The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. SASSE). Without objection, it is so ordered.

The Senator from Iowa.

THANKING STAFF

Mr. GRASSLEY. Mr. President, there are some people who need to have a thank-you for what we just completed here—people who hardly ever get any attention. So I will take a couple of minutes to express my appreciation to some of the staff who worked on this Supreme Court nomination.

The staff for both the majority and minority put in a lot of hours and reviewed a lot of material. Their work ensured that the hearing we held for Judge Gorsuch went smoothly and was fair to all of the Members. Our staff reviewed all of the 2,700 cases Judge Gorsuch participated in as well as 180,000 pages of documents that were produced by the Department of Justice and the George W. Bush Presidential Library and Museum that were related to that nomination.

First, on my staff, I would like to recognize my Judiciary Committee staff director, Kolan Davis. Mr. Davis has been with me for 31 years, and I always value his wise counsel.

I thank, as well, my personal office chief of staff, Jill Kozeny, who has been with me for 27 years.

My deputy staff director is Rita Lari, and my chief nominations counsel is right here at my side, Ted Lehman.

I would also like to thank counsels Megan Lacy, Lauren Mehler, Kasey O'Connor, and Katharine Willey. Each of them worked incredibly hard.

Also on the team were several special counsels who joined the staff to work on this important nomination. They are Dan Guarnera, Bill Lane, Katie Roholt, and Carol Szurkowski.

Every one of these talented lawyers played a very important role, and I think every member of the Senate Judiciary Committee benefited from their wise counsel throughout this confirmation process.

I would also like to acknowledge and thank Ranking Member FEINSTEIN, the Senator from California. The ranking member and her staff approached this process seriously from the very beginning. So I want to thank her staff for all the work they have put into preparing for the hearing and the debate, both in committee and here on the floor.

Thank you to her staff director, Jennifer Duck, and several of the other lawyers on her staff who, I know, put a lot of time into ensuring that the hearing was a success. They include Paige Herwig, Nazneen Mehta, and Chan Park.

I am also thankful for my very talented press team, Beth Levine and Taylor Foy, and for Jen Heins for keeping me on schedule, as well as for my personal office staff and the rest of the Judiciary Committee staff who took care of things while I was on the floor and during the long hours in the hearing.

I also deeply appreciate the work of Senator MCCONNELL's staff who was constantly in contact with my staff—most importantly John Abegg.

The people I mentioned bore the bulk of the workload and labored tirelessly night after night, day after day, and nonstop through the weekends. They deserve our recognition as a tribute to their hard work, professionalism, and dedication to public service.

Finally, my thanks to the Judiciary Committee's chief clerk, Roslyne Turner, and her team, Michelle Heller and Jason Covey.

All of these staff members contributed to this process, and we would not have been able to conduct such a fair and thorough hearing without their hard work and their professionalism. To each of them, I extend a heartfelt thanks, and if I left anybody out, I will buy them a Dairy Queen.

Mr. President, finally, my wife Barbara is in the Capitol today. As always, I thank her for her support and partnership for more than 62 years.

I yield the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Colorado.

CONFIRMATION OF NEIL GORSUCH

Mr. GARDNER. Mr. President, I thank the chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee for the work he carried out over the past several months as this nomination proceeded.

Mostly, I want to congratulate Judge Neil Gorsuch on his confirmation to the U.S. Supreme Court.

While people in this Chamber voted yea or nay—some voted yes and some voted no—we all recognize the heavy obligation that now falls on the shoulders of Judge Gorsuch as a Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

We will lean on Judge Gorsuch to make sure our Constitution is enforced. The American people will lean on Judge Gorsuch to make sure justice is dispensed impartially, with equality—that justice is indeed blind.

To Judge Gorsuch and his family, congratulations.

To the people of this Chamber who worked so hard over the past several weeks and months to assure this moment happened, thank you.

To the great State of Colorado, it is an honor to have a fourth-generation Coloradan—a man of the West, with grit and determination—join the Nation's High Court.

I yield the floor.

I suggest the absence of a quorum.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The clerk will call the roll.

The senior assistant legislative clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. SASSE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the order for the quorum call be rescinded.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. GARDNER). Without objection, it is so ordered.

COMMENDING THE CHAIRMAN OF THE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE

Mr. SASSE. Mr. President, I would like to add my voice to yours in commending the chairman of the Judiciary
