19 (1) CHAIRPERSON.—The Director of the Office
20 of Social Innovation and Civic Participation shall 21 serve as the Chairperson of the Commission.

22 (2) MEETINGS.—

23 (A) IN GENERAL.—The Commission shall 24 meet at the call of the Chairperson.

(B) INITIAL MEETING.—The initial meeting shall take place not later than 30 days after the date of enactment of this Act.

7 (4) RULES.—The Commission may establish, by 8 majority vote, any rules for the conduct of Commis-
9 sion business, in accordance with this Act and other 10 applicable law.

11 (e) DUTIES.—

20 (2) STUDY ACTIVITIES.—

1 addressing policy challenges at the national,
2 State, and local level. The Commission shall re-
3 ceive and consider reports and testimony from 4 individuals, government departments, State and 5 local elected officials, community-based organi-6 zations, nonprofit organizations, faith-based or-7 ganizations, foundations, and other public and 8 private organizations statewide and of national 9 significance on the following:

10 (i) How social enterprise can accel-
11 erate progress on social issues.

12 (ii) How social enterprises work in a 13 cross-sector manner.

14 (iii) How social enterprise can ad-
15 vance social and economic development
16 goals.

17 (B) AREAS OF STUDY AND RECOMMENDA-
18 TION.—The areas studied and potential rec-19 ommendations offered by the Commission under 20 this paragraph shall include the following:

21 (i) The role of social enterprises in the 22 United States economy.

23 (ii) The role of social enterprises in 24 addressing economic, social, and environ-

1 mental policy challenges across all levels of 2 government.

3 (iii) The role of social enterprises as 4 community support and development enti-
5 ties.

6 (iv) A statistical and qualitative exam-
7 ination of social enterprise within the 8 United States and its contribution to the 9 social and economic development of the 10 United States.

11 (v) Means through which the Federal 12 Government can assist in enhancing the 13 capacity of social enterprises.

14 (vi) Corporate legal structures that 15 foster or impede the development of social 16 enterprises.

17 (vii) How to reform the Internal Rev-
18 enue Code to reduce obstacles that social 19 enterprises face when addressing social 20 issues and creating economic value through 21 innovative methods.

22 (viii) How to reform Federal securi-
23 ties laws to encourage impact investing.

(ix) How the Federal Government can leverage existing Community Development Financial Institutions programs.

(x) How various sectors (including but not limited to philanthropic, for-profit, and nonprofit sectors) and levels of government currently interact with social enterprises.

(xi) Review of the current process through which social enterprises—both for-profit and nonprofit organizations—can obtain Federal loans, grants, and contracts and offer recommendations for improving these processes in light of the special needs and contributions of social enterprises.

(xii) Review of the current process, policies, and procedures through which social enterprises—both for-profit and non-profit organizations—can access Federal contracting opportunities and offer recommendations for improving the access of social enterprises to Federal procurement opportunities.

(xiii) How the Federal Government can play a role in developing a purchasing directory of social enterprises within the

1 United States that can be supported by 2 citizens, businesses, and government.

3 (xiv) Opportunities for the Federal 4 Government to develop and expand re-5 search and the collection and analysis of 6 longitudinal data on social enterprises.

7 (xv) Barriers to social enterprise
8 growth.

9 (xvi) Opportunities for the develop-
10 ment of an entity or initiative to support
11 intermediaries that will promote and invest
12 in social enterprise.

13 (xvii) Identification of the appropriate 14 entity within the Federal Government that 15 shall be charged with the responsibility of 16 preparing an annual report to Congress on 17 the impact of social enterprises in the 18 United States and the extent to which the 19 Federal Government interacts with, sup-
20 ports, and invests in social enterprises.
21 And, where appropriate, this entity shall 22 monitor and update the areas of study list-
23 ed in this subparagraph.

24 (f) POWERS OF THE COMMISSION.—

1 (1) The Commission may hold such hearings
2 and collect such information as appropriate for car-
3 rying out this section.

4 (2) Except as otherwise prohibited by law, the 5 Commission may secure directly from any Federal 6 department or agency information the Commission
7 considers necessary to carry out this section. Upon 8 the request of the Commission, the head of the any 9 Federal agency shall furnish information requested
10 under this paragraph to the Commission.

11 (3) The Commission may enter into contracts
12 for research to inform the deliberations of the Com-
13 mission.

14 (4) The Commission may use the United States
15 mails in the same manner and under the same con-
16 ditions as other agencies of the Federal Government.

17 (g) COMMISSION PERSONNEL MATTERS.—

18 (1) DETAIL OF FEDERAL EMPLOYEES.—On the 19 affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members of the Com-20 mission and the approval of the appropriate Federal 21 agency head, an employee of the Federal Govern-22 ment at GS-13 level or higher may be detailed to 23 the Commission without reimbursement, and such 24 detail shall be without interruption or loss of civil 25 service status, benefits, or privileges.

1 (2) STAFF.—

2 (A) IN GENERAL.—

3 (i) APPOINTMENT AND COMPENSA-
4 TION.—The chairperson, in accordance 5 with rules agreed upon by the Commission,
6 may appoint and fix the compensation of a 7 staff director and such other personnel as 8 may be necessary to enable the Commis-
9 sion to carry out its functions, without re-10 gard to the provisions of title 5, United 11 States Code, governing appointments in 12 the competitive service, and without regard
13 to the provisions of chapter 51 and sub-
14 chapter III of chapter 53 of such title re-
15 lating to classification and General Sched-
16 ule pay rates, except that no rate of pay 17 fixed under this subsection may exceed the 18 equivalent of that payable for a position at 19 Level V of the Executive Schedule under 20 section 5316 of title 5, United States
21 Code.

22 (ii) PERSONNEL AS FEDERAL EM-
23 PLOYEES.—

24 (I) IN GENERAL.—Any personnel
25 of the Commission who are employees

1 shall be employees under section 2105
2 of title 5, United States Code, for 3 purposes of chapters 63, 81, 83, 84,
4 85, 87, 89, and 90 of that title.

5 (II) MEMBERS OF THE COMMISSION.—Subparagraph (I) shall not be 6 construed to apply to members of the 7 Commission.

9 (B) VOLUNTEER SERVICES.—Notwithstanding section 1342 of title 31, United States
10 Code, the Commission may accept and use voluntary and uncompensated services as the Commission determines necessary.

14 (h) CONTRACTS FOR RESEARCH.—

15 (1) RESEARCHERS AND EXPERTS.—On an affirmative vote of $\frac{2}{3}$ of the members of the Commission, the Commission may select nongovernmental researchers and experts to assist the Commission in carrying out the duties of the Commission under this section.

21 (2) OTHER ORGANIZATIONS.—Nothing in this subsection limits the ability of the Commission to enter into contracts with any other entity or organization to carry out research necessary to carry out the duties of the Commission under this section.

1 (i) REPORT.—Not later than 1 year after the Com-
2 mission establishes criteria by which to identify social en-3 terprise, the Commission shall submit to the President and 4 Congress a report on the Commission's findings, conclu-5 sions, and recommendations. The report shall identify the 6 Federal programs recommended and shall include—

7 (1) reports on all matters studied as described 8 in subsection (e); and

9 (2) how existing Federal Government programs
10 can be expanded to take advantage of the social and 11 economic benefits of social enterprises.

12 (j) TERMINATION.—The Commission shall terminate
13 90 days after the date on which the Commission submits 14 the report of the Commission under subsection (i).
