A BILL

To amend chapter 97 of title 28, United States Code, to clarify the exception to foreign sovereign immunity set forth in section 1605(a)(3) of such title.

1       *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Foreign Cultural Ex-
5 change Jurisdictional Immunity Clarification Act”.

1   SEC. 2. CLARIFICATION OF JURISDICTIONAL IMMUNITY OF 2                   FOREIGN STATES.

3       (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 1605 of title 28, United 4 States Code, is amended by adding at the end the fol-
5 lowing:

6       “(h) JURISDICTIONAL IMMUNITY FOR CERTAIN ART
7 EXHIBITION ACTIVITIES.—

8               “(1) IN GENERAL.—If—

9               “(A) a work is imported into the United 10 States from any foreign state pursuant to an 11 agreement that provides for the temporary exhi-
12 bition or display of such work entered into be-13 tween a foreign state that is the owner or cus-
14 todian of such work and the United States or 15 one or more cultural or educational institutions
16 within the United States;

17               “(B) the President, or the President’s des-
18 ignee, has determined, in accordance with sub-19 section (a) of Public Law 89–259 (22 U.S.C.
20 2459(a)), that such work is of cultural signifi-
21 cance and the temporary exhibition or display 22 of such work is in the national interest; and

23               “(C) the notice thereof has been published
24 in accordance with subsection (a) of Public Law
25 89–259 (22 U.S.C. 2459(a)),

1       any activity in the United States of such foreign 2       state, or of any carrier, that is associated with the 3       temporary exhibition or display of such work shall 4       not be considered to be commercial activity by such 5       foreign state for purposes of subsection (a)(3).

6             “(2) EXCEPTIONS.—

7                 “(A) NAZI-ERA CLAIMS.—Paragraph (1)
8       shall not apply in any case asserting jurisdiction 9       under subsection (a)(3) in which rights in 10      property taken in violation of international law
11      are in issue within the meaning of that sub-12      section and—

13                     “(i) the property at issue is the work
14      described in paragraph (1);

15                     “(ii) the action is based upon a claim
16      that such work was taken in connection
17      with the acts of a covered government dur-
18      ing the covered period;

19                     “(iii) the court determines that the 20      activity associated with the exhibition or 21      display is commercial activity, as that term 22      is defined in section 1603(d); and

23                     “(iv) a determination under clause
24      (iii) is necessary for the court to exercise

1 jurisdiction over the foreign state under 2 subsection (a)(3).

3 “(B) OTHER CULTURALLY SIGNIFICANT
4 WORKS.—In addition to cases exempted under 5 subparagraph (A), paragraph (1) shall not 6 apply in any case asserting jurisdiction under 7 subsection (a)(3) in which rights in property
8 taken in violation of international law are in 9 issue within the meaning of that subsection 10 and—

11 “(i) the property at issue is the work
12 described in paragraph (1);

13 “(ii) the action is based upon a claim
14 that such work was taken in connection
15 with the acts of a foreign government
16 against members of a targeted group as 17 part of a systematic confiscation or mis-
18 appropriation of works in a manner similar 19 to the actions of a covered government in 20 subparagraph (A);

21 “(iii) the taking occurred after 1900;

22 “(iv) the court determines that the ac-
23 tivity associated with the exhibition or dis-
24 play is commercial activity, as that term is 25 defined in section 1603(d); and

1                     “(v) a determination under clause (iv)
2                     is necessary for the court to exercise juris-
3                     diction over the foreign state under sub-
4                     section (a)(3).

5                     “(3) DEFINITIONS.—For purposes of this sub-
6                     section—

7                     “(A) the term ‘work’ means a work of art
8                     or other object of cultural significance;

9                     “(B) the term ‘covered government’
10                   means—

11                   “(i) the Government of Germany dur-
12                   ing the covered period;

13                   “(ii) any government in any area in 14                   Europe that was occupied by the military
15                   forces of the Government of Germany dur-
16                   ing the covered period;

17                   “(iii) any government in Europe that 18                   was established with the assistance or co-
19                   operation of the Government of Germany
20                   during the covered period; and

21                   “(iv) any government in Europe that 22                   was an ally of the Government of Germany
23                   during the covered period; and

1               “(C) the term ‘covered period’ means the 2               period beginning on January 30, 1933, and 3               ending on May 8, 1945.”.

4               (b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendment made by 5   this section shall apply to any civil action commenced on 6   or after the date of the enactment of this Act.
