A BILL

To amend title 18, United States Code, to require the inclusion of a term of supervised release as a part of a sentence for certain offenders, to provide for the removal of deportable alien offenders, and for other purposes.

1       *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Criminal Alien Deten-
5 tion and Removal Act”.

1   SEC. 2. MANDATORY INCLUSION OF A TERM OF SUPER-
2                   VISED RELEASE FOR CERTAIN OFFENDERS;
3                   REMOVAL OF DEPORTABLE ALIEN OFFEND-
4                   ERS.

5       Section 3583 of title 18, United States Code, is 6 amended—

7               (1) by amending subsection (a) to read as fol-
8               lows:

9               “(a) IN GENERAL.—The court, in imposing a sen-
10              tence to a term of imprisonment—

11               “(1) except as provided in paragraph (2), may 12              include as a part of the sentence a requirement that 13              the defendant be placed on a term of supervised re-14              lease after imprisonment if the defendant has been 15              convicted of a misdemeanor; and

16               “(2) shall include as a part of the sentence a
17              requirement that the defendant be placed on a term
18              of supervised release if the defendant has been con-
19              victed of a felony, if such a term is required by stat-20              ute, or if the defendant has been convicted for the 21              first time of a domestic violence crime as defined in 22              section 3561(b).”;

23               (2) in subsection (c)—

24               (A) by striking “in determining whether to 25              include a term of supervised release, and, if a

1           term of supervised release is to be included.”;

2           and

3           (B) by inserting after “conditions of super-
4           vised release,” the following: “and in the case
5           of an offense described in subsection (a)(1), 6           whether to include a term of supervised re-
7           lease.”;

8           (3) in subsection (d), by striking the following:
9           “If an alien defendant is subject to deportation, the 10          court may provide, as a condition of supervised re-11          lease, that he be deported and remain outside the 12          United States, and may order that he be delivered 13          to a duly authorized immigration official for such 14          deportation.”; and

15           (4) by adding at the end the following:

16           “(l) ALIEN OFFENDERS.—In the case of a defendant
17          sentenced to a term of supervised release who is a deport-
18          able alien, the court—

19           “(1) may enter a judicial order of removal 20          against the alien, and provide that as a condition of 21          supervised release, the alien—

22           “(A) remain outside of the United States;

23           and

24           “(B) be delivered to a duly authorized im-25          migration official for deportation; or

1           “(2) except in the case where the court enters
2        a judicial order of removal described in paragraph
3        (1), shall provide that as a condition of supervised
4        release, the alien be delivered to a duly authorized
5        immigration official for removal proceedings in ac-
6        cordance with chapter 4 of title II of the Immigra-
7        tion and Nationality Act (8 U.S.C. 1221 et seq.).”.
