COMMITTEE STATEMENT AND VIEWS

PURPOSE AND SUMMARY

H.R. 4358, the Senior Executive Service Accountability Act, enhances accountability within the Senior Executive Service.

BACKGROUND AND NEED FOR LEGISLATION

In response to several hearings held during the 114th Congress by the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform on the performance and misconduct of members of the Senior Executive Service (SES), H.R. 4358 would help ensure SES employees are held accountable for their work on behalf of the American people.

H.R. 4358 extends the probationary period for individuals appointed to the Senior Executive Service from one to two years. This provides agencies with the additional time required to ensure that SES employees are meeting the requirements of their positions and the standards expected of federal leaders.

The bill eliminates the provision under current law that allows SES employees to be removed for poor performance and assigned to another position to retain their executive salary. As a result, SES employees downgraded based upon performance will be paid the salary of the position to which they are assigned. The bill also requires that senior executives receive performance requirements in writing no less than 30 days before the start of an appraisal period.

H.R. 4358 makes SES employees subject to suspensions of two weeks or less and holds such employees accountable for conduct contrary to the efficiency of federal service, in the same manner as other civil service workers. The bill also reduces the requirement for agencies to give executives advance written notice of a termination or a suspension of more than 14 days from a minimum of 30 days to a minimum of 15 days. These changes provide additional tools for agencies to use when addressing issues of executive performance and conduct related matters.

The bill also provides agency heads with the authority to place SES employees facing removal for misconduct on mandatory annual leave and the authority to seek removal or transfer of SES employees based on poor performance or misconduct with an abbreviated process for an expedited appeal. Finally, H.R. 4358 requires mandatory reassignments of SES employees at least once every five years, to help ensure federal leaders have broad levels of experience needed to manage the federal government. The mobility of federal leaders was an important aspect in the establishment of the Senior Executive Service.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

H.R. 4358, the Senior Executive Service Accountability Act, was introduced on January 8, 2016 by Congressman Tim Walberg (R-MI) and referred to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform. On January 12, 2016, the Committee ordered H.R. 4358 favorably reported by a vote of 21 to 16, without amendment.

In the 113th Congress, a substantially similar version of this legislation, H.R. 5169, was introduced by Congressman Walberg and passed the House of Representatives by voice vote on September 16, 2014.

SECTION-BY-SECTION

Section 1. Short title

Designates the short title of the bill as the “Senior Executive Service Accountability Act”.

Section 2. Biennial justification of senior executive service positions

Requires agencies to provide written justification to the Office of Personnel Management for each requested SES position, including existing positions.

Section 3. Extension of probationary period for career appointees

Extends the probationary period for individuals appointed to the SES from one to two years.

Section 4. Modification of pay retention for career appointees removed for under performance

Eliminates the provision in current law which allows an individual removed from the SES for performance to retain his or her SES pay if appointed to a civil service position.

Section 5. Advanced establishment of performance requirements under senior executive service performance appraisal systems

Requires that SES employees must receive performance requirements in writing no less than 30 days before the start of an appraisal period.

Section 6. Amendments with respect to adverse actions against career appointees

Makes SES employees subject to suspensions (without pay) of less than two weeks in the same manner as other civil service workers. Gives agencies authority to remove SES employees for “such cause as would promote the efficiency of the service”—the standard that currently applies to other civil services workers.

Reduces the requirement for agencies to give senior executives advance written notice of termination or suspension of more than 14 days from a minimum of 30 days to 15 days.

Section 7. Mandatory leave for career appointees subject to removal

Gives agency heads authority to place SES employees facing removal for misconduct on mandatory annual leave, and prohibits the accumulation of additional annual leave during this period. Annual leave would be restored to the SES employee if the agency, Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB), or court found in the employee’s favor during the appeals process.

Section 8. Expedited removal of career appointees for performance or misconduct

Provides authority for heads of agencies to seek removal or transfer of senior executives based on poor performance or misconduct, with an abbreviated process for an expedited appeal. Requires agency heads to notify Congress within 30 days after removing or transferring an employee and the reason for the removal or transfer. An employee may appeal a termination or transfer notice to the Merit Systems Protection Board within 7 days of receiving notice. Upon receipt of an appeal, an administrative judge has 21 days to issue a decision. If an administrative judge cannot issue a decision, the decision to terminate or transfer will be final, and the MSPB must submit a report to Congress explaining why a decision was not issued. An employee may not receive pay during the appeals process.

Section 9. Mandatory reassignment of career appointees

Requires that at least once every five years, an SES employee will be reassigned to another SES position. Gives the head of each agency the authority to waive the requirement, provided the agency head submits a waiver to the relevant House and Senate committees explaining the reason for the waiver.

EXPLANATION OF AMENDMENTS

Delegate Eleanor Holmes Norton offered an amendment to strike sections 3, 6(b), 7, 8 and 9 of the bill. The amendment was not adopted by voice vote.

APPLICATION OF LAW TO THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH

Section 102(b)(3) of Public Law 104–1 requires a description of the application of this bill to the legislative branch where the bill relates to the terms and conditions of employment or access to public services and accommodations. This bill amends title 5, United States Code, to enhance accountability within the Senior Executive Service. As such this bill does not relate to employment or access to public services and accommodations.

