people died in fights for freedom. The men and women who died in post-Soviet wars should be memorialized. They paid the ultimate price for peace.

As we enter a new era when it seems as if democracy is on the slide, the United States Congress must stand for freedom here at home and everywhere across our planet. The people who died in Azerbaijan, in Armenia, in the Balkans, and throughout the region should be honored and memorialized. Let us not forget that peace is preferable to war.

HONORING SANTO ANTHONY SERGE OF RICHLAND TOWNSHIP

HON. BRIAN K. FITZPATRICK
OF PENNSYLVANIA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, February 8, 2018

Mr. FITZPATRICK, Mr. Speaker, today, I lift up the legacy of Mr. Santo Anthony Serge of Richland Township and join his friends and family in celebrating his life.

Mr. Serge was born in Carbondale, Pennsylvania and graduated Carbondale High School in 1940. Shortly after, he was drafted by the Boston Red Sox minor league baseball system, but was discouraged from carrying out his dream due to his mother’s wishes that he “get a real job.”

With the outbreak of World War II, Mr. Serge joined General Patton’s Third Army, the 88th Black Hawk Division. He went on to serve as a Sergeant under Generals Patton, MacArthur and Bradley in both the European and Pacific theaters, and completed his service in 1946. Upon his return home, Mr. Serge enlisted as a Pennsylvania State Trooper and was stationed at the Butler, Quakertown, and Bethlehem Barracks. He finished his career as a detective in 1980 after more than three decades of service to his community.

His family notes that he had a natural athleticism, participating in softball and bowling leagues throughout his adult life. He enjoyed watching his children participate in sports and music during their school years, and many hours were spent in his vegetable garden surrounded by beautiful roses that he looked forward to cultivating each summer. Most of all, he shared a love of music with his wife and children.

My thoughts and prayers are with his wife of 67 years, Althea, their children, Larry (Leslie, wife) Serge of Quakertown, Dennis Serge of Philadelphia, Dianne Felicetti (Paul, husband) of Boyertown, and Anita Serge of Pennsburg, Pa; their two grandchildren, Tony Serge of Quakertown and Nikki Mayette (Andrew, husband) of Sellersville; and step-grandchildren, Paul J. Felicetti of Bensalem and Nicole Felicetti of Philadelphia, Pa.

HONORING JOSEPH R. O’BRIEN
HON. ELIOT L. ENGEL
OF NEW YORK
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, February 8, 2018

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, it is with a heavy heart that I today say goodbye to a dear friend, Joseph R. “Joe” O’Brien, who passed away on February 7th, 2018 at the age of 79.

Joe served as my Director of Public Affairs for many years, and in that time, I came to know him as a warm, caring human being with a razor-sharp wit and tremendous sense of humor. I am going to miss him dearly.

A longtime resident of the Bronx, Joe was a newsman who later served as Deputy Press Secretary to Mayor Edward Koch from 1979 to 1985. For the next 11 years, he continued directing public relations for Yonkers Mayor Terrance Zaleski for two years before joining my office in May of 1996, where he worked until his retirement in 2013. Later he joined Bronx Community Board 8, where he served until September 2017.

Born May 26, 1938, Joe was the youngest of four children of Irish immigrants, Thomas and Margaret O’Brien (nee Coffey), and grew up in the Inwood section of upper Manhattan. He served in the Army Reserve and graduated from New York University in 1966. He worked for several newspapers in New Jersey and up-state New York. In 1967, he joined the United Press International wire service in New York as a reporter on the Local desk, and then as an editor on the International and General desks. Joe married New York Daily News reporter Casie Vanzo in 1975. The couple had two children together whom he is survived by: his daughter, Casey O’Brien Schwarz and son Scott O’Brien. Joe is also survived by his three beautiful grandchildren, Kaleb and Kaia O’Brien, and Leopold (O’Brien) Schwarz, and his brother Kenneth O’Brien of Crestwood, NY.

Everyone, who ever met Joe knew he was one of a kind. Though he was a tremendously talented writer and gifted communicator, it was his wonderful personality that really shined brightest. Nobody could light up the room with a joke or quick comment like Joe. My condolences go out to the entire O’Brien family. Joe will be greatly missed.

HONORING LIVES LOST IN AZERBAIJAN

HON. DONALD M. PAYNE, JR.
OF NEW JERSEY
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, February 8, 2018

Mr. PAYNE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Stan Judge for his decades of service to Wildcat ski area and skiing across New England.

On behalf of New Hampshire’s Second Congressional District and all those who have benefited from Stan’s work, I thank him for all his passion and dedication, and I wish him the best of luck in his next step.

PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AMENDMENT TO H.R. 1892, HONORING HOMETOWN HEROES ACT

SPEECH OF
HON. BETTY McCOULLUM
OF MINNESOTA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, February 6, 2018

Ms. McCOULLUM. Mr. Speaker, I will vote no on H. Res. 727 because of my strong objections to the Republican majority’s refusal to do Congress’ work on time and their rejection of regular order for debate on critical national priorities.

H. Res. 727 makes in order H.R. 1892. This bill entitled the Honoring Heroes from Vietnam to Heroes Act, but in its current form this legislation has nothing to do with recognizing our first responders. I voted along with 410 of my colleagues for the original version of H.R. 1892 when it passed the House of Representatives on March 18, 2017. In fact, the version of H.R. 1892 that the House will consider under H. Res. 727 denies our first responders the certainty they deserve by providing them just 43 days of federal funding.
