115TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 151

To require any State which, after enacting a Congressional redistricting plan after a decennial census and apportionment of Representatives, enacts a subsequent Congressional redistricting plan prior to the next decennial census and apportionment of Representatives, to obtain a declaratory judgment or preclearance in the manner provided under section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 in order for the subsequent plan to take effect.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
JANUARY 3, 2017

Mr. Al Green of Texas introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To require any State which, after enacting a Congressional redistricting plan after a decennial census and apportionment of Representatives, enacts a subsequent Congressional redistricting plan prior to the next decennial census and apportionment of Representatives, to obtain a declaratory judgment or preclearance in the manner provided under section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 in order for the subsequent plan to take effect.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Redistricting and Voter Protection Act of 2017”.

SEC. 2. REQUIRING DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OR PRECLEARANCE AS PREREQUISITE FOR MULTIPLE CONGRESSIONAL REDISTRICTING PLANS ENACTED PURSUANT TO SAME DECENNIAL CENSUS AND APPORTIONMENT OF REPRESENTATIVES.

(a) DECLARATORY JUDGMENT THAT PLAN DOES NOT DENY OR ABRIDGE RIGHT TO VOTE ON ACCOUNT OF RACE OR COLOR.—Except as provided in subsection (b), after a State enacts a Congressional redistricting plan in the manner provided by law after an apportionment of Representatives under section 22(a) of the Act entitled “An Act to provide for the fifteenth and subsequent decennial censuses and to provide for an apportionment of Representatives in Congress”, approved June 18, 1929 (2 U.S.C. 2a), any subsequent Congressional redistricting plan enacted by the State prior to the next apportionment of Representatives under such section shall not take effect unless and until—

(1) the State commences a civil action in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia for a declaratory judgment that such subsequent plan neither has the purpose nor will have the effect of denying or abridging the right to vote on account of race or color, or in contravention of the guarantees set forth in section 4(f)(2) of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (52 U.S.C. 10303(f)(2)); and

(2) the court enters such a declaratory judgment.

(b) PRECLEARANCE.—A subsequent Congressional redistricting plan described in subsection (a) may take effect if—

(1) the chief legal officer or other appropriate official of the State involved submits the plan to the Attorney General and the Attorney General has not interposed an objection within 60 days of such submission; or

(2) upon good cause shown, to facilitate an expedited approval within 60 days of such submission, the Attorney General has affirmatively indicated that such objection will not be made.

(c) APPLICATION OF VOTING RIGHTS ACT OF 1965.—For purposes of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, a declaratory judgment under subsection (a) or a preclearance under subsection (b), and the proceedings related to such judgment or preclearance, shall be treated as a declaratory judgment or preclearance under section 5 of such Act (52 U.S.C. 10304).
SEC. 3. NO EFFECT ON REDISTRICTING PLANS ENACTED PURSUANT TO COURT ORDER.

Section 1 does not apply with respect to any subsequent Congressional redistricting plan described in section 1(a) if the plan is enacted by a State pursuant to a court order in order to comply with the Constitution or to enforce the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (52 U.S.C. 10301 et seq.).
