REMEMBERING JOHN JAMES WILDING

• Mr. CASEY. Mr. President, I wish to honor Patrolman John James Wilding, who passed away after being injured in the line of duty on July 12, 2015. The loss of Patrolman Wilding is a tragedy for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, but the legacy of his bravery and selfless service to the people of Scranton will live on.

Born in Scranton, Patrolman Wilding dedicated his career to protecting and serving others. Prior to joining the Scranton Police Department in 2014, he worked at St. Joseph's Center, Dunbar Armored and Lackawanna College, where he built personal connections throughout the community that greatly influenced his service on the police force. He was well-known for his compassionate demeanor, respectful leadership, and love of his community. He loved his family fiercely, taking every opportunity to spend time with his wife Kristen, and children Loa Mae and Sidney.

Though Patrolman Wilding's life and career in public safety were cut short, we are all grateful for his dedicated service to Pennsylvania. He set a wonderful example of community activism for his children and he will be remembered for his bravery and humility. My thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends during this difficult time.●

STENNIS CENTER PROGRAM FOR CONGRESSIONAL INTERNS

• Mr. COCHRAN. Mr. President, this summer marks the 13th year during which Congressional office interns have benefited from a program operated by the John C. Stennis Center for Public Service Leadership. This 6-week program is designed to enhance the internship experience for exceptional college students by giving them an inside look at how Congress works and a deeper appreciation and understanding for the role that Congress plays in our democracy. Each week, the interns meet with senior congressional staff and other experts to discuss issues including the legislative process, the constitutional power of the purse, our government's separation of powers, the media, and other topics.

Interns are selected based on their college records, community service experience, and interest in a career in public service. This year, 30 outstanding interns participated in the program. Most of them are juniors and seniors in college who are working in Republican and Democratic offices in both the House and Senate, including one intern in my office, John Bartley Boykin of Meridian, MS.

I congratulate the interns for their completion of this special program. I also thank the Stennis Center and the Senior Stennis Fellows for providing a meaningful experience for these young leaders and for encouraging them to consider a future in public service.
