Subtitle A—Trust, Conservation, and Jobs

CHAPTER 1—CREATION AND TERMS OF O&C TRUST

SEC. 311. CREATION OF O&C TRUST AND DESIGNATION OF O&C TRUST LANDS.

(a) CREATION.—The Oregon and California Railroad Grant Lands Trust is established effective on October 1 of the first fiscal year beginning after the appointment of the Board of Trustees. As management authority over the surface of estate of the O&C Trust lands is transferred to the O&C Trust during the transition period pursuant to section 331, the transferred lands shall be held in trust for the benefit of the O&C Trust counties.

(b) TRUST PURPOSE.—The purpose of the O&C Trust is to produce annual maximum sustained revenues in perpetuity for O&C Trust counties by managing the timber resources on O&C Trust lands on a sustained-yield basis subject to the management requirements of section 314.

(c) DESIGNATION OF O&C TRUST LANDS.—

(1) LANDS INCLUDED.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), the O&C Trust lands shall include all of the lands containing the stands of timber described in subsection (d) that are located, as of January 1, 2013, on Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands and O&C Region Public Domain lands.

(2) LANDS EXCLUDED.—O&C Trust lands shall not include any of the following Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands and O&C Region Public Domain lands (even if the lands are otherwise described in subsection (d)):

(A) Federal lands within the National Landscape Conservation System as of January 1, 2013.

(B) Federal lands designated as Areas of Critical Environmental Concern as of January 1, 2013.

(C) Federal lands that were in the National Wilderness Preservation System as of January 1, 2013.

(D) Federal lands included in the National Wild and Scenic Rivers System of January 1, 2013.

(E) Federal lands within the boundaries of a national monument, park, or other developed recreation area as of January 1, 2013.

(F) Oregon treasures addressed in subtitle C, any portion of which, as of January 1, 2013, consists of Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands or O&C Region Public Domain lands.

(G) Tribal lands addressed in subtitle D.

(d) COVERED STANDS OF TIMBER.—

(1) DESCRIPTION.—The O&C Trust lands consist of stands of timber that have previously been managed for timber production or that have been materially altered by natural disturbances since 1886. Most of these stands of timber are 80 years old or less, and all of such stands can be classified as having a predominant stand age of 125 years or less.

(2) DELINEATION OF BOUNDARIES BY BUREAU OF LAND MANAGEMENT.—The Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands and O&C Region Public Domain lands that, immediately before transfer to the O&C Trust, were managed by the Bureau of Land Management are timber stands that have predominant birth date attributes of 1886 or later, with boundaries that are defined by polygon spatial data layer in and electronic data compilation filed by the Bureau of Land Management pursuant to paragraph (4). Except as provided in paragraph (5), the boundaries of all timber stands constituting the O&C Trust lands are finally and conclusively determined for all purposes by coordinates in or derived by reference to the polygon spatial data layer prepared by the Bureau of Land Management and filed pursuant to paragraph (4), notwithstanding anomalies that might later be discovered on the ground. The boundary coordinates are locatable on the ground by use of global positioning system signals. In cases where the location of the stand boundary is disputed or is inconsistent with paragraph (1), the location of boundary coordinates on the ground shall be, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (5), finally and conclusively determined for all purposes by the direct or indirect use of global positioning system equipment with accuracy specification of one meter or less.

(3) DELINEATION OF BOUNDARIES BY FOREST SERVICE.—The O&C Trust lands that, immediately before transfer to the O&C Trust, were managed by the Forest Service are timber stands that can be classified as having predominant stand ages of 125 years old or less. Within 30 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Agriculture shall commence identification of the boundaries of such stands, and the boundaries of all such stands shall be identified and made available to the Board of Trustees not later than 180 days following the creation of the O&C Trust pursuant to subsection (a). In identifying the stand boundaries, the Secretary may use geographic information system data, satellite imagery, cadastral survey coordinates, or any other means available within the time allowed. The boundaries shall be provided to the Board of Trustees within the time allowed in the form of a spatial data layer from which coordinates can be derived that are locatable on the ground by use of global positioning system signals. Except as provided in paragraph (5), the boundaries of all timber stands constituting the O&C Trust lands are finally and conclusively determined for all purposes by coordinates in or derived by reference to the data provided by the Secretary within the time provided by this paragraph, notwithstanding anomalies that might later be discovered on the ground. In cases where the location of the stand boundary is disputed or inconsistent with paragraph (1), the location of boundary coordinates on the ground shall be, except as otherwise provided in paragraph (5), finally and conclusively determined for all purposes by the boundary coordinates provided by the Secretary as they are located on the ground by the direct or indirect use of global positioning system equipment with accuracy specifications of one meter or less. All actions taken by the Secretary under this paragraph shall be deemed to not involve Federal agency action or Federal discretionary involvement or control.

(4) DATA AND MAPS.—Copies of the data containing boundary coordinates for the stands included in the O&C Trust lands, or from which such coordinates are derived, and maps generally depicting the stand locations shall be filed with the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources of the Senate, the Committee on Natural Resources of the House of Representatives, and the office of the Secretary concerned. The maps and data shall be filed—

(A) not later than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, in the case of the lands identified pursuant to paragraph (2); and

(B) not later than 180 days following the creation of the O&C Trust pursuant to subsection (a), in the case of lands identified pursuant to paragraph (3).

(5) ADJUSTMENT AUTHORITY AND LIMITATIONS.—

(A) NO IMPACT ON DETERMINING TITLE OR PROPERTY OWNERSHIP BOUNDARIES.—Stand boundaries identified under paragraph (2) or (3) shall not be relied upon for purposes of determining title or property ownership boundaries. If the boundary of a stand identified under paragraph (2) or (3) extends beyond the property ownership boundaries of Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands or O&C Region Public Domain lands, as such property boundaries exist on the date of enactment of this Act, then that stand boundary is deemed adjusted by this subparagraph to coincide with the property ownership boundary.

(B) EFFECT OF DATA ERRORS OR INCONSISTENCIES.—Data errors or inconsistencies may result in parcels of land along property ownership boundaries that are unintentionally omitted from the O&C Trust lands that are identified under paragraph (2) or (3). In order to correct such errors, any parcel of land that satisfies all of the following criteria is hereby deemed to be O&C Trust land:

(i) The parcel is within the ownership boundaries of Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands or O&C Region Public Domain lands on the date of the enactment of this Act.

(ii) The parcel satisfies the description in paragraph (1) on the date of enactment of this Act.

(iii) The parcel is not excluded from the O&C Trust lands pursuant to subsection (c)(2).

(C) NO IMPACT ON LAND EXCHANGE AUTHORITY.—Nothing in this subsection is intended to limit the authority of the Trust and the Forest Service to engage in land exchanges between themselves or with owners of non-Federal land as provided elsewhere in this title.

SEC. 312. LEGAL EFFECT OF O&C TRUST AND JUDICIAL REVIEW.

(a) LEGAL STATUS OF TRUST LANDS.—Subject to the other provisions of this section, all right, title, and interest in and to the O&C Trust lands remain in the United States, except that—

(1) the Board of Trustees shall have all authority to manage the surface estate of the O&C Trust lands and the resources found thereon;

(2) actions on the O&C Trust lands shall be deemed to involve no Federal agency action or Federal discretionary involvement or control and the laws of the State shall apply to the surface estate of the O&C Trust lands in the manner applicable to privately owned timberlands in the State; and

(3) the O&C Trust shall be treated as the beneficial owner of the surface estate of the O&C Trust lands for purposes of all legal proceedings involving the O&C Trust lands.

(b) MINERALS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Mineral and other subsurface rights in the O&C Trust lands are retained by the United States or other owner of such rights as of the date on which management authority over the surface estate of the lands are transferred to the O&C Trust.

(2) ROCK AND GRAVEL.—

(A) USE AUTHORIZED; PURPOSE.—For maintenance or construction on the road system under the control of the O&C Trust or for non-Federal lands intermingled with O&C Trust lands, the Board of Trustees may—

(i) utilize rock or gravel found within quarries in existence immediately before the date of the enactment of this Act on any Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands and O&C Region Public Domain lands, excluding those lands designated under subtitle C or transferred under subtitle D; and

(ii) construct new quarries on O&C Trust lands, except that any quarry so constructed may not exceed 5 acres.

(B) EXCEPTION.—The Board of Trustees shall not construct new quarries on any of the lands transferred to the Forest Service under section 321 or lands designated under subtitle D.

(c) ROADS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subsection (b), the Board of Trustees shall assume authority and responsibility over, and have authority to use, all roads and the road system specified in the following subparagraphs:

(A) All roads and road systems on the Oregon and California Railroad and Grant lands and O&C Region Public Domain lands owned or administered by the Bureau of Land Management immediately before the date of the enactment of this Act, except that the Secretary of Agriculture shall assume the Secretary of Interior's obligations for pro-rata maintenance expense and road use fees under reciprocal right-of-way agreements for those lands transferred to the Forest Service under section 321. All of the lands transferred to the Forest Service under section 321 shall be considered as part of the tributary area used to calculate pro-rata maintenance expense and road use fees.

(B) All roads and road systems owned or administered by the Forest Service immediately before the date of the enactment of this Act and subsequently included within the boundaries of the O&C Trust lands.

(C) All roads later added to the road system for management of the O&C Trust lands.

(2) LANDS TRANSFERRED TO FOREST SERVICE.—The Secretary of Agriculture shall assume the obligations of the Secretary of Interior for pro-rata maintenance expense and road use fees under reciprocal rights-of-way agreements for those Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands or O&C Region Public Domain lands transferred to the Forest Service under section 321.

(3) COMPLIANCE WITH CLEAN WATER ACT.—All roads used, constructed, or reconstructed under the jurisdiction of the O&C Trust must comply with requirements of the Federal Water Pollution Control Act (33 U.S.C. 1251 et seq.) applicable to private lands through the use of Best Management Practices under the Oregon Forest Practices Act.

(d) PUBLIC ACCESS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraph (2), public access to O&C Trust lands shall be preserved consistent with the policies of the Secretary concerned applicable to the O&C Trust lands as of the date on which management authority over the surface estate of the lands is transferred to the O&C Trust.

(2) RESTRICTIONS.—The Board of Trustees may limit or control public access for reasons of public safety or to protect the resources on the O&C Trust lands.

(e) LIMITATIONS.—The assets of the O&C Trust shall not be subject to the creditors of an O&C Trust county, or otherwise be distributed in an unprotected manner or be subject to anticipation, encumbrance, or expenditure other than for a purpose for which the O&C Trust was created.

