A BILL

To establish the registration of violent gun offenders, provide for sufficient notification of their whereabouts, to honor the memory of Gladys Ricart and other gun crime victims, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Gladys Ricart Gun
5 Offender Registry Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS; PURPOSE.

7 Congress makes the following findings:

1 (1) Abused women are 5 times more likely to be
2 killed if their abuser owns a firearm.

3 (2) Since New York City's and Baltimore's gun
4 offender registries were put in place in 2006 and 5 2007 respectively, both cities have seen reductions in 6 murders and violent crimes.

7 (3) Domestic violence assaults involving a gun 8 are 12 times more likely to end in death than as-9 saults with other weapons or physical harm.

10 (4) More than two-thirds of spouse and ex-
11 spouse homicide victims between 1980 and 2008
12 were killed with firearms.

13 (5) In 2011, nearly two-thirds of women killed
14 with guns were killed by their intimate partners.

15 (6) In nearly two thirds (64.5 percent) of cases
16 in which a gun was present in a household shared 17 by a domestic abuser and victim, the abuser had 18 used the firearm against the victim, usually threat-
19 ening to shoot or kill their intimate partner.

23          (a) IN GENERAL.—For any fiscal year which begins
24          after the deadline under section 15, a jurisdiction that 25          fails, as determined by the Attorney General, to substan-

6 for that fiscal year to the jurisdiction.

7 (b) STATE CONSTITUTIONALITY.—

8 (1) IN GENERAL.—When evaluating whether a
9 jurisdiction has adequately implemented this Act,
10 the Attorney General shall examine whether the ju-
11 risdiction is incapable of implementing this Act be-12 cause of a displayed inability to implement certain 13 provisions that would place the jurisdiction in viola-14 tion of its constitution, as determined by a ruling of 15 the jurisdiction’s highest court.

16 (2) EFFORTS.—If the circumstances under 17 paragraph (1) appear, the Attorney General and the

23 violate the jurisdiction’s constitution or an exposition
24 by the jurisdiction’s highest court, the Attorney Gen-
25 eral shall consult with the chief executive and chief

1 legal officer of the jurisdiction concerning the juris-
2 diction's exposition of the jurisdiction's constitution.

3 (3) ALTERNATIVE PROCEDURES.—If the juris-
4 diction is unable to substantially implement this Act
5 because of a limitation imposed by the jurisdiction's
6 constitution, the Attorney General may determine
7 that the jurisdiction is in compliance with this Act 8 if the jurisdiction has made, or is in the process of 9 implementing reasonable alternative procedures or 10 accommodations, which are consistent with the pur-
11 poses of this Act.

12 (4) FUNDING REDUCTION.—If a jurisdiction
13 does not comply with paragraph (3), then the juris-
14 diction shall be subject to a funding reduction as 15 specified in subsection (a).

16 (c) REALLOCATION.—Amounts not allocated under a 17 program referred to in this section to a jurisdiction for 18 failure to substantially implement this Act shall be reallo-
19 cated under that program to jurisdictions that have not 20 failed to substantially implement this Act or may be reallo-21 cated to a jurisdiction from which they were withheld to 22 be used solely for the purpose of implementing this Act.
23 Under these circumstances, the process for selecting juris-24 diction that will receive re-allocated funding will be at the 25 discretion of the Attorney General.

1 (d) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—The provisions of 2 this Act that are cast as directions to jurisdictions or their 3 officials constitute, in relation to States, only conditions
4 required to avoid the reduction of Federal funding under 5 this section.

7 ISTER.

20 shall be fined under title 18, United States Code, or im-
21 prisoned not more than 6 months, or both.

22 (b) AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE.—In a prosecution for a
23 violation under subsection (a), it is an affirmative defense
24 that—

1           (1) uncontrollable conditions prevented the indi-
2           vidual from adhering to this Act;

3           (2) the individual did not cause the creation of 4           such circumstances to disregard the requirement to 5           comply; and

6           (3) the individual complied as soon as such cir-
7           cumstances ceased to exist.
