IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 11, 2014

Mr. CÁRDENAS (for himself and Mr. MULVANEY) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

---

A BILL

To provide relocation subsidies for the long-term unemployed, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “American Worker Mo-
5 bility Act of 2014”.

6 SEC. 2. RELOCATION SUBSIDIES FOR THE LONG-TERM UN-

7 EMPLOYED.

8       (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Labor may 9 grant a relocation subsidy to an eligible individual who 10 meets the requirements of this section.

1       (b) MEANING OF ELIGIBLE INDIVIDUAL.—For pur-
2 poses of this section, an eligible individual is an individual
3 who, as of the date of the application for a relocation sub-
4 sidy under this section—

5                 (1) is totally unemployed and has been totally 6 unemployed for at least 26 consecutive weeks;

7                 (2) has exhausted all rights to regular com-
8 pensation under the law of a State or under Federal 9 law with respect to a benefit year (excluding any 10 benefit year ending before July 1, 2008);

11                 (3) has not received a relocation subsidy under 12 this section in the 2-year period preceding such date
13 of application; and

14                 (4) is able to work, available to work, and ac-
15 tively seeking work.

16       (c) REQUIREMENTS FOR GRANT.—The Secretary of 17 Labor may not grant a relocation subsidy to an eligible
18 individual under this section unless the Secretary deter-
19 mines that—

20                 (1) the relocation subsidy will assist such indi-
21 vidual in relocating within the United States, at 22 least 60 miles from the individual's current resi-
23 dence, for the purpose of attaining employment;

24                 (2) such individual filed an application with the 25 Secretary not later than January 1, 2019; and

1                         (3) such individual—

2                             (A) has obtained a bona fide offer of suitable employment affording a reasonable expectation of long-term duration in the area in which the individual wishes to relocate; or 6                             (B) wishes to relocate to an area that has an unemployment rate that is at least 2 percentage points less than the unemployment rate of the area of the individual's initial residence.

10                         (d) AMOUNT OF SUBSIDY.—A relocation subsidy granted to an eligible individual under this section shall be equal to the lesser of $10,000 or the amount that any contribution by a potential employer of the individual to the individual's relocation expenses is exceeded by the sum of—

16                         (1) 90 percent of the reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in transporting the worker, the worker's family, and household effects, plus

19                         (2) a lump sum equivalent to 3 times the individual's weekly benefit amount for the most recent benefit year (as such terms are defined in the State law), up to a maximum payment of $1,250.

23                         (e) REGULATIONS.—Prior to granting any relocation subsidies under subsection (a), the Secretary of Labor

1 shall issue regulations designed to prevent fraud or abuse
2 relating to the program established under this Act.

3 (f) NO ADDITIONAL FUNDS AUTHORIZED.—No addi-
4 tional appropriations are authorized for any fiscal year to 5 carry out this Act.

6 (g) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this section—

7 (1) the term “regular compensation” has the 8 meaning given the term in section 205(2) of the 9 Federal-State Extended Unemployment Compensa-
10 tion Act of 1970 (26 U.S.C. 3304 note), as in effect
11 prior to January 1, 2014; and

12 (2) the term “suitable work”—

13 (A) means suitable work as defined in the 14 applicable State law for claimants for regular 15 compensation; and

16 (B) does not include self-employment or 17 employment as an independent contractor.

18 (h) REPORTS.—Not later than March 15 of each of 19 calendar years 2015 and 2017, the Secretary of Labor
20 shall submit a report to Congress that identifies, by geo-
21 graphic region—

22 (1) the total number of relocation subsidies
23 granted to individuals under this section during the 24 calendar year preceding each such calendar year;

- 1                         (2) the total number of relocation subsidies
2                         granted to individuals pursuant to subsection
3                         (c)(3)(A) during such calendar year;
- 4                         (3) the total number of relocation subsidies
5                         granted to individuals pursuant to subsection
6                         (c)(3)(B) during such calendar year, and the num-7                         ber of such individuals who obtained employment 8                         within 1 month, 3 months, and 6 months, respec-
9                         tively, after the individual's relocation;
- 10                        (4) the average amount of a relocation subsidy 11                         granted during such calendar year;
- 12                        (5) the average distance traveled for relocation
13                         by each individual receiving a relocation subsidy dur-14                         ing such calendar year; and
- 15                        (6) the number of individuals who received a re-16                         location subsidy under this section during such cal-
17                         endar year and subsequently applied for unemploy-18                         ment benefits.