(f) REMEDY.—An O&C Trust county shall have all of the rights and remedies that would normally accrue to a beneficiary of a trust. An O&C Trust county shall provide the Board of Trustees, the Secretary concerned, and the Attorney General with not less than 60 days notice of an intent to sue to enforce the O&C Trust county's rights under the O&C Trust.

(g) JUDICIAL REVIEW.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), judicial review of any provision of this title shall be sought in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. Parties seeking judicial review of the validity of any provision of this title must file suit within 60 days after the date of the enactment of this Act and no preliminary injunctive relief or stays pending appeal will be permitted. If multiple cases are filed under this paragraph, the Court shall consolidate the cases. The Court must rule on any action brought under this paragraph within 180 days.

(2) DECISIONS OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES.—Decisions made by the Board of Trustees shall be subject to judicial review only in an action brought by an O&C County, except that nothing in this title precludes bringing a legal claim against the Board of Trustees that could be brought against a private landowner for the same action.

SEC. 313. BOARD OF TRUSTEES.

(a) APPOINTMENT AUTHORIZATION.—Subject to the conditions on appointment imposed by this section, the Governor is authorized to appoint the Board of Trustees to administer the O&C Trust and O&C Trust lands. Appointments by the Governor shall be made within 60 days after the date of the enactment of this Act.

(b) MEMBERS AND ELIGIBILITY.—

(1) NUMBER.—Subject to subsection (c), the Board of Trustees shall consist of seven members.

(ii) one member who represents the commercial wood products or milling industries and who represents an Oregon-based company with 500 or fewer employees, taking into account its affiliates, that has submitted a bid for a timber sale on the Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands, O&C Region Public Domain lands, Coos Bay Wagon Road Grant lands, or O&C Trust lands in the preceding five years.

(B) At least one of the two representatives selected in this paragraph must own commercial forest land that is adjacent to the O&C Trust lands and from which the representative has not exported unprocessed timber in the preceding five years.

(2) One representative of the general public who has professional experience in one or more of the following fields:

(a) IN GENERAL.—Except as otherwise provided in this title, the O&C Trust lands will be managed by the Board of Trustees in compliance with all Federal and State laws in the same manner as such laws apply to private forest lands.

(b) TIMBER SALE PLANS.—The Board of Trustees shall approve and periodically update management and sale plans for the O&C Trust lands consistent with the purpose specified in section 311(b). The Board of Trustees may defer sale plans during periods of depressed timber markets if the Board of Trustees, in its discretion, determines that such delay until markets improve is financially prudent and in keeping with its fiduciary obligation to the O&C Trust counties.

(c) STAND ROTATION.—

(1) 100-120 YEAR ROTATION.—The Board of Trustees shall manage not less than 50 percent of the harvestable acres of the O&C Trust lands on a 100-120 year rotation. The acreage subject to 100-120 year management shall be geographically dispersed across the O&C Trust lands in a manner that the Board of Trustees, in its discretion, determines will contribute to aquatic and terrestrial ecosystem values.

(2) BALANCE.—The balance of the harvestable acreage of the O&C Trust lands shall be managed on any rotation age the Board of Trustees, in its discretion and in compliance with applicable State law, determines will best satisfy its fiduciary obligation to provide revenue to the O&C Trust counties.

(3) THINNING.—Nothing in this subsection is intended to limit the ability of the Board of Trustees to decide, in its discretion, to thin stands of timber on O&C Trust lands.

(d) SALE TERMS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), the Board of Trustees is authorized to establish the terms for sale contracts of timber or other forest products from O&C Trust lands.

(2) SET ASIDE.—The Board of Trustees shall establish a program consistent with the program of the Bureau of Land Management under a March 10, 1959 Memorandum of Understanding, as amended, regarding calculation of shares and sale of timber set aside for purchase by business entities with 500 or fewer employees and consistent with the regulations in part 121 of title 13, Code of Federal Regulations applicable to timber sale set asides, except that existing shares in effect on the date of enactment of this Act shall apply until the next scheduled recomputation of shares. In implementing its program that is consistent with such Memorandum of Understanding, the Board of Trustees shall utilize the Timber Sale Procedure Handbook and other applicable procedures of the Bureau of Land Management, including the Operating Procedures for Conducting the Five-Year Recomputation of Small Business Share Percentages in effect on January 1, 2013.

(3) COMPETITIVE BIDDING.—The Board of Trustees must sell timber on a competitive bid basis. No less than 50 percent of the total volume of timber sold by the Board of Trustees each year shall be sold by oral bidding consistent with practices of the Bureau of Land Management as of January 1, 2013.

(e) PROHIBITION ON EXPORT.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—As a condition on the sale of timber or other forest products from O&C Trust lands, unprocessed timber harvested from O&C Trust lands may not be exported.

(2) VIOLATIONS.—Any person who knowingly exports unprocessed timber harvested from O&C Trust lands, who knowingly provides such unprocessed timber for export by another person, or knowingly sells timber harvested from O&C Trust lands to a person who is disqualified from purchasing timber from such lands pursuant to this section shall be disqualified from purchasing timber or other forest products from O&C Trust lands or from Federal lands administered under this subtitle. Any person who uses unprocessed timber harvested from O&C Trust lands in substitution for exported unprocessed timber originating from private lands shall be disqualified from purchasing timber or other forest products from O&C Trust lands or from Federal lands administered under this subtitle.

(3) UNPROCESSED TIMBER DEFINED.—In this subsection, the term “unprocessed timber” has the meaning given such term in section 493(9) of the Forest Resources Conservation and Shortage Relief Act of 1990 (16 U.S.C. 620e(9)).

(f) INTEGRATED PEST, DISEASE, AND WEED MANAGEMENT PLAN.—The Board of Trustees shall develop an integrated pest and vegetation management plan to assist forest managers in prioritizing and minimizing the use of pesticides and herbicides approved by the Environmental Protection Agency and used in compliance with the Oregon Forest Practices Act. The plan shall optimize the ability of the O&C Trust to re-establish forest stands after harvest in compliance with the Oregon Forest Practices Act and to create diverse early seral stage forests. The plan shall allow for the eradication, containment and suppression of disease, pests, weeds and noxious plants, and invasive species as found on the State Noxious Weed List and prioritize ground application of herbicides and pesticides to the greatest extent practicable. The plan shall be completed before the start of the second year of the transition period. The planning process shall be open to the public and the Board of Trustees shall hold not less than two public hearings on the proposed plan before final adoption.

(g) ACCESS TO LANDS TRANSFERRED TO FOREST SERVICE.—Persons acting on behalf of the O&C Trust shall have a right of timely access over lands transferred to the Forest Service under section 321 and Tribal lands transferred under subtitle D as is reasonably necessary for the Board of Trustees to carry out its management activities with regard to the O&C Trust lands and the O&C Trust to satisfy its fiduciary duties to O&C counties.

(h) HARVEST AREA TREE AND RETENTION REQUIREMENTS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The O&C Trust lands shall include harvest area tree and retention requirements consistent with State law.

(2) USE OF OLD GROWTH DEFINITION.—To the greatest extent practicable, and at the discretion of the Board of Trustees, old growth, as defined by the Old Growth Review Panel created by section 324, shall be used to meet the retention requirements applicable under paragraph (1).

(i) RIPARIAN AREA MANAGEMENT.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The O&C Trust lands shall be managed with timber harvesting limited in riparian areas as follows:

(A) STREAMS.—For all fish bearing streams and all perennial non-fish-bearing streams, there shall be no removal of timber within a distance equal to the height of one site potential tree on both sides of the stream channel. For intermittent, non-fish-bearing streams, there shall be no removal of timber within a distance equal to one-half the height of a site potential tree on both sides of the stream channel. For purposes of this subparagraph, the stream channel boundaries are the lines of ordinary high water.

(B) LARGER LAKES, PONDS AND RESERVOIRS.—For all lakes, ponds, and reservoirs with surface area larger than one quarter of one acre, there shall be no removal of timber within a distance equal to the height of one site potential tree from the line of ordinary high water of the water body.

(C) SMALL PONDS AND NATURAL WETLANDS, SPRINGS AND SEEPS.—For all ponds with surface area one quarter acre or less, and for all natural wetlands, springs and seeps, there shall be no removal of timber within the area dominated by riparian vegetation.

(2) MEASUREMENTS.—For purposes of paragraph (1), all distances shall be measured along slopes, and all site potential tree heights shall be average height at maturity of the dominant species of conifer determined at a scale no finer than the applicable fifth field watershed.

(3) RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in paragraph (1) shall be construed—

(A) to prohibit the falling or placement of timber into streams to create large woody debris for the benefit of aquatic ecosystems; or

(B) to prohibit the falling of trees within riparian areas as may be reasonably necessary for safety or operational reasons in areas adjacent to the riparian areas, or for road construction or maintenance pursuant to section 312(c)(3).

(j) FIRE PROTECTION AND EMERGENCY RESPONSE.—

(1) RECIPROCAL FIRE PROTECTION AGREEMENTS.—

(A) CONTINUATION OF AGREEMENTS.—Subject to subparagraphs (B), (C), and (D), any reciprocal fire protection agreement between the State or any other entity and the Secretary concerned with regard to Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands and O&C Region Public Domain lands in effect on the date of the enactment of this Act shall remain in place for a period of ten years after such date unless earlier terminated by the State or other entity.

(B) ASSUMPTION OF BLM RIGHTS AND DUTIES.—The Board of Trustees shall exercise the rights and duties of the Bureau of Land Management under the agreements described in subparagraph (A), except as such rights and duties might apply to Tribal lands under subtitle D.

(C) EFFECT OF EXPIRATION OF PERIOD.—Following the expiration of the ten-year period under subparagraph (A), the Board of Trustees shall continue to provide for fire protection of the Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands and O&C Region Public Domain lands, including those transferred to the Forest Service under section 331, through continuation of the reciprocal fire protection agreements, new cooperative agreements, or by any means otherwise permitted by law. The means selected shall be based on the review by the Board of Trustees of whether the reciprocal fire protection agreements were effective in protecting the lands from fire.

(D) EMERGENCY RESPONSE.—Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the Secretary of Agriculture from an emergency response to a fire on the O&C Trust lands or lands transferred to the Forest Service under section 321.

(2) EMERGENCY RESPONSE TO FIRE.—Subject to paragraph (1), if the Secretary of Agriculture determines that fire on any of the lands transferred under section 321 is burning uncontrolled or the Secretary, the Board of Trustees, or contracted party does not have readily and immediately available personnel and equipment to control or extinguish the fire, the Secretary, or any forest protective association or agency under contract or agreement with the Secretary or the Board of Trustees for the protection of forestland against fire, shall summarily and aggressively abate the nuisance thus controlling and extinguishing the fire.

