

“(B) ENHANCED TRAINING PROGRAMS AND INFORMATION.—In order to facilitate the provision of job training services described in subparagraph (A), funds under this subsection may be used to—

“(i) assist in the development and implementation of model activities such as developing appropriate curricula to build core competencies;

“(ii) assist in obtaining industry-recognized credentials and training workers;

“(iii) identify and disseminate career and skill information, labor market information and guidance, and information about training providers; and

“(iv) increase the integration of community and technical higher education activities with activities of businesses and the public workforce investment system to meet the training needs for the industries and economic sectors identified pursuant to paragraph (4), which may include the development of partnerships by grantees with employers and employer associations to provide work-based training opportunities.

“(C) TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE AND EVALUATION.—The Secretary of Labor may reserve not more than 5 percent of the funds available to carry out this subsection to provide technical assistance and to evaluate projects.”;

(2) in paragraph (6)(A)(i), by inserting “, including resources of employers and philanthropic organizations,” after “provided under this subsection”; and

(3) by striking paragraph (7) and inserting the following:

“(7) PERFORMANCE ACCOUNTABILITY.—

“(A) REPORTS.—The Secretary of Labor shall require grantees to report on the employment-related outcomes obtained by workers receiving training under this subsection using indicators of performance that are consistent with other indicators used for employment and training programs administered by the Secretary, such as entry into employment, retention in employment, attainment of industry-recognized credentials, and increases in earnings.

“(B) EVALUATIONS.—The Secretary of Labor may require grantees to participate in evaluations of projects carried out under this subsection.

“(C) REPORTS AND EVALUATIONS PUBLICLY AVAILABLE.—The reports and evaluations described under this paragraph shall be made available to the public through the appropriate one-stop service delivery systems and other means the Secretary determines are appropriate.”.
