4 (a) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—Although effective secu-
 5 rity checks are needed to ensure that the United States
 6 and the Nation’s refugee admissions program are ade-
 7 quately protected, it is the sense of the Congress that the 8 failure to properly coordinate security and non-security 9 clearance procedures has had negative impacts on the 10 processing of vulnerable individuals who are in need of,
 11 and eligible for, resettlement to the United States.

12 (b) REVIEW OF REFUGEE PROCESSING.—The Sec-
 13 retary of Homeland Security shall work with the heads

2 vetting.

3 (c) REPORT.—Not later than 60 days after the date
4 of the enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Homeland
5 Security shall submit to the Congress a report on the re-

16 ing for refugees who have been approved for admission

20 and implementing the programs referred to in subsection

1           (2) nongovernmental or international organiza-
2           tions with appropriate expertise in developing cur-
3           riculum and teaching English as a second language.

4           (c) IMPACT ON PROCESSING TIMES.—The Secretary
5           shall ensure that such training programs occur within ap-
6           plicable processing times and do not unduly delay the de-7           parture for the United States of refugees who have been 8           approved for admission to the United States.

9           (d) TIMELINE FOR IMPLEMENTATION.—

17           Act, the Secretary shall notify the appropriate con-
18           gressional committees that such training programs
19           are fully and consistently operational in 5 refugee 20           processing regions.

21           (e) GAO REPORT.—Not later than 2 years after the 22           date of the enactment of this Act, the Comptroller General
23           of the United States shall conduct a study on the imple-24           mentation of this section, including an assessment of the 25           quality of English as a second language curriculum and

1 instruction, the benefits of the work orientation and 2 English as a second language training program to refu-
3 gees, and recommendations on whether such programs
4 should be continued, broadened, or modified, and shall 5 submit to the appropriate congressional committees a re-
6 port on the findings of such study.