(k) NORTHERN SPOTTED OWL.—So long as the O&C Trust maintains the 100-120 year rotation on 50 percent of the harvestable acres required in subsection (c), the section 321 lands representing the best quality habitat for the owl are transferred to the Forest Service, and the O&C Trust protects currently occupied northern spotted owl nest sites consistent with the forest practices in the Oregon Forest Practices Act, management of the O&C Trust land by the Board of Trustees shall be considered to comply with section 9 of Public Law 93-205 (16 U.S.C. 1538) for the northern spotted owl. A currently occupied northern spotted owl nest site shall be considered abandoned if there are no northern spotted owl responses following three consecutive years of surveys using the Protocol for Surveying Management Activities that May Impact Northern Spotted Owls dated February 2, 2013.

SEC. 315. DISTRIBUTION OF REVENUES FROM O&C TRUST LANDS.

(a) ANNUAL DISTRIBUTION OF REVENUES.—

(1) TIME FOR DISTRIBUTION; USE.—Payments to each O&C Trust county shall be made available to the general fund of the O&C Trust county as soon as practicable following the end of each fiscal year, to be used as are other unrestricted county funds.

(2) AMOUNT.—The amount paid to an O&C Trust county in relation to the total distributed to all O&C Trust counties for a fiscal year shall be based on the proportion that the total assessed value of the Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands in each of the O&C Trust counties for fiscal year 1915 bears to the total assessed value of all of the Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands in the State for that same fiscal year. However, for the purposes of this subsection the portion of the revested Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands in each of the O&C Trust counties that was not assessed for fiscal year 1915 shall be deemed to have been assessed at the average assessed value of the Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands in the county.

(3) LIMITATION.—After the fifth payment made under this subsection, the payment to an O&C Trust county for a fiscal year shall not exceed 110 percent of the previous year's payment to the O&C Trust county, adjusted for inflation based on the consumer price index applicable to the geographic area in which the O&C Trust counties are located.

(b) RESERVE FUND.—

(2) DEPOSITS TO RESERVE FUND.—Within 10 years after creation of the O&C Trust or as soon thereafter as is practicable, the Board of Trustees shall establish and seek to maintain an annual balance of $125,000,000 in the Reserve Fund, to be derived from revenues generated from management activities involving O&C Trust lands. All annual revenues generated in excess of operating costs and payments to O&C Trust counties required by subsection (a) and payments into the Conservation Fund as provided in subsection (c) shall be deposited in the Reserve Fund.

(3) EXPENDITURES FROM RESERVE FUND.—The Board of Trustees shall use amounts in the Reserve Fund only—

(A) to pay management and administrative expenses or capital improvement costs on O&C Trust lands; and

(B) to make payments to O&C Trust counties when payments to the counties under subsection (a) are projected to be 90 percent or less of the previous year's payments.

(c) O&C TRUST CONSERVATION FUND.—

(1) ESTABLISHMENT OF CONSERVATION FUND.—The Board of Trustees shall use a portion of revenues generated from activity on the O&C Trust lands, consistent with paragraph (2), to establish and maintain a O&C Trust Conservation Fund. The O&C Trust Conservation Fund shall include no Federal appropriations.

(2) REVENUES.—Following the transition period, five percent of the O&C Trust's annual net operating revenue, after deduction of all management costs and expenses, including the payment required under section 317, shall be deposited to the O&C Trust Conservation Fund.

(3) EXPENDITURES FROM CONSERVATION FUND.—The Board of Trustees shall use amounts from the O&C Trust Conservation Fund only—

(A) to fund the voluntary acquisition of conservation easements from willing private landowners in the State;

(B) to fund watershed restoration, remediation and enhancement projects within the State; or

(C) to contribute to balancing values in a land exchange with willing private landowners proposed under section 323(b), if the land exchange will result in a net increase in ecosystem benefits for fish, wildlife, or rare native plants.

SEC. 316. LAND EXCHANGE AUTHORITY.

(a) AUTHORITY.—Subject to approval by the Secretary concerned, the Board of Trustees may negotiate proposals for land exchanges with owners of lands adjacent to O&C Trust lands in order to create larger contiguous blocks of land under management by the O&C Trust to facilitate resource management, to improve conservation value of such lands, or to improve the efficiency of management of such lands.

(b) APPROVAL REQUIRED; CRITERIA.—The Secretary concerned may approve a land exchange proposed by the Board of Trustees administratively if the exchange meets the following criteria:

(1) The non-Federal lands are completely within the State.

PURPOSE OF THE BILL

The purpose of H.R. 1526 is to restore employment and educational opportunities in, and improve the economic stability of, counties containing National Forest System land, while also reducing Forest Service management costs, by ensuring that such counties have a dependable source of revenue from National Forest System land, and to provide a temporary extension of the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act of 2000.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

Under federal law passed in 1908, the U.S. Forest Service has historically shared 25 percent of all timber revenues with rural counties containing National Forest land to compensate them for large amounts of federal land that cannot be locally taxed. Since that time, these “25% payments” have provided counties with much-needed funding for essential services such as education and infrastructure. However, by the late 1990s, timber harvests dramatically declined due to federal overregulation and harmful lawsuits, prompting Congress in 2000 to pass the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act (SRS).

SRS was created to provide “transition payments” over a six-year period while Congress worked to increase timber production. It has since been extended several times through 2012. The most recent authorization expired on September 30, 2012, with the last payments distributed in January of 2013. In the absence of SRS, county payments will revert to 25 percent of current timber receipts—approximately $60 million, an 80 percent decrease from the Fiscal Year 2012 SRS payment of $320 million.

More urgently, decades of failed policy with respect to active forest management have created unhealthy and overstocked forest conditions, placing an estimated 73 million acres of National Forest land at risk to severe wildfire. The sad reality is that our federal forests were established for timber production but in recent decades have become so mismanaged and tied up by lawsuits that wildfires ravage far, far more trees and acres of forest than are ever responsibly harvested. The 2013 fire season has already had hundreds of fires burn over three million acres, while all but one of the last ten fire seasons have seen over five million acres burned—more than 25 times the number of acres the Forest Service harvests each year.

Forests today are in many cases several times more dense than at the turn of the 20th century—for example, ponderosa pine forests throughout the Rocky Mountain West that used to contain 25 trees per acre may now have over 1,000. Failure to thin these forests has resulted in millions of acres of smaller, weaker trees that are prone to disease, insect infestation, and drought as evidenced by the current bark beetle epidemic that has infested over 40 million acres of National Forest land since 1996.

Despite the fact that National Forests are currently adding volume at a net rate of 33 percent annually, timber harvests have declined over 80 percent over the last 30 years. Current harvest levels only remove 10 percent of annual growth, and 16 percent of annual mortality. Total standing timber volume across the National Forest System is currently 1.4 trillion board feet—700 times current harvest levels.

Currently, the Forest Service, an agency that once managed millions of acres and averaged over one billion dollars in revenues annually, now spends $2 for every $1 it produces and spends half of its appropriated budget on wildfire suppression.

A significant factor in declining federal forest health is a lack of long-term and affordable timber harvest access caused by litigation. This is, in large part, due to preservationist organizations using federal statutes like the Endangered Species Act (ESA) and the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) as tools to litigate timber harvesting. Litigation and fear of litigation directly impacts how the Forest Service handles timber operations. The Center for Biological Diversity is a prime example of an environmental group that has used litigation and threats to stop forest management. In 2009, CBD Executive Director Kieran Suckling stated:

When we stop the same timber sale three or four times running, the timber planners want to tear their hair out. They feel like their careers are being mocked and destroyed—and they are. So they become much more willing to play by our rules and at least get something done. Psychological warfare is a very underappreciated aspect of environmental campaigning.

Beginning in the early 1990s, administrative appeals and litigation slowed Forest Service decision-making, increased timber program unit costs and reduced contract outputs (smaller, less economically viable contracts). Activist groups have become extremely adept at using the administrative process provided by NEPA and other laws to object to projects on both procedural and substantive grounds. For example, the Western Watersheds Project has been active in objecting to Forest Service NEPA documents on the basis that the agency failed to adequately study how projects impact sensitive species. National Forests in Montana this year alone have already received 17 appeals that have stopped treatment on over 15,000 acres. During an oversight hearing this year in the Subcommittee on Public Lands and Environmental Regulation, a witness from the Obama Administration admitted that litigation in the northern Rockies has “virtually shut things down on the national forests.” The sad result of these lawsuits are forests that go unmanaged, and valuable timber that could support American jobs left to burn in wildfires, which kills species and destroys the forest environment, at times burning so hot that lands are sterilized.

The lack of access to adequate timber resources has been devastating to local communities that once relied on federal forests, both economically and socially, as well as with regard to the impacts from increased risk of catastrophic wildfire. Although there are other factors in western timber industry declines, the main driving factor has been lack of access to federal forests.

The Restoring Healthy Forests for Healthy Communities Act is a common sense package of solutions that represent an action plan for reversing the above described status quo and restore healthy forest management and timber production to both replace the need for continued SRS payments and reduce the risk of wildfire. The Committee has held legislative hearings on each of the proposals included in this package.

Major Provisions of H.R. 1526

TITLE I—RESTORING OUR COMMITMENT TO RURAL COUNTIES AND SCHOOLS

This title would enact the long-term solution that Congress had intended to achieve during the period of SRS payments by creating a dependable source of revenue through an increase in sustainable timber harvests. Title I would establish Forest Reserve Revenues Areas consisting of no less than 50 percent “commercial” timber lands capable of producing 20 cubic feet of timber per year (approximately 49 million acres across the National Forest System) and would require the Forest Service to produce an annual timber harvest requirement of no less than half the sustained yield of the Forest Reserve Revenue Area. In short, it provides that at least half of the timber that can be responsibly and sustainably harvested will be each year.

Environmental compliance

NEPA Compliance—The Forest Service must complete an environmental assessment (EA) for any forest management project, providing that it is only required to study the action alternative, must complete the EA within 6 months, and cannot exceed 100 pages in length. The title also provides a categorical exclusion for projects in response to a catastrophic event (fire, weather, insect or disease outbreak), projects that implement a community wildfire protection plan, and projects of less than 10,000 acres.

ESA Compliance—The title authorizes the Forest Service to conduct a “non-jeopardy assessment” to justify why a proposed project will not jeopardize a listed species. The Forest Service will enter into required consultation if it determines that the project will jeopardize a listed species.

Administrative Review—The title subjects the program to the administrative review process provided under the Healthy Forests Restoration Act of 2003.

