

The truth is simple: where poverty exists, skills gaps can prevent access to jobs with family-sustaining wages.

Underemployment and unemployed are leading causes of poverty, and promoting pathways to employment is the best way to help individuals climb the economic ladder out of poverty and into self-sufficiency. Combined with other welfare programs, SNAP recipients may face a welfare cliff when they are just above the income eligibility level, which can create disincentives to finding work or increasing earnings.

Better enforcement of work requirements is needed in some States, and enforcement needs to be coupled with more effective SNAP employment and training programs.

As the House Agriculture Nutrition Subcommittee chair and House Career and Technical Education Caucus co-chair, I am committed to reforming the nutrition needs of today and greater opportunities for tomorrow for all Americans.

REMEMBERING PAUL GLAAB OF ORANGE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA

(Mrs. MIMI WALTERS of California asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. MIMI WALTERS of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in memory of Paul Glaab who passed away on January 26.

Paul's career in public service began in the 1980s when he worked for the Republican caucus in the California State assembly on business, transportation, and housing issues. He continued to serve two California Governors in the State's Division of Codes and Standards and the Department of Transportation. He then served on the board of the Orange County Transportation Authority and later as the board's chair. Notably, he served two terms as Laguna Niguel's mayor.

Paul was a true public servant, and he will be missed by everyone in the Orange County community.

Our thoughts and prayers are with his wife, Janice, his daughter Molly, and the rest of his family. We join them in their mourning and hope that they will find comfort in knowing that Paul's legacy of leadership will live on for years to come.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

(Ms. BARRAGÁN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. BARRAGÁN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today as we close out Black History Month. Last night at the Oscars, we saw "Moonlight" win the Best Picture, which was a real milestone for Black filmmakers. We also saw Viola Davis, the first African-American woman to win an Oscar, an Emmy, and a Tony.

We have come a long way since the civil rights era. As a kid in school, I was intrigued by the period. It is when I first learned about standing up, fighting for people, for equality against racial discrimination, and injustices. The struggle is real, and it continues today.

I am looking forward this weekend to going with one of my civil rights heroes, Congressman JOHN LEWIS, on a Faith and Politics trip to Selma, Montgomery, and Birmingham. May we learn from history to end the hatred, divisions, and the injustices that continue.

TRUMP'S EXECUTIVE ORDERS POPULAR

(Mr. SMITH of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SMITH of Texas. Mr. Speaker, a recent poll shows that the American people agree with all of President Trump's major executive orders, though they are not likely to learn about it from the liberal media.

Fifty-five percent approve of revoking Federal funding for sanctuary cities. Only 33 percent disapprove. Fifty-five percent approve of prohibiting refugees from seven countries from entering the U.S. Only 38 percent disapprove.

By wide margins, the American people side with the President on freezing regulations and Federal hiring, building pipelines, and constructing a wall along the U.S. border with Mexico.

As favorable to the President as this poll is, think how much more favorable it would have been if the media had not incessantly criticized his executive orders.
