A BILL

To prevent the abuse of opiates, to improve response and treatment for the abuse of opiates and related overdoses, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Stem the Tide of Over-
5 dose Prevalence from Opiate Drugs Act of 2016” or as
6 the “STOP OD Act of 2016”.

7 SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

8 Congress finds as follows:

1 (1) The increase in fentanyl-related unintentional overdose fatalities presents another life-threatening scenario for its victims and threatens first-responders.

5 (2) The U.S. Sentencing Commission—

6 (A) ought to consider the presence of fentanyl in connection to the illicit distribution of an illicit substance, as a cutting agent; and

9 (B) if fentanyl is present as a cutting agent or in its pure form, may consider such presence as an aggravating factor at sentencing.

13 (3) Better identification and reporting practices by medical examiners and coroners to identify fentanyl in an overdose mortality will help the States and the Federal Government to allocate resources more accurately. Those findings ought to be confidential but for any aggregate data released by the appropriate government agency.

20 (4) Congress encourages States to expand training opportunities to first responders to administer naloxone.

23 (5) Eliminating the civil liability of first responders administering naloxone would save lives and protect our emergency personnel.

3 2018, the Director of the Centers for Disease Control and

19 professionals who administer naloxone in the course
20 of their duty to counteract opiate overdoses.

21 (2) A local government.

22 (3) A nonprofit organization.