Judicial Review—The title subjects the program to the judicial review process provided under the Healthy Forests Restoration Act of 2003, except that plaintiffs are required to post a bond to cover the cost of litigation.

The expedited administrative and judicial review provisions of the Healthy Forests Restoration Act of 2003 require that those eligible for administrative review had to have submitted written comments on the project. A complainant can then seek judicial review only after exhausting administrative review and only on the issue raised during administrative review. Judicial review can only be brought in the United States district court for the district in which the project is located and places a 60-day limit on any injunction that may be imposed until the court completes its review (the court may renew an injunction).

Timber revenues

Revenues from management are treated as they would be under current law for distribution among Forest Service trust fund accounts and the 25% payment fund. Funding for counties would essentially be converted back to the historical program, except that revenues would be increased by requiring greater timber harvest.

TITLE II—HEALTHY FOREST MANAGEMENT AND CATASTROPHIC WILDFIRE PREVENTION

This title focuses specifically on hazardous fuels reduction to reduce the risk of wildfire and improve forest health. It directs the Secretary of Agriculture to implement hazardous fuels reduction and forest health projects on at-risk lands (defined by the legislation) as well as high-risk areas designated by the Governor of a State. The title also allows a state to propose hazardous fuel reduction or forest health projects to the Forest Service or Bureau of Land Management for implementation.

TITLE III—OREGON AND CALIFORNIA RAILROAD GRANT LANDS TRUST, CONSERVATION, AND JOBS

The O&C Lands were originally granted from the public domain by the federal government to the Oregon and California Railroad Company to encourage development in Western Oregon. Those lands were revested back to the federal government in 1916. Later, the O&C Act of 1937 set aside approximately 2.4 million acres of forest land in 18 counties to be managed for sustainable timber harvests, and required 75 percent of receipts from those lands to be paid to the O&C counties. A later appropriations rider allowed for 25 percent of the receipts to be retained for management of the lands, bringing the counties' cost share down to 50 percent. The lands have since been managed by the Bureau of Land Management (BLM).

Timber harvests by the BLM have declined significantly since the listing of the Northern Spotted Owl that has similarly impacted lands managed by the Forest Service throughout the Pacific Northwest. Two decades of gridlock have prompted the O&C counties to develop the approach that would be implemented under this title that would allow for approximately 1.5 million acres of O&C Lands to be managed by the O&C counties as a financial “trust” with the resulting revenues distributed among the counties. The remaining O&C Lands would be transferred to the Forest Service to be managed with the agency’s other lands in Western Oregon.

The Committee understands that this title would effectively negate the need for continued operation of the BLM in Western Oregon and therefore might impact employees in the region. The Committee expects the BLM, Forest Service, and O&C Trust to work accordingly to offer preference for these employees in job opportunities that will be created as a result of this legislation.

Subtitle A

This subtitle establishes a Board of Trustees as the governing body for management of the O&C Lands and provides for the transfer of management responsibility for approximately 1.5 million acres of O&C Lands to the Board of Trustees for management. The lands would then be managed under state and federal laws as they would apply to private forest lands, with the revenues being retained and distributed to counties by the Board of Trustees.

Remaining O&C Lands would be transferred to the Forest Service to be managed in accordance with the Northwest Forest Plan that currently applies to other Forest Service lands within the habitat of the Northern Spotted Owl. The draft bill also requires the appointment of a scientific review panel to determine a definition for old growth forests that shall then be applied as yet another management restriction on the lands being managed by the Forest Service.

Subtitle B

This subtitle provides a similar management model for another set of revested railroad grant lands known as the Coos Bay Wagon Road lands that were reconveyed to the federal government in 1919. These lands would be managed by Coos County, Oregon, in accordance with the same principles applied to the Board of Trustees under subtitle A.

Subtitle C

This subtitle designates 88,620 acres of wilderness through the creation of the Devil’s Staircase Wilderness (30,520 acres) and by adding to the existing Wild Rogue Wilderness Area (58,100 acres). In addition to designating 150 miles of streams under the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act, the bill would withdraw a quarter mile on each side of 47 miles of Rogue River tributaries from entry, appropriation, or disposal under the public land laws; location entry, and patent under the mining laws; and mineral and geothermal leasing. The quarter mile withdrawal on each side of these tributaries would cover approximately 15,000 additional acres of federal land.

Subtitle D

This subtitle conveys approximately 30,000 acres of BLM public domain lands to certain tribes in western Oregon to allow for forest management by the Cow Creek Band of the Umpqua Tribe and the Confederated Tribes of Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw.

TITLE IV—COMMUNITY FOREST DEMONSTRATION

This title directs the Secretary of Agriculture to convey management authority over National Forest land as a “Community Forest Demonstration Area” to an Advisory Committee appointed by the Governor of a State. Management of the Community Forest Demonstration Area would be subject to state forest practices law and other federal laws only as they would apply to other state or privately-owned forest land. Overall, this title provides other counties the opportunity to manage a portion of National Forest land under the same model as the O&C Counties, and an alternative to Forest Service management under Title I.

The overall acreage that can be enrolled as Community Forest Demonstration Areas is set at two million acres nationwide but does not specify how many areas can be established. Also, a state must have a forest practices law that applies to state or private forest land to be eligible for designation as a Community Forest Demonstration Area.

TITLE V—REAUTHORIZATION AND AMENDMENT OF EXISTING AUTHORITIES AND OTHER MATTERS

This title provides for a short-term extension of SRS payments to provide funding to counties as the Forest Service (or counties under titles III and IV) transitions back to active management. Also, as part of the last long-term extension of SRS in 2008, language was included to amend the original 1908 law that required sharing 25 percent of timber revenues with counties to make the payment based on a 7-year rolling average of revenues, instead of simply the prior year’s receipts. This was done to reduce the variability in payment levels once SRS expired and counties were back to getting 25 percent payments. However, since title I of the bill seeks to return to 25 percent payments—with a significant increase in timber harvests—the counties would not see any benefit from increased revenues for seven years. This title repeals that amendment to again make payments based on the prior fiscal year’s revenue level. Counties have specifically requested this change.

This title also extends and expands two popular forest management authorities currently in use by the Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management—Good Neighbor and Stewardship Contracting—both of which expire in fiscal year 2013. Also, Good Neighbor authority currently applies only in Utah and Colorado. It allows the Forest Service and BLM to contract with a state forestry agency to conduct projects on federal lands. This title would expand this authority to all states.

Stewardship contracting authority allows the Forest Service and BLM to trade “goods for services”—i.e., trade timber in exchange for restoration work by a contractor. The authority expires in 2013. H.R. 1526 extends stewardship contract authority for the Forest Service and BLM through 2017 and also allows for contracts up to 20 years in length. The current authorization only allows for 10-year contract terms.

The Committee also understands that there is an outstanding issue regarding the implementation of stewardship contracts versus timber sales, and directs the Chief of the Forest Service to review and undertake draft rulemaking that would establish parity between the Small Business Administration (SBA) set-aside program for timber sales and the Stewardship Contracting Authority that is re-authorized in this bill for five years. The Chief of the Forest Service is also directed to review and address other issues, including the Structural Change Recomputations within the current SBA timber sale set-aside regulations, and ensure that the appraisal of any SBA set-aside timber sale or stewardship contract is to a SBA-qualified forest products manufacturing facility when advertised as a set-aside offering.

COMMITTEE ACTION

H.R. 1526 was introduced on April 12, 2013, by Congressman Doc Hastings (R-WA). The bill was referred to the Committee on Agriculture, and additionally to the Committee on Natural Resources. Within that Committee, the bill was referred to the Subcommittee on Public Lands and Environmental Regulation. On April 11, 2013, the Subcommittee held a hearing on a draft version of the bill. On July 31, 2013, the full Natural Resources Committee met to consider H.R. 1526. The Subcommittee on Public Lands and Environmental Regulation was discharged by unanimous consent. Congressman Hastings offered an amendment in the nature of a substitute (ANS) to the bill. SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS

TITLE I—RESTORING THE COMMITMENT TO RURAL COUNTIES AND SCHOOLS

Section 101. Purposes

Section 102. Definitions

Section 103. Establishment of Forest Reserve Revenue Areas and annual volume requirements

This section establishes Forest Reserve Revenue Areas consisting of no less than half all “commercial” timber lands capable of producing 20 cubic feet of timber per year. It is estimated that these areas would cover approximately 49 million acres, or only a quarter of the entire National Forest System. The section also requires the Forest Service to produce an annual volume requirement of no less than half the sustained yield of the Forest Reserve Revenue Area.

Section 104. Management of Forest Reserve Revenue areas

The Forest Service must complete an environmental assessment (EA) for any forest management project, but is only required to study the action alternative and must complete the EA within 6 months and the document cannot exceed 100 pages in length. The section provides a categorical exclusion from the National Environmental Policy Act for projects in response to a catastrophic event (fire, weather, insect or disease outbreak), projects that implement a community wildfire protection plan, and projects less than 10,000 acres.

This section authorizes the Forest Service to conduct a “non-jeopardy assessment” to determine whether a project will jeopardize a listed species. The Forest Service is only required to enter into consultation if it determines that the project will jeopardize a listed species.

Section 105. Distribution of Forest Reserve Revenues

This section requires that revenues from management are treated as they would be under current law for distribution among Forest Service trust fund accounts and the 25% fund.

TITLE II—HEALTHY FOREST MANAGEMENT AND CATASTROPHIC WILDFIRE PREVENTION

Section 201. Purposes

Section 202. Definitions

Section 203. Hazardous fuel reduction projects and forest health projects in at-risk forests

This section authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture or the Secretary of the Interior to conduct hazardous fuels or forest health projects in at-risk forests. Projects can include livestock grazing or timber harvest activities to reduce fuels and improve forest health.

Section 204. Environmental analysis

This section applies the environmental analysis, as well as the administrative and judicial review procedures established under section 104, to hazardous fuel reduction and forest health projects implemented under this title.

Section 205. State designation of high-risk areas of national forest system and public lands

This section authorizes the Governor of a State to designate high-risk areas on federal lands that the Governor believes present the risk of devastating wildfires or insect and disease outbreaks.

Section 206. Use of hazardous fuels reduction or forest health projects for high-risk areas

This section authorizes the Governor of a State to submit hazardous fuels reduction and forest health projects within a high-risk area for implementation by the Secretaries of Agriculture or the Interior. The Secretaries are instructed under section 203 to give priority to projects submitted by a state. An amendment adopted during markup of this legislation added projects submitted under the Tribal Forest Protection Act to those given priority for implementation.

TITLE III—OREGON AND CALIFORNIA RAILROAD GRANT LANDS TRUST, CONSERVATION, AND JOBS

Section 301. Short title

This section designates the short title of Title III as the O&C Trust, Conservation, and Jobs Act.

