3           married John Corbin in 1772.

4           (2) Three years after the marriage, when John 5           Corbin left to fight in the Revolutionary War as an 6           artilleryman, Margaret Corbin accompanied him to 7           war to support the Revolutionary Army.

8           (3) Margaret Corbin supported the Revolu-

17          band's place, firing the cannon until she, too, was 18          hit by enemy fire and seriously wounded.

19          (5) Having lost the use of her left arm, Mar-
20          garet Corbin was assigned to the "Invalid Regi-
21          ment" at West Point, New York.

22          (6) The Continental Congress awarded Mar-
23          garet Corbin a lifelong pension for her injuries, mak-24          ing her the first woman to receive a pension from

1 the United States by virtue of military service for 2 the United States.

3 (7) Margaret Corbin died in 1789 in Highland
