

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 360

Recognizing the 50th anniversary of the National Collegiate Honors Council.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 10, 2015

Mr. RUSSELL (for himself, Mr. BENISHEK, Mr. BISHOP of Utah, Mr. BOUTANY, and Mr. COLE) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce

RESOLUTION

Recognizing the 50th anniversary of the National Collegiate Honors Council.

Whereas the National Collegiate Honors Council supports honors education at more than 800 member colleges and universities, challenging over 325,000 high-achieving students from six regions in the United States and internationally;

Whereas the National Collegiate Honors Council, with 50 years of tradition in providing networking and support for professional honors staff, continues to define and hold true to the guiding principles of honors education;

Whereas the National Collegiate Honors Council provides opportunities for Honors Directors and other professional staff to share best practices in honors education;

Whereas the National Collegiate Honors Council supports Honors Directors through numerous continuing education tracks, including specific options for beginning in honors, developing in honors, and best honors administrative practices;

Whereas the National Collegiate Honors Council's member organizations contribute to a collection of honors education best practices and provide consultation and publications for others researching honors education pedagogy; and

Whereas the National Collegiate Honors Council, in support of its members, influences and provides unique and collaborative learning experiences in all academic disciplines: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) commends the National Collegiate Honors
3 Council, its officers, staff, members, institutions,
4 and students on the 50th anniversary of the Council;

5 (2) recognizes the members of the National Col-
6 legiate Honors Council for their continued hard
7 work and devotion to educational excellence in high-
8 er education; and

9 (3) congratulates the National Collegiate Hon-
10 ors Council for its distinguished history and long
11 record of achievements.

○