Section 302. Definitions

SUBTITLE A—TRUST, CONSERVATION, AND JOBS

CHAPTER 1—CREATION AND TERMS OF O&C TRUST

Section 311. Creation of O&C Trust and designation of O&C Trust lands

This section designates approximately 1.6 million acres of Oregon and California Grant lands, currently managed by the Bureau of Land Management, as the O&C Trust. The remaining acres—approximately 1.1 million acres—would be conveyed to the U.S. Forest Service.

Section 312. Legal effect of O&C Trust and Judicial review

This section clarifies that the United States retains all rights, title, and interest to the lands designated as the O&C Trust, except that the Board of Trustees has management authority over the surface estate. Judicial review of this title can only be sought in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, and any suit must be filed within 60 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

Section 313. Board of Trustees

This section describes the composition and protocols of the Board of Trustees for the O&C Trust.

Section 314. Management of O&C Trust lands

This section describes how the O&C lands are to be managed, including timber sales plans, stand rotation, competitive bidding, sale terms, riparian area management, and fire protection. O&C Trust lands are managed in compliance with all applicable federal and state laws in the same way they apply to private forest lands in Oregon.

Section 315. Distribution of Revenues from O&C Trust lands

This section specifies that revenues produced by the Board of Trustees from the O&C Trust shall be distributed to the O&C counties in proportion to the O&C lands that each county contains. This is consistent with how payments from the federal government under the O&C Act of 1937 and SRS are determined for O&C counties.

Section 316. Land Exchange Authority

This section authorizes the Board of Trustees to negotiate land exchanges to consolidate lands within the O&C Trust. All land exchanges are subject to approval by the Secretary of Agriculture or the Secretary of the Interior, as applicable.

Section 317. Payments to the United States Treasury

This section requires the O&C Trust to make payments to the federal government in lieu of receipts that otherwise would come from continued management by the BLM and paid to the O&C counties from the Treasury.

CHAPTER 2—TRANSFER OF CERTAIN LANDS TO FOREST SERVICE

Section 321. Transfer of certain Oregon and California Railroad Grant Lands to Forest Service

This section transfers the O&C Railroad Grant lands that are not included in the O&C Trust to the U.S. Forest Service.

Section 322. Management of transferred lands by Forest Service

This section requires that lands transferred to the Forest Service continue to be managed under the Northwest Forest Plan.

Section 323. Management efficiencies and expedited land exchanges

This section authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to approve land exchanges that improve management of the lands transferred to the Forest Service under this title.

Section 324. Review panel and old growth protection

This section requires the Secretary of Agriculture to appoint a review panel responsible for defining old growth within the area encompassed by the Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands.

Section 325. Uniqueness of old growth protection on Oregon and California Railroad Grant Lands

This section clarifies that all references to “old growth” are intended to resolve unique management issues on the formerly Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands only.

CHAPTER 3—TRANSITION

Section 331. Transition period and operations

This section establishes a three-year transition period to facilitate the activities of the Board of Trustees, the Forest Service, and the BLM.

Section 332. O&C Trust Management Capitalization

This section authorizes the Board of Trustees to borrow from any available non-federal sources to provide for the initial management costs of the O&C Trust. It also authorizes the O&C counties to loan funds to the O&C Trust.

Section 333. Existing Bureau of Land Management and Forest Service contracts

This section requires that any work or timber contracts sold or awarded by the BLM and Forest Service before the transfer of lands to remain binding and effective.

Section 334. Protection of valid existing rights and access to non-federal land

This section upholds all valid and existing rights on the Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands, including, but not limited to: permits, patents, rights of access, right-of-ways, tail holds, and easement obligations. The section also provides judicial review for decisions from the Board of Trustees that might impact access for private landowners.

Section 335. Repeal of superseded law relating to Oregon and California Railroad Grant Lands

This section repeals the O&C Act of 1937 unless any provision of this title is ruled legally invalid, in which the O&C Act of 1937 would be reinstated.

SUBTITLE B—COOS BAY WAGON ROADS

Section 341. Transfer of management authority over certain Coos Bay Wagon Road Grant Lands to Coos County, Oregon

This section transfers management authority of timber stands on the Coos Bay Wagon Road lands to Coos County, Oregon, to be managed consistently with the provisions applied to the O&C Trust.

Section 342. Transfer of certain Coos Bay Wagon Road Grant Lands to Forest Service

This section transfers all remaining Coos Bay Wagon Road Grant lands to the Forest Service to be managed in accordance with the Northwest Forest Plan.

Section 343. Land Exchange Authority

This section authorizes land exchanges in accordance with section 316.

SUBTITLE C—OREGON TREASURES

CHAPTER 1—WILDERNESS AREAS

Section 351. Designation of Devil's Staircase Wilderness

This section designates 30,520 acres as wilderness to be administered by the Forest Service.

Section 352. Expansion of Wild Rogue Wilderness Area

This section adds 58,100 acres to the existing Wild Rogue Wilderness Area to be administered by the Forest Service.

CHAPTER 2—WILD AND SCENIC RIVER DESIGNATED AND RELATED PROTECTIONS

Section 361. Wild and Scenic River Designations, Molalla River

This section designates 15.1 miles of the Molalla River and 6.2 miles of the Table Rock Fork of the Molalla River as “scenic” under the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act.

Section 362. Wild and Scenic Rivers Act technical corrections related to Chetco River

This section reclassifies 2 miles of the Chetro River from “scenic” to “wild” and extends the “scenic” segment 1.5 miles downstream. The section also withdraws 11 miles of “scenic” and “recreational” segments of the Chetco River from mineral entry subject to valid existing rights.

Section 363. Wild and scenic river designations, Wasson Creek and Franklin Creek

This section designates 4.5 miles of Franklin Creek and 10.1 miles of Wasson Creek as “wild” under the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act.

Section 364. Wild and scenic river designations, Rogue River Area

This section designates 93 miles of 35 tributaries to the Rogue River as either “wild,” “scenic,” or “recreational” under the Wild and Scenic Rivers Act.

Section 365. Additional protections for Rogue River Tributaries

This section prohibits the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission from licensing water projects on 19 tributaries of the Rogue River and withdraws the tributaries from mineral entry, subject to valid existing rights.

CHAPTER 3—ADDITIONAL PROTECTIONS

Section 371. Limitations on land acquisition

This section specifies that no non-federal land may be acquired within the areas designated by this subtitle without the written consent of the land owner.

Section 372. Overflights

This section specifies that nothing in the subtitle shall affect military overflights.

Section 373. Buffer zones

This section specifies that no activities outside the areas designated by this subtitle shall be impacted simply because they can be seen or heard from within the areas designated.

Section 374. Prevention of wildfires

This section specifies that the designation of areas under this subtitle shall not impact the ability of the Forest Service or BLM to use mechanized equipment for the suppression or prevention of wildfire.

Section 375. Limitation on designation of certain lands in Oregon

This section prohibits designation of the formerly Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands as a National Monument without approval by an Act of Congress.

CHAPTER 4—EFFECTIVE DATE

Section 381. Effective date

This section sets the enactment date of all the designations under this subtitle for October 1st of the second fiscal year of the transition period to coincide with the transfer of the Oregon and California Railroad Grant lands to the O&C Trust and Forest Service. The section also ensures that if any provision of this title is rule legally invalid, all designations shall no force or effect.

SUBTITLE D—TRIBAL TRUST LANDS

PART 1—COUNCIL CREEK LAND CONVEYANCE

Section 391. DefinitionsSection 392. Conveyance

This section conveys approximately 17,000 acres to the Cow Creek Band of Umpqua Tribe of Indians to be held in trust for the benefit of the Tribe.

Section 393. Map and legal description

This section requires the Secretary of the Interior to file a map of the land conveyed under this part.

Section 394. Administration

This section specifies how the lands conveyed under this part are to be managed. It prohibits export of unprocessed logs and also clarifies that the lands conveyed shall be managed in accordance with all applicable federal laws.

PART 2—OREGON COASTAL LAND CONVEYANCE

Section 395. DefinitionsSection 396. Conveyance

This section conveys approximately 15,000 acres to the Confederated Tribes of the Coos, Lower Umpqua, and Siuslaw Indians, to be held in trust for the benefit of the Tribe.

Section 397. Map and legal description

This section requires the Secretary of the Interior to file a map of the land conveyed under this part.

Section 398. Administration

This section specifies how the lands conveyed under this part are to be managed. It prohibits export of unprocessed logs and also clarifies that the lands conveyed shall be managed in accordance with all applicable federal laws.

TITLE IV—COMMUNITY FOREST MANAGEMENT DEMONSTRATION

Section 401. Purpose and definitions

This section clarifies that the purpose of this title is to generate dependable economic activity for counties and local governments by establishing a demonstration program for local, sustainable forest management.

Section 402. Establishment of community forest demonstration areas

This section requires that the Secretary of Agriculture establish community forest demonstration areas no later than one year after the date of enactment of this Act. The establishment of a community forest demonstration area is subject to: an advisory committee being appointed by the Governor of a State; the advisory committee requesting a community forest demonstration area; and the state in which the area is established has a forest practices law applicable to state or privately-owned forest land.

This section also specifies that no more than two million acres of the National Forest System may be established as community forest demonstration areas, and that the establishment of an area recognizes valid existing rights, including right of any federally recognized Indian tribe.

Section 403. Advisory committee

This section describes the composition and protocols of the advisory committee for a community forest demonstration area.

Section 404. Management of community forest demonstration areas

This section specifies how a community forest demonstration area is to be managed. The advisory committee is required to manage the area in accordance with all applicable state and federal laws only as they would apply to other state or privately-owned forest lands in the state. The advisory committee is also required to consult with tribes and collaborative groups.

Section 405. Distribution of funds from community forest demonstration area

This section requires the advisory committee to distribute funds generated from the community forest demonstration area to each county within the area in proportion to the amount of the community forest demonstration area within that county. The advisory committee is also authorized to retain funds to cover management costs.

Section 406. Initial funding authority

This section authorizes the advisory committee to seek non-federal funds for the management of the community forest demonstration area. The section also authorizes counties to provide funds to the advisory committee.

Section 407. Payments to United States Treasury

This section requires the advisory committee to make payments to the federal government in lieu of receipts that otherwise would come from continued management by the Forest Service and paid to counties from the Treasury.

Section 408. Termination of community forest demonstration area

This section specifies the process for terminating the community forest demonstration area. Termination must be by unanimous consent of the advisory committee and approved by the Governor of the State in which the area is located. The Forest Service immediately resumes management of any area terminated.

