

114TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 667

To ensure that organizations with religious or moral convictions are allowed to continue to provide services for children.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

MARCH 4, 2015

Mr. ENZI (for himself, Mr. INHOFE, Mr. LEE, and Mr. RUBIO) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Finance

A BILL

To ensure that organizations with religious or moral convictions are allowed to continue to provide services for children.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Child Welfare Provider 5 Inclusion Act of 2015”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSES.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

8 (1) Child welfare service providers, both individ-9 uals and organizations, have the inherent, funda-

1 mental, and inalienable right to free exercise of reli-
2 gion protected by the United States Constitution.

3 (2) The right to free exercise of religion for 4 child welfare service providers includes the freedom 5 to refrain from conduct that conflicts with their sin-6 cerely held religious beliefs.

7 (3) Most States provide government-funded
8 child welfare services through various charitable, re-9 ligious, and private organizations.

10 (4) Religious organizations, in particular, have 11 a lengthy and distinguished history of providing 12 child welfare services that predates government in-13 volvement.

14 (5) Religious organizations have long been and 15 should continue contracting with and receiving 16 grants from governmental entities to provide child
17 welfare services.

18 (6) Religious organizations cannot provide cer-19 tain child welfare services, such as foster-care or 20 adoption placements, without receiving a government 21 contract, grant or license.

22 (7) Religious organizations display particular 23 excellence when providing child welfare services.

1 (8) Children and families benefit greatly from 2 the child welfare services provided by religious orga-3 nizations.

4 (9) Governmental entities and officials admin-5 istering federally funded child welfare services in 6 some States, including Massachusetts, California, Il-7 linois, and the District of Columbia, have refused to 8 contract with religious organizations that are unable, 9 due to sincerely held religious beliefs or moral con-
10 victions, to provide a child welfare service that con-11 flicts, or under circumstances that conflict, with 12 those beliefs or convictions; and that refusal has 13 forced many religious organizations to end their long 14 and distinguished history of excellence in the provi-
15 sion of child welfare services.

16 (10) Ensuring that religious organizations can 17 continue to provide child welfare services will benefit 18 the children and families that receive those federally 19 funded services.

20 (11) States also provide government-funded
21 child welfare services through individual child wel-22 fare service providers with varying religious and 23 moral convictions.

24 (12) Many individual child welfare service pro-25 viders maintain sincerely held religious beliefs or

1 moral convictions that relate to their work and 2 should not be forced to choose between their liveli-3 hood and adherence to those beliefs or convictions.

4 (13) Because governmental entities provide 5 child welfare services through many charitable, reli-6 gious, and private organizations, each with varying 7 religious beliefs or moral convictions, and through 8 diverse individuals with varying religious beliefs or 9 moral convictions, the religiously impelled inability 10 of some religious organizations or individuals to pro-
11 vide certain services will not have a material effect 12 on a person's ability to access federally funded child 13 welfare services.

14 (14) The activities of funding and admin-
15 istering these child welfare services substantially af-16 fect interstate commerce.

17 (15) Taking adverse actions against child wel-18 fare service providers that are unable, due to their 19 sincerely held religious beliefs or moral convictions, 20 to provide certain services (or provide services under 21 certain circumstances) substantially affects inter-22 state commerce.

23 (16) The provisions of this Act are remedial 24 measures that are congruent and proportional to 25 protecting the constitutional rights of child welfare

1 service providers guaranteed under the Fourteenth 2 Amendment to the United States Constitution.

3 (17) Congress has the authority to pass this 4 Act pursuant to its spending clause power, com-5 merce clause power, and enforcement power under 6 section 5 of the Fourteenth Amendment to the 7 United States Constitution.

8 (b) PURPOSES.—The purposes of this Act are as fol-9 lows:

10 (1) To prohibit governmental entities from dis-11 criminating or taking an adverse action against a 12 child welfare service provider on the basis that the 13 provider declines to provide a child welfare service 14 that conflicts, or under circumstances that conflict, 15 with the sincerely held religious beliefs or moral con-16 victions of the provider.

17 (2) To protect child welfare service providers' 18 exercise of religion and to ensure that governmental 19 entities will not be able to force those providers, ei-20 ther directly or indirectly, to discontinue all or some 21 of their child welfare services because they decline to 22 provide a child welfare service that conflicts, or 23 under circumstances that conflict, with their sin-24 cerely held religious beliefs or moral convictions.

1 (3) To provide relief to child welfare service
2 providers whose rights have been violated.

3 SEC. 3. DISCRIMINATION AND ADVERSE ACTIONS PROHIB-
4 ITED.

5 (a) The Federal Government, and any State that re-6 ceives federal funding for any program that provides child 7 welfare services under part B or part E of title IV of the 8 Social Security Act (and any subdivision, office or depart-9 ment of such State) shall not discriminate or take an ad-10 verse action against a child welfare service provider on the 11 basis that the provider has declined or will decline to pro-12 vide, facilitate, or refer for a child welfare service that con-13 flicts with, or under circumstances that conflict with, the 14 provider's sincerely held religious beliefs or moral convic-15 tions.

16 (b) Subsection (a) does not apply to conduct forbid-17 den by paragraph (18) of section 471(a) of such Act.

18 SEC. 4. FUNDS WITHHELD FOR VIOLATION.

19 The Secretary of Health and Human Services shall 20 withhold from a State 15 percent of the federal funds the 21 State receives for a program that provides child welfare 22 services under part B or part E of title IV of the Social 23 Security Act if the State violates section 3 when admin-24 istering or disbursing funds under such program.

1 SEC. 5. PRIVATE RIGHT OF ACTION.

2 (a) A child welfare service provider aggrieved by a 3 violation of section 3 may assert that violation as a claim 4 or defense in a judicial proceeding and obtain all appro-
5 priate relief, including declaratory relief, injunctive relief, 6 and compensatory damages, with respect to that violation.

7 (b) A child welfare service provider that prevails in 8 an action by establishing a violation of section 3 is entitled 9 to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

10 (c) By accepting or expending federal funds in con-
11 nection with a program that provides child welfare services
12 under part B or part E of title IV of the Social Security 13 Act, a State waives its sovereign immunity for any claim 14 or defense that is raised under this section.

15 SEC. 6. SEVERABILITY.

16 If any provision of this Act, or any application of such 17 provision to any person or circumstance, is held to be un-18 constitutional, the remainder of this Act and the applica-19 tion of the provision to any other person or circumstance 20 shall not be affected.

21 SEC. 7. EFFECTIVE DATE.

22 (a) The amendments made by this Act shall take ef-23 fect on the 1st day of the 1st fiscal year beginning on 24 or after the date of the enactment of this Act, and the 25 withholding of funds authorized by section 4 shall apply

1 to payments under parts B and E of such Act for calendar 2 quarters beginning on or after such date.

3 (b) If legislation (other than legislation appropriating 4 funds) is required for a governmental entity to bring itself
5 into compliance with this Act, the governmental entity
6 shall not be regarded as violating this Act before the 1st 7 day of the 1st calendar quarter beginning after the first 8 regular session of the legislative body that begins after the 9 date of the enactment of this Act. For purposes of the 10 preceding sentence, if the governmental entity has a 2-11 year legislative session, each year of the session is deemed 12 to be a separate regular session.
