. Ridley-Thomas is widely regarded for uniting civic engagement and government decision-making. In an effort to encourage neighborhood-based advocacy and citizen leadership, Mr. Ridley-Thomas established the Empowerment Congress which served as a model and predecessor for the citywide Neighborhood Councils. Through education, engagement, and empowerment, Mr. Ridley-Thomas equipped and inspired his constituents to confront prevailing racial and economic disparities and improve community and public policy outcomes.

Throughout his life, Mr. Ridley-Thomas has shown a dedication and passion for improving the health and wellness of communities by inspiring participatory engagement to provoke change. After earning a baccalaureate degree in Social Relations and a master's degree in Religious Studies, he further went on to receive his Ph.D. in Social Ethics from the University of Southern California focusing on Social Criticism and Social Change. He has devoted his life to the betterment of the people of Los Angeles County and has used his leadership to bring about effective change in Los Angeles County.

In addition to this exemplary public service, Supervisor Ridley-Thomas is deeply committed to his roles as father and husband. His wife Avis and twin sons, Sebastian and Sinclair, are shining examples of love and inspiration that Mr. Ridley-Thomas derives from his family and graciously shares with the community.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to have called Mr. Mark Ridley-Thomas a friend and partner in the fight for social and economic justice. He has left an indelible mark on Los Angeles, and continues to inspire my work in Congress and people of Los Angeles. It is a great honor to recognize his work here on the floor today.

RECOGNIZING THE SERVICE OF
PAUL A. LEONARDIHON. JIM COSTA

OF CALIFORNIA

Monday, December 17, 2012

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Paul A. Leonardi for his loyalty and commitment to the United States. He exemplifies a passion for serving others, and we must commend him for his hard work in keeping our country safe. After 28 years of dedicated service to the federal government, Paul is retiring to spend more quality time with his family.

In 1973, Paul joined the United States Air Force. He served as a Security Specialist and an Air Force Recruiter for over eight years. His various assignments in the military enabled him to travel all over the United States. Paul was stationed at the Strategic Air Command at Wurtsmith AFB, Michigan; the United States Air Forces in Europe Command at RAF Alconbury, England; the Air Force Logistics Command at Hill AFB, Utah; the Air Training Command as an Air Force Recruiter in Bay City, Michigan; and the Strategic Air Command at Minot AFB, North Dakota. Paul was honorably discharged in 1981. Paul's time in the Air Force prepared him well for his work at Immigration and Naturalization Service and the Department of Homeland Security.

Paul began working for INS in 1992 as an immigration inspector at the Orlando International Airport in Orlando, Florida. He was then transferred to Miami as a criminal investigator. Paul worked as a criminal investigator for several years before being promoted to the Joint Terrorism Task Force after September 11, 2001. A couple months later he was promoted to Supervisory Special Agent, and after a year, he relocated to Fresno, California.

In 2003, Paul continued his work as Supervisory Special Agent for Homeland Security Investigations, and in 2010, he was promoted to Resident Agent in Charge. His vast experience and knowledge made him perfect for the job.

Mr. Speaker, it should be noted that in addition to his countless gifts to our country, Paul has been a true champion for my constituents. He and his team have always been available to discuss issues and work together to make our Central Valley a better place. We are all grateful for Paul's unwavering commitment and leadership, but I know he will enjoy more time with his wife of 26 years, Barbara, his children and grandchildren. I ask my colleagues to join me today in recognizing the commitment, dedication, and success of Paul Leonardi.

IN RECOGNITION OF CLEVELANDPEOPLE.COMHON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, December 17, 2012

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of ClevelandPeople.com, a website designed to promote the more than 100 different ethnic and cultural people and events in Northeast Ohio.

ClevelandPeople.com strives to embrace the City of Cleveland's rich and ethnically diverse ethnic and cultural groups by promoting the "tossed salad model." Opposed to the "melting pot," a tossed salad model is designed to embrace and maintain unique cultures.

ClevelandPeople.com's work is an invaluable documentation and collection of text, videos and pictures of cultural events that occur throughout Northeast Ohio. They truly are creating "an archive of this activity (ethnic and cultural events) that makes Cleveland so unique."

In addition to being an archive of cultural events, ClevelandPeople.com has proven to be an invaluable resource to Northeastern Ohio residents, tourists and people seeking to relocate to the area. ClevelandPeople.com has information on nearly every ethnic and cultural group in the city and is also a hub for ClevelandPeople.com Ambassadors. These ambassadors are leaders among the dozens of cultural groups throughout the city and have proven to be invaluable contacts for members of the community and people new to the area looking to become involved with their respective ethnic groups.

Mr. Speaker and colleagues, please join me in recognizing the work and efforts of ClevelandPeople.com.