TITLE V—REAUTHORIZATION AND AMENDMENT OF EXISTING AUTHORITIES AND OTHER MATTERS

Section 501. Extension of secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act of 2000 pending full operation of forest reserve revenue areas

This section provides for a one-year extension of Secure Rural Schools payments until counties can benefit from increased forest management implemented by this legislation.

Section 502. Restoring original calculation method for 25-percent payments

This section replaces the 7-year rolling average for calculation of 25 percent payments and goes back to the original formula of basing payments on the prior year's receipts to ensure that counties see immediate benefit from this legislation.

Section 503. Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management Good-Neighbor Cooperation with State to reduce wildfire risks

The section expands and makes permanent existing authority—commonly referred to as “Good Neighbor Authority”—to allow the Forest Service and BLM to enter into cooperative agreements with States for hazardous fuels reduction on federal land. Good Neighbor authority was first enacted as part of the Department of the Interior and Related Agencies Appropriations Act of 2001 to allow the Forest Service to enter into cooperative agreements with the Colorado State Forest Service. Later appropriations riders expanded the authority to the BLM and also included the State of Utah. The current authorities for the two states expire on September 30, 2013.

Section 504. Stewardship end result contracting project authority

This section extends the agencies' authority to enter into stewardship contracts through 2017. Stewardship contracting was first enacted as a pilot program in the Fiscal Year 1999 Omnibus Appropriations Act and later extended through September 30, 2013. Stewardship contracts allow the Forest Service or BLM to exchange goods for services as opposed to traditional timber sales whereby the agency can use timber value to pay for restoration and thinning activities.

An amendment offered by Representative Paul Gosar (R-AZ) was adopted during markup of the bill to improve the use of large-scale stewardship contracting by including language to provide greater flexibility in obligating funds for the contract cancellation ceiling, and to make fire liability for stewardship contract identical to that which is currently required for conventional timber sales.

Section 505. Clarification of National Forest Management Act of 1976 authority

This section clarifies that the Forest Service is authorized to allow designation of areas to be harvested by description or prescription. This is intended to improve efficiency and management of management activities by not requiring marking of individual trees.

Section 506. Treatment as supplemental funding

This section clarifies that funds made available to counties under this legislation shall not be used by a state to offset funding that the state otherwise would pay to local counties.

Section 507. Exception of certain forest projects and activities from Appeals Reform Act and other review

This section was included as an amendment offered by Congressman Steve Daines (R-MT) and adopted during markup of the bill. This language would clarify that the use of categorical exclusions under the National Environmental Policy Act are not subject to the notice, comment, and appeals provisions of the Appeals Reform Act.

COMMITTEE OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Regarding clause 2(b)(1) of rule X and clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee on Natural Resources' oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the body of this report.

COMPLIANCE WITH HOUSE RULE XIII

1. Cost of Legislation. Clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires an estimate and a comparison by the Committee of the costs which would be incurred in carrying out this bill. However, clause 3(d)(2)(B) of that Rule provides that this requirement does not apply when the Committee has included in its report a timely submitted cost estimate of the bill prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office under section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974. Under clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 403 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following cost estimate for this bill from the Director of the Congressional Budget Office:

H.R. 1526—Restoring Healthy Forests for Healthy Communities Act

Summary: H.R. 1526 would substantially increase the amount of timber harvested on federal lands. The bill also would require the Secretaries of Agriculture and the Interior to make payments in 2014 to certain counties that contain federal lands. Finally, the bill would authorize the Forest Service and the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) to enter into contracts with non-federal entities to carry out activities related to forest management.

Based on information provided by the affected agencies, CBO estimates that enacting the legislation would increase direct spending by $376 million in 2014 and by $86 million over the 2014–2018 period, but would reduce direct spending by $269 million over the 2014–2023 period. Because the bill would affect direct spending, pay-as-you-go procedures apply.

In addition, CBO expects that implementing H.R. 1526 would increase discretionary spending for certain Forest Service activities and reduce discretionary spending for certain BLM activities. Based on information from those agencies, CBO estimates that the change in net discretionary spending would not be significant, assuming appropriation actions consistent with the purposes of the bill. Enacting the legislation would not affect revenues.

H.R. 1526 would impose intergovernmental and private-sector mandates, as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act (UMRA), on plaintiffs, including public and private entities, seeking judicial review of some activities on federal lands. CBO estimates that the cost of the mandates would fall below the annual thresholds established in UMRA for intergovernmental and private-sector mandates ($75 million and $150 million in 2013, respectively, adjusted annually for inflation).

Estimated cost to the Federal Government: The estimated budgetary impact of H.R. 1526 is shown in the following table. The costs of this legislation fall within budget function 300 (natural resources and environment).

Notes: Components may not sum to totals because of rounding.
BLM = Bureau of Land Management.

Basis of estimate: For this estimate, CBO assumes that the legislation will be enacted near the end of 2013.

Direct spending

The largest budgetary effects of H.R. 1526 would stem mostly from provisions that would increase receipts from timber sales, and spending associated with those receipts, over the 2015–2023 period—for net budgetary savings of about $600 million over that period—and would increase federal payments by $375 million to certain counties in 2014. Other provisions in the bill would reduce direct spending by $41 million over the 2014–2023 period.

Additional Timber Receipts. Title I would require the Forest Service to significantly increase the volume of timber it offers for sale each year. CBO estimates that, under the bill, offsetting receipts from timber sales would increase by about $2.1 billion over the 2015–2023 period. The Forest Service is authorized under current law to retain and spend a portion of those proceeds to carry out reforestation activities and conduct salvage sales of timber. (Salvage timber sales are generally designed to remove diseased, insect-infested dead, damaged, or downed trees.) In addition, the Forest Service is required to pay 25 percent of the proceeds from timber sales to counties where timber is harvested. Additional spending for those purposes would total $1.5 billion over 10 years. On net, CBO estimates that enacting Title I would reduce outlays by about $600 million over the 2015–2023 period.

The amount of receipts the Forest Service would generate under title I could vary significantly from CBO's estimate depending on the type of timber the agency would offer for sale, the location of that timber, and the methods it would allow firms to use to harvest it. The Forest Service's ability to increase the amount of timber it offers for sale under the bill would also be affected by the extent to which outside groups opposed the agency's actions. Finally, the amount of timber sold and the price paid for that timber would depend on the decisions of firms in the timber industry.

Timber Volume Requirement. H.R. 1526 would require the Forest Service to offer for sale a volume of timber equal to one-half of the sustainable yield of the National Forest System. The sustainable yield is the amount of timber extracted from a forest that can be replaced by new growth. Based on information provided by the Forest Service, CBO expects that, under the bill, the agency would be required to offer roughly six billion board feet (BBF) of timber for sale each year. By comparison, the agency sold an average of 2.5 BBF of timber a year over the past five years.

CBO expects that provisions of the bill would enable the Forest Service to significantly increase the amount of timber it sells annually. In particular, the legislation would expedite the environmental assessment and judicial review processes for timber sales. The bill also would require any person or entity seeking to challenge a timber sale to post a bond equal to the amount the Forest Service would spend on associated court proceedings. CBO expects that those provisions would reduce the amount of time required for the agency to conduct individual timber sales and deter some parties from challenging the legality of those sales.

But CBO also expects that other factors could impede the ability of the Forest Service to sell the amount of timber required under H.R. 1526:

- Based on information provided by the agency, CBO expects that sawmilling capacity may constrain the amount of timber purchased in certain regions of the United States in the first few years after the bill's enactment.

- In addition, because the Forest Service would need to change the types and amounts of timber products it sells and increase the number of sales it conducts each year, we expect that it would take a few years for the agency to implement new procedures.

- Finally, although the bill would make it more difficult for parties to challenge the legality of timber sales, CBO expects that the Forest Service would face more legal challenges to timber sales under the bill than under current law, particularly in the Pacific Northwest, where timber harvesting may threaten certain endangered species.

On balance, CBO estimates that the Forest Service would eventually increase the volume of timber it offers for sale each year to more than five billion board feet—about 90 percent of the total volume required under the bill—by 2023. That amount would be more than double the average annual amount of timber sold over the past five years. Because CBO expects that it would take time for the Forest Service to develop new procedures and ramp up sales, and that firms in the timber industry would need time to adjust to those changes, we expect that the increase in sales would occur gradually over the 2015–2023 period.

Timber Products and Values. Information provided by the Forest Service indicates that over the 2008–2012 period, saw timber (trees large enough to be made into planks and boards) accounted for roughly 60 percent of the volume of timber products sold by the agency; products with significantly lower values, such as pulpwood and firewood, accounted for the remaining 40 percent. Over that period, the value of timber products sold by Forest Service averaged about $60 per thousand board feet (MBF). By comparison, CBO estimates that the average value of timber products harvested from state and private lands, where saw timber comprises a larger portion of the total volume of timber sold, sold for $100 to $250 per thousand board feet over the same period. Those comparisons are based on information provided by the Forest Service and data about the value of timber products harvested from state lands.

CBO expects that, under H.R. 1526, the Forest Service would continue to sell roughly the same amount of low-value timber products as it does under current law. Thus, we believe that the agency would need to significantly increase the amount of saw timber it sells in order to meet the volume requirement established in the bill. Because we expect that the Forest Service would increase the amount of saw timber harvested in all regions of the United States, including a significant increase in the amount harvested in the Pacific Northwest, where saw timber values are very high, we estimate that the value of additional saw timber sold under the bill would average between $100 and $150 per MBF. CBO expects that those prices would probably be less than the value of similar timber harvested from state and private lands because, in general, timber harvesters operating on state and private lands would face fewer of the impediments that tend to increase the cost of extracting timber.

Mandatory Spending of Proceeds from Timber Sales. Under current law, the Forest Service has the authority to retain and spend a portion of the proceeds from timber sales to carry out reforestation activities and to conduct sales of salvage timber. Over the past five years, the agency retained roughly 50 percent of the available proceeds for those purposes. CBO anticipates that, under the bill, the amount of timber harvested from Forest Service lands would significantly increase and that the agency would allow timber producers to use methods to extract timber that would increase the cost of reforestation activities. Consequently, we expect that the Forest Service would increase the portion of timber proceeds it retains for reforestation by 5 percent to 10 percent over the next 10 years. Based on information from the Forest Service, CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 1526 would increase the amount of timber proceeds retained and spent by the agency by about $1 billion over the 2015–2023 period.