STATEMENT OF OVERSIGHT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMITTEE

In compliance with clause 3(c)(1) of rule XIII and clause (2)(b)(1) of rule X of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee's oversight findings and recommendations are reflected in the descriptive portions of this report.

STATEMENT OF GENERAL PERFORMANCE GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

In accordance with clause 3(c)(4) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives, the Committee's performance goal or objective of the bill is to amend title 5, United States Code, to enhance accountability within the Senior Executive Service.

DUPLICATION OF FEDERAL PROGRAMS

No provision of this bill establishes or reauthorizes a program of the federal government known to be duplicative of another federal program, a program that was included in any report from the Government Accountability Office to Congress pursuant to section 21 of Public Law 111–139, or a program related to a program identified in the most recent Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance.

DISCLOSURE OF DIRECTED RULE MAKINGS

The Committee estimates that enacting this bill does not direct the completion of any specific rule makings within the meaning of 5 U.S.C. 551.

FEDERAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE ACT

The Committee finds that the legislation does not establish or authorize the establishment of an advisory committee within the definition of 5 U.S.C. App., Section 5(b).

UNFUNDED MANDATE STATEMENT

Section 423 of the Congressional Budget and Impoundment Control Act (as amended by Section 101(a)(2) of the Unfunded Mandate Reform Act, P.L. 104–4) requires a statement as to whether the provisions of the reported include unfunded mandates. In compliance with this requirement, the Committee has received a letter from the Congressional Budget Office included herein.

EARMARK IDENTIFICATION

This bill does not include any congressional earmarks, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in clause 9 of rule XXI.

COMMITTEE ESTIMATE

Clause 3(d)(1) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives requires an estimate and a comparison by the Committee of the costs that would be incurred in carrying out this bill. However, clause 3(d)(2)(B) of that rule provides that this requirement does not apply when the Committee has included in its report a timely submitted cost estimate of the bill prepared by the Director of the Congressional Budget Office under section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974.

BUDGET AUTHORITY AND CONGRESSIONAL BUDGET OFFICE COST ESTIMATE

With respect to the requirements of clause 3(c)(2) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 308(a) of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974 and with respect to requirements of clause 3(c)(3) of rule XIII of the Rules of the House of Representatives and section 402 of the Congressional Budget Act of 1974, the Committee has received the following cost estimate for this bill from the Director of Congressional Budget Office:

H.R. 4358—Senior Executive Service Accountability Act

H.R. 4358 would modify several personnel procedures that apply to the Senior Executive Service (SES). Provisions of the legislation would make it easier for agencies to discipline and fire members of the SES, disallow SES members who are moved to the civil service from retaining their SES pay, and require members of the SES to transfer to a new agency at least once every five years.

CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 4358 would have no significant budgetary effect because it would not change the number of SES members, the amounts they are paid, or the resources agencies require. The provision disallowing pay retention would have affected only six federal employees from 2009 to 2014, according to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM). On that basis, CBO estimates the total savings from implementing that requirement would be insignificant. Implementing the provision requiring regular transfers would have no significant relocation costs because such transfers would have to be within commuting distance of the SES member's home. Finally, based on information from OPM, CBO estimates that the additional agency overhead for those transfers also would not be significant.

Because enacting the bill would not affect direct spending or revenues, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply. CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 4358 would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2027.

H.R. 4358 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Dan Ready. The estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

§ 3133. Authorization of positions; authority for appointment

(a) During each even-numbered calendar year, each agency shall—

(1) examine its needs for Senior Executive Service positions for each of the 2 fiscal years beginning after such calendar year; and

(2) submit to the Office of Personnel Management a written request for a specific number of Senior Executive Service positions, with a justification for each position (by title and organizational location) and the specific result expected from each position, including the impact of such result on the agency mission, for each of such fiscal years.

(b) Each agency request submitted under subsection (a) of this section shall—

(1) be based on the anticipated type and extent of program activities and budget requests of the agency for each of the 2 fiscal years involved, and such other factors as may be prescribed from time to time by the Office; and

(c) The Office of Personnel Management, in consultation with the Office of Management and Budget, shall review the request of each agency and shall authorize, for each of the 2 fiscal years covered by requests required under subsection (a) of this section, a specific number of Senior Executive Service positions for each agency.

(d)(1) The Office of Personnel Management may, on a written request of an agency or on its own initiative, make an adjustment in the number of positions authorized for any agency. Each agency request under this paragraph shall be submitted in such form, and shall be based on such factors, as the Office shall prescribe.

(A) involve policymaking responsibilities which require the advocacy or management of programs of the President and support of controversial aspects of such programs;

(B) involve significant participation in the major political policies of the President; or

(C) require the senior executives in the positions to serve as personal assistants of, or advisers to, Presidential appointees. The Director shall provide a full explanation for his determination in each case.

- (A) consideration of demonstrated executive experience;
- (B) consideration of successful participation in a career executive development program which is approved by the Office; and
- (C) sufficient flexibility to allow for the appointment of individuals who have special or unique qualities which indicate a likelihood of executive success and who would not otherwise be eligible for appointment.

