

Chief Dyer has been committed to community policing since becoming the Chief of Police on August 1, 2001. He has made it a priority of the Department to build strong relationships with the community, and instill trust between the officers and the people they serve. These efforts have even been recognized nationally for their effectiveness. Under Chief Dyer, the Department's block parties, forums and numerous community events have helped build trust between the residents and the officers.

Under his leadership, the Fresno Police Department has been in the forefront of implementing the reforms proposed by President Barack Obama's Task Force on 21st Century Policing. By employing new technologies, Chief Dyer has made the Fresno Police Department more effective than ever before.

During his time as the Chief of Police, Dyer and the Department have been acknowledged on many occasions for their achievements. In 2005, Chief Dyer was awarded the Excellence in Public Service Award, which is sponsored by The Fresno Bee, The Fresno Business Council, and the Maddy Institute at California State University, Fresno. That same year, the Department would become nationally accredited through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies; something only fourteen other agencies in the state have achieved. The Department was also granted the prestigious California Highway Patrol Commissioner's Award for its traffic safety efforts.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in recognizing Chief Jerry Dyer in celebration of this great achievement. It has been a pleasure to work with Chief Dyer in serving the community we both love. We are lucky to have someone who has put in a great effort to make the Fresno Police Department one of the state's top law enforcement agencies. I ask that you join me in wishing Chief Dyer continued success.

HONORING THE LIFE OF PETER CHOU VANG

HON. JIM COSTA

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 7, 2016

Mr. COSTA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the life of Lieutenant Colonel Peter Chou Vang who passed away May 4, 2016. He was 82. Vang Chou was a respected leader in the Hmong American community, whose contributions spanned decades.

Vang Chou was born on April 5, 1938 in the Phac Lac village of Laos to Xia Chong Vang and Xay Lo. Vang Chou completed primary education and went on to receive his Certificat d'Etudes Primaires Complementaires (French High School Diploma). From an early age he was known as a benevolent man, providing for many members of his extended family. Vang Chou made the decision not to pursue his education further, due to his family's financial hardship and in order to help his mother provide for his seven half siblings. At the age of 20 he became a national police officer in Laos.

1961 was an eventful year for Vang Chou. He began his service as a first Air Guide officer for the CIA and married his wife May Yang. Vang Chou's intricate knowledge of the terrain led to his service as a guide for aerial missions during the Vietnam War. His flying career included 116 aerial missions. In 1968, he was wounded in battle, leaving him partially paralyzed in his right arm. Vang Chou then became the commander of the joint operation center at Long Tien Air Base. He quickly earned the respect of his Hmong, Thai and American counterparts.

Following the end of the war, Vang Chou and his family arrived in the United States as refugees in 1976. The family relocated to Santa Ana, California before eventually settling in Merced County. He initially found work as a machinist, before joining the program to assist newly arrived refugees with resettlement. He was one of the founding members of Merced Lao Family Community, Inc.—an organization that was founded to serve the Southeast Asian immigrant community. He was instrumental in founding similar organizations in California and the Western United States. According to historian Noah Vang, he was a significant member of the community and played a role in building the strong and thriving Hmong community we know today.

Vang Chou is survived by his wife, May Yang Vang; their children, Maly, Wayne, Maykou, Bee and Mayko; twelve grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Mr. Speaker, I urge my colleagues to join me on this day in a moment of silence in memory of the life and service of Lieutenant Colonel Peter Chou Vang. He will be remembered as a hardworking man, who went above and beyond in the service of his community. His leadership and dedication to the Hmong community will be missed.

IN HONOR OF LOUDOUN COUNTY DISTRICT JUDGE TOM HORNE

HON. BARBARA COMSTOCK

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, September 7, 2016

Mrs. COMSTOCK. Mr. Speaker, I am honored to recognize the tremendous work of my constituent Tom Horne, a 2016 honoree at the Loudoun Laurels Gala. Judge Horne exemplifies the very best of the traditions of public service, stewardship, and personal contributions to the life and history of Loudoun County. His dedication to a high standard of conduct allowed him to remain honest and loyal while making a positive impact in the legal community.

Mr. Horne graduated from Muhlenberg College in Allentown, Pennsylvania in 1965, and went on to attend the Marshall-Wythe School of Law at the College of William and Mary. He served as a Commonwealth's Attorney for three years before taking the bench in 1982. Chief Judge Thomas D. Horne retired after over 21 years, having served longer than any other judge in the Loudoun County Circuit.

In addition to his long and distinguished legacy as a judge, Judge Horne was a driving force in education as well. He established the 20th Judicial Circuit's Law Camp, a landmark educational experience of young people considering a career in the law. The Law Camp gives students interested in the legal sphere an opportunity to interact with professionals in both a classroom lecture and moot court setting.

Judge Horne is a keen preservationist and has diligently protected and served Loudoun County's historic courthouse building in Leesburg. He is also a member of the Board of the Friends of the Thomas Balch Library.

Mr. Speaker, I now ask that my colleagues join me in thanking Judge Thomas Horne for the outstanding services he provided to the United States throughout his long-lasting career. I wish him all the best in his future endeavors.