Pursuant to a law known as the Act of May 23, 1908, the Forest Service is required to make annual payments to counties equal to 25 percent of the proceeds from lands administered by the agency in those counties. CBO estimates that, under the bill, the increase in required payments would range from about $15 million in 2015 to about $75 million in 2023. However, CBO estimates that those payments would be reduced by roughly 7 percent each year (until 2022) under the Budget Control Act of 2011.¹ On net, CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 1526 would increase payments to counties, relative to current law, by $430 million over the 2015–2023 period.

Direct Payments to Counties. Title V would require the Secretaries of Agriculture and the Interior to make direct payments to certain counties in 2014. The amount of those payments would equal the amount distributed for 2010 to the affected counties under the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act of 2000. CBO estimates that the required payments would total $405 million; however, CBO estimates that those payments would be reduced by roughly 7 percent under the sequestration provisions of the Budget Control Act of 2011. On net, CBO estimates that enacting this provision would increase direct spending by $375 million in 2014.

Demonstration Projects. Title IV would require the Secretary of Agriculture to establish up to 10 areas consisting of at least 200,000 acres of land within the National Forest System to conduct community demonstration projects. Under the bill, governors would appoint advisory boards to manage those areas. The boards would collect all proceeds generated from activities within those areas and would be required to make payments to the federal government based on the amount of annual receipts generated by the surrounding national forest lands over the previous 10 years. Any proceeds remaining after those payments are made would be used by the boards to cover the costs of administering the demonstration areas and distributed to counties where the areas are located.

¹The Budget Control Act of 2011 requires a sequestration (that is, a reduction in spending) for certain expenditures over the 2013–2021 period.

CBO expects that most of the demonstration areas would be located in the western United States. Based on information regarding the amount of receipts generated per acre of national forest land in those states, CBO estimates that the advisory boards would increase annual payments to the federal government by $4 million in 2015, rising to $9 million in 2023. In total, CBO estimates that implementing title IV would increase offsetting receipts by $64 million over the 2015–2023 period.

Receipts from BLM Lands. Title III would require BLM to transfer management authority over 1.3 million acres of federal lands to the state of Oregon and Coos County. Beginning in 2015, those governments would retain any proceeds generated on the affected lands. Because CBO expects that, under current law, BLM would collect receipts totaling $9 million a year over the 2015–2017 period, we estimate that enacting the transfer provision would reduce offsetting receipts by $27 million over that three-year period.

Title III also would require the state of Oregon and Coos County to make payments to the federal government totaling $10.4 million a year over the 2018–2023 period. Those payments would increase offsetting receipts relative to current law by $1 million a year over the 2018–2023 period. All told, CBO estimates that enacting the provisions of title III would reduce offsetting receipts by $19 million over the 2015–2023 period.

Stewardship Contracting. Title V would authorize the Forest Service to enter into special contracts known as stewardship contracts through 2017. Under such contracts, the Forest Service and DOI use timber resources owned by the government in lieu of cash to compensate firms that provide certain services related to forest management. Under current law, the authority to enter into stewardship contracts expires at the end of 2013. Because CBO expects that some of the timber that would be used as compensation under stewardship contracts would be sold under current law, we estimate that enacting this provision would reduce offsetting receipts by $1 million a year over the 2014–2017 period.

Spending subject to appropriation

CBO estimates that implementing H.R. 1526 would have no significant net impact on discretionary spending. Title I would require the Forest Service to substantially increase the amount of timber it offers for sale each year. Because CBO expects that implementing that provision would increase the workload of the agency, particularly in regions where significant volumes of timber are harvested, we estimate that implementing that title would increase discretionary spending over the 2014–2018 period.

However, title III would require BLM to transfer management authority over 1.4 million acres of federal land to the state of Oregon and local governments. Over the 2009–2013 period, CBO estimates that the agency received appropriations averaging about $60 million a year to manage those lands. Because the bill would reduce the amount of land administered by the federal government in Oregon, we estimate that implementing title III would reduce discretionary spending over the 2014–2018 period.

Considering those changes, CBO estimates that implementing the bill would have a negligible impact on discretionary spending over the next five years.

Pay-As-You-Go considerations: The Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Act of 2010 establishes budget-reporting and enforcement procedures for legislation affecting direct spending or revenues. The net changes in direct spending that are subject to those pay-as-you-go procedures are shown in the following table.

CBO ESTIMATE OF PAY-AS-YOU-GO EFFECTS FOR H.R. 1526 AS ORDERED REPORTED BY THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON NATURAL RESOURCES ON JULY 31, 2013

	By fiscal year, in millions of dollars—
	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	2022	2023	2013–2018	2013–2023
	NET INCREASE OR DECREASE (–) IN THE DEFICIT
Statutory Pay-As-You-Go Impact	0	376	–50	–63	–77	–100	–111	–66	–63	–61	–53	86	–269

Intergovernmental and private-sector impact: H.R. 1526 would impose intergovernmental and private-sector mandates on plaintiffs, including public and private entities, seeking judicial review of some activities on federal lands. CBO estimates that the aggregate cost of the mandates in the bill would fall below the annual thresholds established in UMRA for intergovernmental and private-sector mandates ($75 million and $150 million in 2013, respectively, adjusted annually for inflation).

The bill would impose a mandate on plaintiffs seeking judicial review of projects carried out by the Forest Service under title I by establishing bonding requirements. In order to elicit judicial review of those projects, plaintiffs would be required to post a bond. The value of the bond would be equal to the estimated litigation costs of the federal government. The cost of the mandate would be the purchase price of required bonds, typically 10 percent of the bond amount. CBO expects that both the number of timber projects by Forest Service that would be subject to litigation and the bond fee in those cases would be relatively small. Therefore, CBO expects that the annual cost of the mandate would not be substantial.

Additionally, the bill would prohibit plaintiffs from seeking a preliminary injunction to temporarily stop activities, such as logging, on the federal lands to be managed by the state of Oregon under title III. Preliminary injunctions are issued only in cases where compensation awarded by the court could not equal the potential personal damage or damage to property. By eliminating a right of action, the bill would impose a mandate. The cost of the mandate would be any forgone income that would occur without a preliminary injunction. Because losses of income would generally not occur for the types of cases involved, the mandate would probably impose no costs.

Counties with federal forest lands and the State of Oregon would benefit from provisions in the bill related to timber sales and would receive about $900 million over the 2014–2023 period.

2. Section 308(a) of Congressional Budget Act. As required by clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, this bill does not contain any new budget authority, credit authority, or an increase or decrease in revenues or tax expenditures. Based on information provided by the affected agencies, CBO estimates that enacting the legislation would increase direct spending by $376 million in 2014 and by $86 million over the 2014–2018 period, but would reduce direct spending by $269 million over the 2014–2023 period. Because the bill would affect direct spending, pay-as-you-go procedures apply.

In addition, CBO expects that implementing H.R. 1526 would increase discretionary spending for certain Forest Service activities and reduce discretionary spending for certain Bureau of Land Management activities. Based on information from those agencies, CBO estimates that the change in net discretionary spending would not be significant, assuming appropriation actions consistent with the purposes of the bill. Enacting the legislation would not affect revenues.

3. General Performance Goals and Objectives. As required by clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII, the general performance goal or objective of this bill is to restore employment and educational opportunities in, and improve the economic stability of, counties containing National Forest System land, while also reducing Forest Service management costs, by ensuring that such counties have a dependable source of revenue from National Forest System land, and to provide a temporary extension of the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act of 2000.

EARMARK STATEMENT

This bill does not contain any Congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined under clause 9(e), 9(f), and 9(g) of rule XXI of the Rules of the House of Representatives.

COMPLIANCE WITH PUBLIC LAW 104–4

This bill contains no unfunded mandates.

COMPLIANCE WITH H. RES. 5

Directed Rule Making. The Chairman estimates that this bill directs the Secretary of Agriculture to conduct one rulemaking.

Duplication of Existing Programs. This bill does establish or reauthorize one or more programs of the federal government known to be duplicative of another program. However, the intent of the new forestry programs in titles I, II, III and IV of this bill is to replace or rebuild existing, ineffective national forestry management programs to produce jobs, restore healthy forests throughout the county, reduce the risks of catastrophic wildfires and create revenue sources for states and local communities to fund schools, roads and provide other public services. These communities are severely impacted by the pervasive presence of federal forested lands, which cannot be subject to state or local taxes but still require local and state government investments like roads, fire and police protection, and school services for local federal employees. In addition, the reauthorizations contained in title V of the bill are intended as a short-term bridge to transition to the new, more effective and ef-efficient new programs created by the other titles. Several of the reauthorized programs were included in a 2011 report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111–139, or identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance published pursuant to the Federal Program Information Act (Public Law 95–220, as amended by Public Law 98–169) as relating to other programs.

FEDERAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE STATEMENT

The functions of the proposed advisory committee authorized in the bill are not currently being nor could they be performed by one or more agencies, an advisory committee already in existence or by enlarging the mandate of an existing advisory committee.

PREEMPTION OF STATE, LOCAL OR TRIBAL LAW

This bill is not intended to preempt any State, local or tribal law.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW MADE BY THE BILL, AS REPORTED

In compliance with clause 3(e) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, changes in existing law made by the bill, as reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new matter is printed in italic, existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman):

ACT OF AUGUST 28, 1937

AN ACT relating to the revested Oregon and California Railroad and reconveyed Coos Bay Wagon Road grant lands situated in the State of Oregon.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, [That notwithstanding any provisions in the Acts of June 9, 1916 (39 Stat. 218), and February 26, 1919 (40 Stat. 1179), as amended, such portions of the revested Oregon and California Railroad and reconveyed Coos Bay Wagon Road grant lands as are or may hereafter come under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior, which have heretofore or may hereafter be classified as timberlands, and power-site lands valuable for timber, shall be managed, except as provided in section 3 hereof, for permanent forest production, and the timber thereon shall be sold, cut, and removed in conformity with the principal of sustained yield for the purpose of providing a permanent source of timber supply, protecting watersheds, regulating stream flow, and contributing to the economic stability of local communities and industries, and providing recreational facilities: Provided, That nothing herein shall be construed to interface with the use and development of power sites as may be authorized by law.

[The annual productive capacity for such lands shall be determined and declared as promptly as possible after the passage of this Act, but until such determination and declaration are made the average annual cut therefrom shall not exceed one-half billion feet board measure: Provided, That timber from said lands in an amount not less than one-half billion feet board measure, or not less than the annual sustained yield capacity when the same has been determined and declared, shall be sold annually, or so much thereof as can be sold at reasonable prices on a normal market.

