

113TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1456

To award the Congressional Gold Medal to Shimon Peres.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

AUGUST 1, 2013

Ms. AYOTTE (for herself and Mr. BENNET) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Banking, Housing, and Urban Affairs

A BILL

To award the Congressional Gold Medal to Shimon Peres.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. FINDINGS.

4 Congress makes the following findings:

5 (1) Shimon Peres was born in Poland in 1923.

6 (2) The Peres family emigrated to Tel Aviv in 7 1934, and all of the family members of Shimon
8 Peres who remained in Poland were murdered during 9 the Holocaust.

10 (3) Before Israel gained independence, Shimon
11 Peres earned the respect of senior leaders in the

1 independence movement in Israel, most notably
2 David Ben-Gurion.

3 (4) The founding generation of Israel was cen-
4 tral to the development of Israel, and Shimon Peres
5 is the only surviving member of that founding gen-
6 eration.

7 (5) Shimon Peres has served in numerous high-
8 level cabinet positions and ministerial posts in Israel,
9 including head of the Israeli Navy, Minister of De-
10 fense, Foreign Minister, Prime Minister, and Presi-
11 dent, among many others.

12 (6) Shimon Peres has honorably served Israel
13 for over 70 years, during which he has significantly 14 contributed to United States interests and has 15 played a pivotal role in forging the strong and un-
16 breakable bond between the United States and 17 Israel.

18 (7) By presenting the Congressional Gold
19 Medal to Shimon Peres, the first to be awarded to 20 a sitting President of Israel, Congress proclaims its 21 unbreakable bond with Israel and reaffirms its con-
22 tinual support for Israel as we commemorate the 23 65th anniversary of the independence of Israel and 24 the 90th birthday of Shimon Peres, which are both 25 significant milestones in Israeli history.

1 (8) Maintaining strong bilateral relations be-
2 tween the United States and Israel has been a pri-
3 ority of Shimon Peres since he began working with 4 the United States in the days of John F. Kennedy.
5 The strong bond is exemplified by the following:

6 (A) President Reagan said to Shimon
7 Peres upon his visit to the United States, “Mr.
8 Prime Minister, I thank you very much for your 9 visit. It’s been an occasion to renew a friend-10 ship and to review and enhance the strength of 11 our unique bilateral relationship.”

12 (B) At another point President Reagan
13 said of Shimon Peres, “His vision, his states-
14 manship and his tenacity are greatly appre-
15 ciated here.”

16 (C) While visiting with Shimon Peres at 17 the Residence of the President in Jerusalem, 18 President Obama described Shimon Peres as 19 “. . . a son of Israel who’s devoted his life to 20 keeping Israel strong and sustaining the bonds
21 between our two nations”.

22 (D) On March 20, 2013, Shimon Peres re-
23 affirmed his belief in the relationship between 24 the United States and Israel, stating, “America
25 stood by our side from the very beginning. You

1 support us as we rebuild our ancient homeland
2 and as we defend our land. From Holocaust to 3 redemption.”

4 (E) On March 21, 2013, Shimon Peres
5 stated, “. . . America is so great and we are so
6 small. But I learned that you don’t measure us
7 by size, but by values. When it comes to values,
8 we are you and you are us. . . . As I look back, 9 I feel that the Israel of today has exceeded the 10 vision we had 65 years ago. Reality has sur-
11 passed our dreams. The United States of Amer-
12 ica helped us to make this possible.”
