S. 2489

To ensure that persons who form corporations in the United States disclose the beneficial owners of those corporations, in order to prevent the formation of corporations with hidden owners, stop the misuse of United States corporations by wrongdoers, and assist law enforcement in detecting, preventing, and punishing terrorism, money laundering, tax evasion, and other criminal and civil misconduct involving United States corporations, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 3, 2016

Mr. WHITEHOUSE (for himself and Mrs. FEINSTEIN) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To ensure that persons who form corporations in the United States disclose the beneficial owners of those corporations, in order to prevent the formation of corporations with hidden owners, stop the misuse of United States corporations by wrongdoers, and assist law enforcement in detecting, preventing, and punishing terrorism, money laundering, tax evasion, and other criminal and civil misconduct involving United States corporations, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Incorporation Trans-
3 parency and Law Enforcement Assistance Act”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) Nearly 2,000,000 corporations and limited
7 liability companies are being formed under the laws
8 of the States each year.

9 (2) Very few States obtain meaningful informa-
10 tion about the beneficial owners of the corporations 11 and limited liability companies formed under their 12 laws.

13 (3) A person forming a corporation or limited 14 liability company within the United States typically 15 provides less information to the State of incorpora-
16 tion than is needed to obtain a bank account or driv-
17 er’s license and typically does not name a single ben-18 efiticial owner.

19 (4) Terrorists and other criminals have ex-
20 ploited the weaknesses in State formation proce-
21 dures to conceal their identities when forming cor-22 porations or limited liability companies in the United 23 States, and have then used the newly created enti-
24 ties to support terrorist organizations, drug traf-
25 ficking organizations, and international organized 26 crime groups, as well as commit misconduct affect-

1 ing interstate and international commerce such as 2 trafficking in illicit drugs, illegal arms trafficking,
3 money laundering, tax evasion, health care fraud,
4 Internet-based fraud, securities fraud, financial 5 fraud, intellectual property crimes, and acts of cor-
6 ruption.

7 (5) Among those who have abused State incor-
8 poration procedures is Victor Bout, a Russian arms
9 dealer who used at least 12 companies incorporated
10 in Texas, Florida, and Delaware to carry out his ac-
11 tivities, and has been convicted, in part, for con-
12 spiring to sell weapons to a terrorist organization
13 trying to kill citizens of the United States and Fed-14 eral officers and employees. In addition, Iranian in-15 terests used a shell company formed in New York to 16 purchase a 36-story building on Fifth Avenue in 17 Manhattan and forwarded millions of dollars in rent 18 each year to Iran until authorities in the United 19 States learned of the transfers and seized the build-20 ing.

21 (6) Law enforcement efforts to investigate cor-
22 porations and limited liability companies suspected 23 of wrongdoing have been impeded by the lack of 24 available beneficial ownership information, as docu-
25 mented in reports and testimony by officials from

1 the Department of Justice, the Department of 2 Homeland Security, the Financial Crimes Enforce-
3 ment Network of the Department of the Treasury,
4 the Internal Revenue Service, the Government Ac-
5 countability Office, and others.

6 (7) In July 2006, a leading international anti-7 money laundering and anti-terrorist financing orga-
8 nization, the Financial Action Task Force on Money
9 Laundering (in this section referred to as “FATF”),
10 of which the United States is a member, issued a re-11 port that criticized the United States for failing to 12 comply with a FATF standard on the need to collect 13 beneficial ownership information and urged the 14 United States to correct this deficiency by July 15 2008.

16 (8) In response to the FATF report and to 17 strengthen measures to protect homeland security, 18 Federal officials have repeatedly urged the States to 19 improve their formation practices by obtaining bene-20 ficial ownership information for the corporations and 21 limited liability companies formed under the laws of 22 such States. But the States continue to form mil-
23 lions of corporations with hidden owners.

24 (9) Many States have established automated
25 procedures that allow a person to form a new cor-

1 poration or limited liability company within the 2 State within 24 hours of filing an online application,
3 without any prior review of the application by a
4 State official.

5 (10) Dozens of Internet websites highlight the 6 anonymity of beneficial owners allowed under the 7 formation practices of some States, point to those 8 practices as a reason to incorporate in those States,
9 and list those States together with offshore jurisdic-
10 tions as preferred locations for the formation of new 11 corporations, essentially inviting terrorists and other 12 wrongdoers to form entities within the United 13 States.

14 (11) In contrast to practices in the United 15 States, all 28 countries in the European Union are 16 already required to have formation agents identify 17 the beneficial owners of the corporations formed by 18 those agents under the laws of those countries.

19 (12) To reduce the vulnerability of the United 20 States to wrongdoing by United States corporations 21 and limited liability companies with hidden owners, 22 protect interstate and international commerce from 23 terrorists and other criminals misusing United 24 States corporations and limited liability companies, 25 strengthen law enforcement investigations of suspect

1 corporations and limited liability companies, set minimum standards for and level the playing field
 2 among State formation practices, and bring the 3 United States into compliance with international 4 anti-money laundering and anti-terrorist financing
 5 standards, Federal legislation is needed to require
 6 the States to obtain beneficial ownership information
 7 for the corporations and limited liability companies
 8 formed under the laws of such States.

10 SEC. 3. TRANSPARENT INCORPORATION PRACTICES.

11 (a) TRANSPARENT INCORPORATION PRACTICES.—
 12 Part E of title I of the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe
 13 Streets Act of 1968 (42 U.S.C. 3750 et seq.) is amended

17 control over the corporation or limited li-
18 ability company through another legal enti-

21 each such beneficial owner who will use
22 that entity to exercise control over the cor-

25 beneficial owner not later than 10 days

1 after the date on which the formation
2 agent transfers the corporation or limited 3 liability company to another person; and

4 “(iii) the corporation or limited liabil-5 ity company is required by the State to 6 submit to the State an annual filing con-
7 taining the list of the beneficial owners of 8 the corporation or limited liability company
9 and the information described in subpara-
10 graph (A) for each such beneficial owner.

12 efiticial ownership information relating to each
13 corporation or limited liability company formed 14 under the laws of the State is required to be 15 maintained by the State until the end of the 5-16 year period beginning on the date that the cor-

17 pany formed under the laws of the State may 18 not issue a certificate in bearer form evidencing
19 either a whole or fractional interest in the cor-
20 poration or limited liability company.

21 “(2) STATES THAT LICENSE FORMATION
22 AGENTS.—

23 “(A) IN GENERAL.—To meet the require-
24 ments under this section, a State described in 25 subparagraph (B) may permit an applicant to

1 form a corporation or limited liability company
2 under the laws of the State, or a corporation or 3 limited liability company formed under the laws
4 of the State, to provide the required informa-
