STOP DANGEROUS SANCTUARY CITIES ACT—MOTION TO PROCEED

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I move to proceed to Calendar No. 531, S. 3100.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the motion.

The senior assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

Motion to proceed to Calendar No. 531, S. 3100, a bill to ensure that State and local law enforcement may cooperate with Federal officials to protect our communities from violent criminals and suspected terrorists who are illegally present in the United States.

CLOTURE MOTION

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I send a cloture motion to the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The cloture motion having been presented under rule XXII, the Chair directs the clerk to read the motion.

The senior assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

CLOTURE MOTION

We, the undersigned Senators, in accordance with the provisions of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate, do hereby move to bring to a close debate on the motion to proceed to Calendar No. 531, S. 3100, a bill to ensure that State and local law enforcement may cooperate with Federal officials to protect our communities from violent criminals and suspected terrorists who are illegally present in the United States.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will report the motion.

The senior assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

Motion to proceed to Calendar No. 276, S. 2193, a bill to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to increase penalties for individuals who illegally reenter the United States after being removed and for other purposes.

CLOTURE MOTION

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I send a cloture motion to the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The cloture motion having been presented under rule XXII, the Chair directs the clerk to read the motion.

The senior assistant legislative clerk read as follows:

CLOTURE MOTION

We, the undersigned Senators, in accordance with the provisions of rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate, do hereby move to bring to a close debate on the motion to proceed to Calendar No. 276, S. 2193, a bill to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to increase penalties for individuals who illegally reenter the United States after being removed and for other purposes.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion to proceed.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The motion is withdrawn.

NATIONAL SEA GRANT COLLEGE PROGRAM AMENDMENTS ACT OF 2015

Mr. MCCONNELL. I ask the Chair to lay before the body the message to accompany S. 764.

Mr. SANDERS addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Vermont.

Mr. SANDERS. Reserving the right to object, I have a parliamentary inquiry.

Is one of the acts in this overall bill entitled the Defund Planned Parenthood Act of 2015?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader.

Mr. MCCONNELL. I know that was a parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. SANDERS. Excuse me, I would like an answer to my question, please. Regular order. I asked the question.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Defund Planned Parenthood Act is part of the House message to the Senate.

Mr. SANDERS. In other words, sir, the Defund Planned Parenthood Act of 2015 is part of the legislation we are voting on; is that correct? Yes? No? Maybe?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Would the Senator please restate his inquiry?

Mr. SANDERS. Yes. Is it possible that, as part of the legislation that the Senator from Kentucky has introduced, that there is a title in there called the Defund Planned Parenthood Act of 2015?

Is that title in the legislation we are voting on?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The language in question is part of the House amendment.

Mr. SANDERS. Thank you very much.

I ask that that language be withdrawn right now.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, would the Senator yield? I think I can clear up his concern.

Mr. SANDERS. No, I really won't yield. My request is that that language be withdrawn now with unanimous consent.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader has the floor.

Mr. SANDERS. I believe I have the floor.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, if I may, I think we have explained this to everybody over and over again. Let me try again.

The Roberts amendment that I will offer is a complete—a complete—substitute for the underlying language that concerns some of our colleagues on the other side.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, a parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator will state his inquiry.

Mr. LEAHY. Parliamentary inquiry: Notwithstanding what the majority leader has said, the legislation he brought up would defund Planned Parenthood; is that correct, if it was accepted?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That is not a judgement for the Parliamentarian.

Mr. LEAHY. Parliamentary inquiry: Would that be a position for the United States Senate if we were allowed to vote on it?

Ms. STABENOW. Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

Mr. LEAHY. Could I get an answer to my parliamentary inquiry?

Ms. STABENOW. Excuse me. I am sorry.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Mr. President, Parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader.

Mr. MCCONNELL. If I were to offer the Roberts amendment that will be a complete substitute for the underlying language, would it not alleviate the concern that our colleagues on the other side have?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question before the Senate would be the amendment offered by the majority leader.

Mr. LEAHY. Further Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The House can respond in whatever manner it chooses.

Mrs. BOXER. What does that mean?

Mr. LEAHY. Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President: If the majority leader were to withdraw the House bill to defund Planned Parenthood and replace it with the Roberts GMO bill, would the acceptance of that be a debatable motion before the Senate? Not asking how we should vote, but would that be a debatable motion?

Mr. MCCONNELL addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader.

Mr. MCCONNELL. Who has the floor? The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader has the floor.

Mr. MCCONNELL. All right. It is my understanding that I don't have the authority to withdraw a House amendment. What I am doing here, if our friends and colleagues on the other side will let me, is to offer a complete substitute for that, which is the Roberts amendment, which I think everybody understands the content of.

Mr. SCHUMER addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Roberts amendment would be the question before the Senate. The House would have to respond to the Senate substitute.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, further Parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Vermont.

Mr. LEAHY. If the majority leader were to withdraw the Planned Parenthood amendment and put in the Roberts amendment, which has not been previously debated, would a vote on acceptance of that be a debatable issue?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The majority leader may not withdraw House language. He can only propose an amendment to the substitute or concur in that amendment. Those are debatable questions.

Mr. LEAHY. Mr. President, further parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. President, if my friend the majority leader were to be able to do what he has proposed, would the resolution of that matter, then, be a matter of debate before the body under the normal Senate of rules?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Yes, the motion to concur is debatable.

Mr. LEAHY. I thank the Presiding Officer.

Mrs. BOXER. Parliamentary inquiry. Mr. President, Parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from California.

Mrs. BOXER. I just want to understand where we are, because there is a lot of angst and discomfort, and I want to say to Senator HIRONO, who happened to read what we are voting on, which I really appreciate, and called it to our attention—is it the Presiding Officer's view, in answer to Senator LEAHY and Senator SANDERS, that the Senate has no ability to strike the title called the Defund Planned Parenthood Act of 2015 at this time; that we do not have the ability to do this? Could we not do it by unanimous consent or would that not be allowed as well?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senate does not strike language; it proposes amendments.

Mrs. BOXER. So if I were to make a unanimous consent request—further parliamentary—