§ 3395. Reassignment and transfer within the Senior Executive Service

(a)(1) A career appointee in an agency—

(B) may transfer to a Senior Executive Service position in another agency for which the appointee is qualified, with the approval of the agency to which the appointee transfers.

(2)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, a career appointee may be reassigned to any Senior Executive Service position only if the career appointee receives written notice of the reassignment at least 15 days before the effective date of such reassignment.

(B)(i) A career appointee may not be reassigned to a Senior Executive Service position outside the career appointee's commuting area unless—

(II) the career appointee receives written notice of the reassignment, including a statement of the reasons for the reassignment, at least 60 days before the effective date of the reassignment.

(B) The head of an agency may waive the requirement under subparagraph (A) for any career appointee if the head submits notice of the waiver and an explanation of the reasons for the waiver to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform of the House of Representatives and the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate.

(b)(1) Notwithstanding section 3394(b) of this title, a limited emergency appointee may be reassigned to another Senior Executive Service position in the same agency established to meet a bona fide, unanticipated, urgent need, except that the appointee may not serve in one or more positions in such agency under such appointment in excess of 18 months.

(2) Notwithstanding section 3394(b) of this title, a limited term appointee may be reassigned to another Senior Executive Service position in the same agency the duties of which will expire at the end of a term of 3 years or less, except that the appointee may not

(d) A noncareer appointee in an agency—

(1) may be reassigned to any general position in the agency for which the appointee is qualified; and

(2) may transfer to a general position in another agency with the approval of the agency to which the appointee transfers.

(e)(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, a career appointee in an agency may not be involuntarily reassigned—

(A) within 120 days after an appointment of the head of the agency; or

(B) within 120 days after the appointment in the agency of the career appointee's most immediate supervisor who—

(i) is a noncareer appointee; and

(ii) has the authority to make an initial appraisal of the career appointee's performance under subchapter II of chapter 43.

(2) Paragraph (1) of this subsection does not apply with respect to—

(A) any reassignment under section 4314(b)(3) of this title; or

(B) any disciplinary action initiated before an appointment referred to in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

(3) For the purpose of applying paragraph (1) to a career appointee, any days (not to exceed a total of 60) during which such career appointee is serving pursuant to a detail or other temporary assignment apart from such appointee's regular position shall not be counted in determining the number of days that have elapsed since an appointment referred to in subparagraph (A) or (B) of such paragraph.

MINORITY VIEWS

Committee Democrats oppose H.R. 4358, the Senior Executive Service Accountability Act, because it would undermine due process protections that were put in place in the 19th Century to ensure that the civil service is free of political influence. The legislation also could enable retaliation against whistleblowers.

The legislation would shorten the notice period before an agency could terminate or suspend a senior executive from 30 to 15 days. This shortened notice period may not be sufficient time for the employee to defend against the charge.

The bill also would allow an agency to charge a senior executive's accrued annual leave pending removal. This could be construed by courts as an unlawful "taking" of a property right that requires notice and an opportunity to respond. In addition, employees faced with the possibility of losing their accrued leave may be less willing to disclose violations of law or waste, fraud, and abuse.

The expedited removal process required in the legislation would not allow a senior executive an opportunity to respond prior to removal or transfer. Although the legislation would permit appeal rights after removal or transfer, the rights would be limited. The senior executive would have only 7 days from the personnel action to file an appeal. The senior executive would not be entitled to appeal the administrative judge's decision, and if the administrative judge could not issue a decision within 21 days, the removal or transfer would be deemed final. The constitutionality of the identical provisions of the Veterans Access, Choice, and Accountability Act is currently being challenged in the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals.

The legislation also would eliminate the authority of the Merit Systems Protection Board or an administrative judge to issue a stay, which is critical for protecting whistleblowers from retaliation. In addition, since the bill would allow an agency to transfer a senior executive to a position "at any grade" of the General Schedule, it would not prevent the transfer of a senior executive to a lower level General Schedule position for which he or she would be overqualified. This provision could also be used to retaliate against whistleblowers.

The legislation's arbitrary, across-the-board extension of the probationary period from one year to two years would extend the period during which an agency could remove or retaliate against an employee without adequate recourse. The Merit Systems Protection Board recently noted that the current one-year probationary period is not being fully and effectively utilized by agencies, so it is unclear why extending the probationary period to all agencies in this manner would be necessary.

The legislation's requirement that agencies reassign senior executives to different locations every five years is arbitrary and inflexible, and it would not allow agencies discretion to consider their needs or the developmental needs of their senior executives. This mandate is also unnecessary. The President recently issued an Executive Order to strengthen the Senior Executive Service which requires agencies to establish a two-year plan for increasing the mobility of their senior executives.

During Committee consideration of the bill, Representative Norton offered an amendment to strike the problematic provisions of the bill, but the amendment was not accepted.

We fully support the goal of improving the accountability of the Senior Executive Service, but such reforms must be meaningful, fair, and not instituted at the cost of due process and whistleblower protections.

For these reasons, Committee Democrats oppose H.R. 4358.
