2           ceive a grant under this paragraph, a service in-
3           stitution—

4                   “(i) may be located in any State; and 5                   “(ii) shall—

6                           “(I) submit to the Secretary an 7                           application at such time, in such man-
8                           ner, and containing such information
9                           as the Secretary may require;

10                           “(II) meet criteria established by 11                           the Secretary; and 12                           “(III) agree to the terms and 13                           conditions of the grant, as established

14                           by the Secretary.

15           “(C) PRIORITY.—In awarding grants
16           under this paragraph, the Secretary shall give 17           priority to service institutions that—

18                   “(i) serve both breakfast and lunch;

19                           or

20                   “(ii) offer educational or enrichment
21                   programs.

22           “(D) TRAVEL REIMBURSEMENT.—A serv-
23           ice institution that receives a grant under sub-