¶If the Secretary of the Interior determines that such action will facilitate sustained-yield management, he may subdivide such re-vested lands into sustained-yield forest units, the boundary lines of which shall be so established that a forest unit will provide, insofar as practicable, a permanent source of raw materials for the support of dependent communities and local industries of the region; but until such subdivision is made the land shall be treated as a single unit in applying the principle of sustained yield, Provided, That before the boundary lines of such forest units are established, the Department, after published notice thereof, shall hold a hearing thereon in the vicinity of such lands open to the attendance of State and local officers, representatives of dependent industries, residents, and other persons interested in the use of such lands. Due consideration shall be given to established lumbering operations in subdividing such lands when necessary to protect the economic stability of dependent communities. Timber sales from a forest unit shall be limited to the productive capacity of such unit and the Secretary is authorized, in his discretion, to reject any bids which may interfere with the sustained-yield management plan of any unit.

¶SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his discretion, to make cooperative agreements with other Federal or State forest administrative agencies or with private forest owners or operators for the coordinated administration, with respect to time, rate, method of cutting, and sustained yield, of forest units comprising parts of re-vested or reconveyed lands, together with lands in private ownership or under the administration of other public agencies, when by such agreements he may be aided in accomplishing the purposes hereinbefore mentioned.

¶SEC. 4. The Secretary of the Interior is authorized, in his discretion, to lease for grazing any of said re-vested or reconveyed lands which may be so used without interfering with the production of timber or other purposes of this Act as stated in section 1: Provided, That all the moneys receive on account of grazing leases shall be covered either into the "Oregon and California land-grant fund" or the "Coos Bay Wagon Road grant fund" in the Treasury as the location of the leased lands shall determine, and be subject to distribution as other moneys in such funds: Provided further, That the Secretary is also authorized to formulate rules and regulations for the use, protection, improvement, and rehabilitation of such grazing lands.

¶SEC. 5. The Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized to perform any and all acts and to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper for the purpose of carrying the provisions of this Act into full force and effect. The Secretary of the Interior is further authorized, in formulating forest-practice rules and regulations, to consult with the Oregon State Board of Forestry, representatives of timber owners and operators on or contiguous to said re-vested and reconveyed lands, and other persons or agencies interested in the use of such lands.

¶In formulating regulations for the protection of such timberlands against fire, the Secretary is authorized, in his discretion, to consult and advise with Federal, State, and county agencies engaged in forest-fire-protection work, and to make agreements with such agencies for the cooperative administration of fire regulations, therein: Provided, That rules and regulations for the protection of the revested lands from fire shall conform with the requirements and practices of the State of Oregon insofar as the same are consistent with the interests of the United States.

【TITLE II

【That on and after March 1, 1938, all moneys deposited in the Treasury of the United States in the special fund designated the "Oregon and California land-grant fund" shall be distributed annually as follow:

【(a) Fifty per centum to the counties in which the lands revested under the Act of June 9, 1916 (39 Stat. 218), are situated, to be payable on or after June 30, 1938, and each year thereafter to each of said counties in the proportion that the total assessed value of the Oregon and California grant lands in each of said counties for the year 1915 bears to the total assessed value of all of said lands in the State of Oregon for said year, such moneys to be used as other county funds: Provided, however, That for the purposes of this subsection the portion of the said revested Oregon and California railroad grant lands in each of said counties which was not assessed for the year 1915 shall be deemed to have been assessed at the average assessed value of the grant lands in said county.

【(b) Twenty-five per centum of said counties as money in lieu of taxes accrued or which shall accrue to them prior to March 1, 1938, under the provisions of the Act of July 13, 1926 (44 Stat. 915), and which taxes are unpaid on said date, such moneys to be paid to said counties severally by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, upon certification by the Secretary of the Interior, until such tax indebtedness as shall have accrued prior to March 1, 1938, is extinguished.

【From and after payment of the above accrued taxes said 25 per centum shall be accredited annually to the general fund in the Treasury of the United States until all reimbursable charges against the Oregon and California land-grant fund owing to the general fund in the Treasury have been paid: Provided, That if for any year after the extinguishment of the tax indebtedness accruing to the counties prior to March 1, 1938, under provisions of Forty-fourth Statutes, page 915, the total amount payable under subsection (a) of this title is less than 78 per centum of the aggregate amount of tax claims which accrued to said counties under said Act for the year 1934, there shall be additionally payable for such year such portion of said 25 per centum (but not in excess of three-fifths of said 25 per centum), as may be necessary to make up the deficiency. When the general fund in the Treasury has been fully reimbursed for the expenditures which were made charges against the Oregon and California land-grant fund said 25 per centum shall be paid annually, on or after September 30, to the several counties in the manner provided in subsection (a) hereof.

【(c) Twenty-five per centum to be available for the administration of this Act, in such annual amounts as the Congress shall from time to time determine. Any part of such per centum not used for administrative purposes shall be covered into the general fund of the Treasury of the United States: Provided, That moneys covered into the Treasury in such manner shall be used to satisfy the reimbursable charges against the Oregon and California land-grant fund mentioned in subsection (b) so long as any such charges shall exist.

[All Acts or parts of Acts in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent necessary to give full force and effect to this Act.]

Dear Chairman Hastings:

Thank you for the opportunity to review the relevant provisions of the text of H.R. 1526, the Restoring Healthy Forests for Healthy Communities Act. As you are aware, the bill was primarily referred to the Committee on Natural Resources, while the Agriculture Committee received an additional referral.

I recognize and appreciate your desire to bring this legislation before the House in an expeditious manner and, accordingly, I agree to discharge H.R. 1526 from further consideration by the Committee on Agriculture. I do so with the understanding that by discharging the bill, the Committee on Agriculture does not waive any future jurisdictional claim on this or similar matters. Further, the Committee on Agriculture reserves the right to seek the appointment of conferees, if it should become necessary.

I ask that you insert a copy of our exchange of letters into the Congressional Record during consideration of this measure on the House floor.

Thank you for your courtesy in this matter and I look forward to continued cooperation between our respective committees.

Sincerely,

Frank D. Lucas

 Washington, D.C. 20515

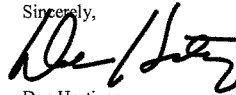

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Thank you for your letter regarding H.R. 1526, the Restoring Healthy Forests for Healthy Communities Act. As you know, the Committee on Natural Resources ordered reported the bill, as amended, on July 31, 2013. I appreciate your support in bringing this legislation before the House of Representatives, and accordingly, understand that the Committee on Agriculture will forego action on the bill.

The Committee on Natural Resources concurs with the mutual understanding that by foregoing consideration of H.R. 1526 at this time, the Committee on Agriculture does not waive any jurisdiction over the subject matter contained in this or similar legislation. In addition, should a conference on the bill be necessary, I would support your request to have the Committee on Agriculture represented on the conference committee. Finally, I would be pleased to include your letter and this response in the bill report filed by the Committee on Natural Resources, as well as in the Congressional Record during floor consideration, to memorialize our understanding.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Doc Hastings
 Chairman

ADDITIONAL VIEWS

Democrats are strongly committed to finding solutions to the serious challenges facing rural, economically depressed communities that depend on federal forests. Unfortunately, H.R. 1526 as ordered reported from the Committee is not that solution. Provisions in the bill go well beyond what is necessary to achieve the legislation's stated goals, would dramatically alter the management of our national forests, and undermine the multi-use mission of our public lands.

Title I would force the Secretary of Agriculture to create timber production zones (Forest Reserve Revenue Areas) within each national forest unit of the National Forest System. Each unit would be required to meet annual timber volume targets set at half of what the forest grows each year. Meeting these targets would require logging and related road building in currently protected, roadless areas and national monuments, limit public review by legislatively prescribing compliance with the National Environmental Protection Act (NEPA), limit scientific review by establishing a "non-jeopardy" presumption for all logging projects, and limit judicial review by requiring plaintiffs to post bonds and putting restrictions and timelines on court decisions.

Title II is intended to address insects, disease, and other forest health issues on National Forest and BLM lands. These issues should be addressed in bipartisan legislation. Unfortunately, this Title is overly broad and would allow the Secretary to implement hazardous fuel projects using the controversial expedited NEPA process provided in Title I. While designated wilderness areas, areas already prohibited from logging, and national monuments are excluded from the Title, inventoried roadless areas are not. Further, we question the need and wisdom of allowing governors to designate "high risk areas" on Federal land.

Title IV would establish "community forest demonstration areas" that would be managed by state boards of trustees, be at least 200,000 acres, and be governed by state forest practices laws. Devolving national forest system lands with a multi-use mandate to state governments with a timber production mandate under varying and less protective state laws is highly problematic—not least because it would overturn more than 100 years of national forest management precedent. Title IV has major implications for implementation of NEPA, ESA, the Clean Water Act, and the Clean Air Act, as those statutes currently apply to national forest lands. This model also calls into question existing rights, subsurface rights, and tribal sovereignty and consultation. Democrats strongly object to the devolution of U.S. Forest Service lands to state and county governments.

The minority strongly supports Section 501 of Title V to extend the Secure Rural Schools and Community Self-Determination Act of 2000 for one year at the Fiscal Year 2010 level. These support payments are critical to providing struggling rural and forested counties across the country with the resources they need to offer basic government services like education, law enforcement, and health care to members of their communities.

Democrats offered various amendments to modify the most contentious provisions and to try to shape a bill that could be supported on a bipartisan basis. Representative Huffman (D-CA) offered an amendment that would have retained all federal protections for our national forests while giving land management agencies tools they need to better manage for the impacts of climate change, forest health, and to help prevent catastrophic wildfires. Provisions in the Huffman amendment have already been passed by the U.S. Senate on a bipartisan basis and could be signed into law tomorrow. Unfortunately, that amendment was defeated on a party line vote. Democrats offered amendments to strike the most controversial language of the bill that undermines NEPA and ESA and to preserve the status quo of herbicide application on the statutorily unique O&C Lands. Those amendments were also defeated on a party line vote.

Many of the management challenges associated with our national forests are related to the lack of federal funding. That's not a partisan issue. Both the Bush and Obama administrations have come up short on funding for hazardous fuel projects and providing our federal land management agencies with the resources they need to carry out their mandates. This problem is likely to get worse with budget sequestration and shrinking federal budgets.

The Committee should focus on improving existing management tools for our land management agencies. The agencies only now appear ready to begin using the tools Congress gave them under the Health Forest Restoration Act (HFRA) that we negotiated on a bipartisan basis out of this Committee and out of the House. There are also opportunities with stewardship contracting and Good Neighbor Authority to lower agency costs, improve ecosystem health, and produce substantial commercial value to private contractors. These tools work and should be expanded upon.

There is common ground on these issues. Democrats stand ready to work with the majority to move forward on a bipartisan basis on forest health, fire, disease, bugs, and providing economic opportunity in rural, forest counties across the country.
