RECOGNIZING THE 2017
GREENSPRING PRESIDENT'S VOLUNTEER SERVICE AWARD
RECIPIENTS

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 27, 2017

Mr. CONNOLLY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Greenspring Retirement Community of Springfield, Virginia as they host their annual President's Volunteer Service Awards reception. I have had the pleasure of visiting Greenspring on many occasions and am continually impressed by the community spirit displayed there.

The 2017 President's Volunteer Service Awards will honor more than 200 volunteers from the Greenspring community as well as the greater Springfield area with the Bronze, Silver and Gold Awards for Volunteer Service. In addition, three members of the Greenspring community are being honored with the Lifetime Service Award, having compiled more than 4,000 hours of community service during their time at Greenspring. In 2016, more than 750 volunteers contributed in excess of 140,000 hours to Greenspring as well as the surrounding community. That averages to nearly 200 hours per volunteer—an amazing display of dedication and commitment to our neighbors and district.

Greenspring residents volunteer their time in a variety of ways including teaching English to staff who are not native speakers as part of an award-winning ESL program, mentoring local elementary school students and preparing thousands of weekend food bags for distribution by organizations such as Food for Others to ensure that local children and families do not go hungry.

Volunteers from the surrounding community also provide a large number of different services to Greenspring residents, such as visiting with residents, playing cards or board games and escorting residents to and from activities.

The selfless participation of these individuals in volunteer activities enriches the lives of those around them and is truly worthy of our highest praise. I ask my colleagues to join me in congratulating all of the 2017 award recipients and in thanking them for their exemplary service to our community.

TRIBUTE TO JON LYNCH THE OUT-
GOING MIDLAND CITY MANAGER
AND INCOMING PRESIDENT OF THREE RIVERS CORPORATION

HON. JOHN R. MOOLENAAR

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 27, 2017

Mr. MOOLENAAR. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Jon Lynch, the Midland City Manager, for his sixteen-plus years of service to the city of Midland as he takes on a new role as President of the Three Rivers Corporation.

Beginning his work with the city in 2000, it was not long before Mr. Lynch rose up the ranks becoming the city's chief executive six years later. His work in Midland is most notable with the creation of the Citizen's Academy, which established a medium for residents to learn more about their government. Mr. Lynch also was at the helm during a tumultuous state level tax appeal process where Midland was able to continue city services facing a cut in their general fund. Mr. Lynch's ability to preserve Midland's service abilities with challenging budgets and nominal millage increases year after year is a true demonstration of his capability and talent.

Mr. Lynch's administrative knowledge and strong skill set, as well as his long and successful history, proves his ability. His work in the community, creating and facilitating an open dialogue will only continue with the Three Rivers Corporation.

On behalf of the Fourth Congressional District of Michigan, I am honored today to recognize Jon Lynch for his illustrious career and involvement in the Midland community that has positively influenced the careers and lives of countless individuals.

RECOGNIZING THE 50TH ANNIVER-SARY OF LAKE ANNE ELEMEN-TARY SCHOOL

HON. GERALD E. CONNOLLY

OF VIRGINIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 27, 2017

Mr. CONNOLLY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Lake Anne Elementary School on the occasion of its 50th anniversary. The first public school in the Reston neighborhood of Fairfax County, Lake Anne Elementary stands as a symbol of this region's commitment to excellent public education.

As a former member and Chairman of the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, I know firsthand that the quality of life in our communities is tied directly to the priority with which we afford education. Throughout its fifty-year history, Lake Anne has represented a diverse community. As of today, its student body represents 70 countries and speaks 38 different languages. I have consistently said that the diversity of our community is one of our greatest strengths and I am glad to see Lake Anne continuing this tradition.

In addition to enriching our community through diversity, Lake Anne also enriches its student body through a number of extra-curricular programs, including Spanish Immersion, ESOL, Special Ed, Advanced Academics, HeadStart services, Young Scholars, Artist in Residence, Eco School, Grace Art, Mentor Works and Partners in Print programs. By exposing their students to these types of programs earlier in their academic careers, Lake Anne Elementary helps lay the groundwork not only for future academic success, but greater economic opportunities as well.

Of course, none of this would be possible without the tireless dedication of the faculty, staff and volunteers of Lake Anne Elementary. I have always said that public service is among the most noble of callings and this sentiment certainly is true of the men and women who dedicate their lives to educating our future generations.

Mr. Speaker, much has changed in the world over the last fifty years, but the mission of Lake Anne Elementary School and our Fairfax County Public School system as a whole has not, and indeed it is more important than ever. As the world changes around us, we need to ensure that today's students are equipped with the knowledge and tools they will need in this increasingly globalized and technical world. I congratulate Lake Anne Elementary School on the occasion of its 50th Anniversary and thank the faculty, staff, volunteers and parents for their immeasurable contributions to our greatest resource, our children. I wish you continued success in all of your future endeavors.
