

115TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. RES. 1015

Commending the Department of Justice for its investigation into the interference by the Russian Federation in the 2016 United States Presidential election, and maintaining that the Russian Federation must be held accountable for its actions.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JULY 23, 2018

Mr. LANCE (for himself and Mr. KRISHNAMOORTH) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and in addition to the Committees on Intelligence (Permanent Select), the Judiciary, Oversight and Government Reform, Financial Services, and Ways and Means, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

RESOLUTION

Commending the Department of Justice for its investigation into the interference by the Russian Federation in the 2016 United States Presidential election, and maintaining that the Russian Federation must be held accountable for its actions.

Whereas, on July 13, 2018, an investigation of the Department of Justice resulted in the indictment of 12 officials of the Government of the Russian Federation for interfering with the 2016 United States Presidential election;

Whereas, on July 13, 2018, when speaking about the digital infrastructure of the United States being under attack from foreign actors, Director of National Intelligence Dan Coats stated, “In regards to state actions, Russia has been the most aggressive foreign actor. No question. And they continue their efforts to undermine our democracy.”; and

Whereas, on July 16, 2018, in a joint press conference in Helsinki, Finland, the President of the Russian Federation, Vladimir Putin, denied that the Russian Federation interfered in the 2016 United States Presidential election: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) commends the Department of Justice for its
3 thorough investigation into the interference in the 4 2016 United States Presidential election, which re-
5 sulted in the indictment of 12 intelligence officers of 6 the Government of the Russian Federation;

7 (2) agrees with the assessment of the United
8 States intelligence community that the Russian Fed-
9 eration interfered with the 2016 United States Pres-
10 idential election, and rejects the Russian Federa-
11 tion’s denial of such involvement;

12 (3) reaffirms its position that the Russian Fed-
13 eration must be held accountable for interfering in 14 the 2016 United States Presidential election;

15 (4) calls upon relevant committees of the House
16 of Representatives to exercise congressional over-

1 sight, including prompt hearings and the release of
2 relevant notes and information, to better understand
3 the impact of the recent summit in Helsinki, Fin-
4 land, on the foreign policy and national security of 5 the United States; and

6 (5) calls for the immediate and full implementa-
7 tion of mandatory sanctions provided for in the 8 Countering America's Adversaries Through Sanc-
9 tions Act (Public Law 115-44; 131 Stat. 886),
10 which passed the House of Representatives 419-3,
11 to deter and punish election interference by the Rus-
12 sian Federation.
