MOMENT OF SILENCE IN RECOGNITION OF THE AFTERMATH OF TERRIBLE ACTS OF VIOLENCE IN COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO

(Mr. LAMBORN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. LAMBORN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with sadness in the aftermath of a terrible act of violence that took the lives of three innocent victims and injured nine others in my hometown of Colorado Springs, Colorado, last Friday.

Among those lives that were tragically lost was Iraq war veteran and father of two, Ke'Arre Stewart; wife and mother of two, Jennifer Markovsky; and University of Colorado-Colorado Springs police officer, husband, father of two and the pastor at Hope Chapel, Garrett Swasey, who bravely rushed to the scene to help save others. Officer Swasey immediately left his own jurisdiction and rushed to the scene when he got word that an officer was down. These three innocent individuals and their families, friends, and loved ones were the victims of senseless violence.

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to the brave first responders and law enforcement officers who responded on that day. Their heroism prevented a bad situation from being so much worse.

I would also like to thank everyone for their outpouring of support and prayers for Colorado Springs. We are a resilient and supportive community that will come together and will pull through this tragedy.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to stand with me and my colleagues from the Colorado delegation and with the community of Colorado Springs for a moment of silence and to reflect upon the lives that were lost and to pray for their families and loved ones.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The House will observe a moment of silence.
