

114TH CONGRESS
2^D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 122

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Whereas this resolution may be cited as the “Protection of the Right of Tribes to stop the Export of Cultural and Traditional Patrimony Resolution” or the “PROTECT Patrimony Resolution”;

Whereas the tribal cultural items of American Indians, Alaska Natives, and Native Hawaiians (collectively “tribes” or “Native Americans”) in the United States of America include ancestral remains, funerary objects, sacred objects, and objects of cultural patrimony (hereinafter “tribal cultural items”), which are objects that have ongoing historical, traditional, or cultural importance central to a Native American group or culture itself, and which, therefore, cannot be alienated, appropriated, or conveyed by any individual;

Whereas tribal cultural items are vital to tribal cultural survival and the maintenance of tribal ways of life;

Whereas the nature and the description of tribal cultural items are sensitive and to be treated with respect and confidentiality, as appropriate;

Whereas violators often export tribal cultural items overseas with the intent of evading Federal and tribal laws;

Whereas tribal cultural items continue to be removed from tribal possession and sold in black or public markets in violation of Federal and tribal laws, including laws designed to protect tribal cultural property rights;

Whereas the illegal trade of tribal cultural items involves a sophisticated and lucrative black market, as items make their way through domestic markets, and then are often exported overseas;

Whereas auction houses in foreign countries have held sales of tribal cultural items from the Pueblo of Acoma, the Pueblo of Laguna, the Pueblo of San Felipe, the Hopi Tribe, and other tribes;

Whereas after tribal cultural items are exported abroad, tribes have difficulty stopping the sale of these items and securing their repatriation to their home communities, where the items belong;

Whereas Federal agencies have a responsibility to consult with tribes to stop the theft, illegal possession or sale, transfer, and export of tribal cultural items;

Whereas an increase in the investigation and successful prosecution of violations of the Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act (25 U.S.C. 3001 et seq.) and the Archaeological Resources Protection Act (16 U.S.C. 470aa–470mm) is necessary to deter illegal traders; and

Whereas many tribes and tribal organizations have passed resolutions condemning the theft and sale of tribal cultural items, including—

(1) the National Congress of American Indians passed Resolutions SAC–12–008 and SD–15–075 to call upon the United States, in consultation with tribes, to address international repatriation and take affirmative actions to stop the theft and illegal sale of tribal cultural items both domestically and abroad;

(2) the All Pueblo Council of Governors, representative of 20 Pueblo Indian tribes, noting that the Pueblo Indian tribes of the southwestern United States have been disproportionately affected by the illegal sale of tribal cultural items both domestically and internationally and in violation of Federal and tribal laws, passed Resolutions Nos. 2015–12 and 2015–13 to call upon the United States, in consultation with tribes, to address international repatriation and take affirmative actions to stop the theft and illegal sale of tribal cultural items both domestically and abroad;

(3) the United South and Eastern Tribes, an inter-tribal organization comprised of 26 federally recognized tribes, passed Resolution No. 2015:007, which calls upon the United States to address all means to support repatriation of ancestral remains and cultural items from beyond United States borders; and

(4) the Inter-Tribal Council of the Five Civilized Tribes, uniting the Chickasaw, Choctaw, Cherokee, Muscogee (Creek), and Seminole Nations, passed Resolution No. 12–07, which requests that the United States assist in international repatriations and take immediate action, after consultation with tribes, to address repatriation: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That Congress—

3 (1) condemns the theft, illegal possession or
4 sale, transfer, and export of tribal cultural items;

5 (2) calls upon the Secretaries of the Depart-
6 ment of the Interior, the Department of State, the 7 Department of Commerce, and the Department of 8 Homeland Security and the Attorney General to con-
9 sult with tribes and traditional Native American reli-
10 gious leaders in addressing this important issue, to 11 take affirmative action to stop these illegal practices,
12 and to secure repatriation of tribal cultural items to 13 tribes;

14 (3) supports the development of explicit restric-
15 tions on the export of tribal cultural items; and

16 (4) encourages State and local governments and
17 interested groups and organizations to work coopera-
18 tively in deterring the theft, illegal possession or

1 sale, transfer, and export of tribal cultural items and
2 in securing the repatriation of tribal cultural items.
Passed the House of Representatives September 21, 2016.

Attest:

Clerk.
