

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

IN RECOGNITION OF MRS.
ELIZABETH “LIZ” MOORE TOMLIN

HON. SANFORD D. BISHOP, JR.

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 26, 2018

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor and privilege to rise today to recognize a dedicated public servant, engaging community leader, outstanding citizen, and friend of longstanding, Mrs. Elizabeth “Liz” Moore Tomlin. Liz was honored by the Nelson Chapel AME Church in Bainbridge, Georgia on February 24, 2018.

A native of Bainbridge, Georgia, Liz graduated from Hutto High School in 1969.

Liz was one of the first African-Americans to be hired as a cashier at Kwik Check and the first African-American in Decatur County to be employed by the Georgia Power Company, where she worked as a Customer Representative. Upon receiving employment with the Georgia Power Company, she pursued higher education.

She has been affiliated with several associations. She has served as President of the local chapter of the NAACP, County Chair of the Decatur County Democratic Party and Deputy Registrar, and a member of the Board of Elections of Decatur County.

As a foster parent, she has opened her home to hundreds of adolescents. She has also been an integral part of community programs such as “Kops N Kids”, which helps to build relationships between law enforcement and local youth, and the HERO Foundation, which provides clothing, food, and housing for destitute families. For the past 30 years she has helped bring prominent speakers to Decatur County by personally sponsoring and organizing the Martin Luther King Day March and Parade.

Liz has received numerous honors and awards for her work in public service. These include: the Pilot Club Woman of the Year Award; the Unsung Hero Award presented by the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation; a Certificate of Achievement from Former Secretary of State Cathy Cox; and an Outstanding Service Award which I had the pleasure of presenting to her.

Liz Tomlin’s faith has always instilled within her a desire to positively shape the community in which she lives. As an active member of Nelson Chapel A.M.E. Church, she regularly incorporates her faith into her commitment to public service by serving on the Steward Board, the Pastor’s Aid Committee and as the Director of the Youth Development Program Department.

Dr. Benjamin E. Mays often said: “You make your living by what you get, you make your life by what you give.” We are so grateful that Liz has dedicated her time and talents to improve the quality of life for others. A woman of great integrity, her efforts, her dedication, and her expertise are unparalleled. Bainbridge, Georgia shines a little brighter because of Liz Tomlin.

Liz has accomplished much throughout her life, but none of this would have been possible without the love and support of her seven children and the countless others who impacted her life over the years.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join my wife Vivian and me, along with the more than 730,000 constituents of the Second Congressional District, in extending our sincerest congratulations and appreciation to Mrs. Elizabeth “Liz” Moore Tomlin for her dedicated service to the people of Bainbridge, Georgia and Decatur County, Georgia.

HONORING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF JAIME D.S. PAULINO

HON. MADELEINE Z. BORDALLO

OF GUAM

Ms. BORDALLO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life and legacy of Jaime D.S. Paulino. Jaime was a proud son of Guam and faithful public servant. He served as the commissioner of the village of Inarajan from 1981 to 1989. Jaime was born on December 8, 1935 and passed away on February 6, 2018 at the age of 82.

Jaime was the son of Jesus D. and Josefina S. Paulino. He was a member of Guam’s greatest generation who survived the occupation of Guam during World War II. He went on to serve our country in the United States Navy.

Jaime graduated from George Washington High School in Guam in 1955, and from Navy Leadership School in 1964. Jaime served in the Vietnam War and later retired as Navy Chief in 1976. Additionally, Jaime served on several boards and commissions, and as a close advisor of my late husband, Governor Bordallo.

Jaime took an active role in different community organizations. He was a member of the Young Men’s League of Guam, the Fleet Reserve Association, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Knights of Columbus. Jaime was a long time member of the Democratic Party of Guam. He served as vice chairman of the party from 2008 to 2012, and was a Super Delegate to the 2008 Democratic National Convention.

I am deeply saddened by the passing of Jaime D.S. Paulino and I join the people of Guam in celebrating his life. He was a dedicated public servant who worked to improve the quality of life in his village of Inarajan and the broader community during his time in office. My thoughts and prayers are with his family, loved ones and friends.

I extend my condolences to his children, Jaime Jr. and Rachel, Glenn and Eliza, Gerald, and Joel, and his grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He will be deeply missed, and his memory will live on in the hearts of the people of Guam.

HONORING THE LIFE OF RICHARD KUNDE

HON. JARED HUFFMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in memory of Richard Kunde, who passed away on February 15, 2018 at the age of 75, after a lifetime of public service to his community.

Mr. Kunde was born on September 6, 1942 near his family’s ranch in Glen Ellen, where they raised Hereford cattle and grew cabernet sauvignon grapes. Mr. Kunde attended the University of California, Davis (UC Davis) where he continued to study and work at improving grape vines by earning degrees in viticulture and horticulture. With enologists at UC Davis, Mr. Kunde worked on developing and cloning rootstock in order to produce superior grapes to be used throughout California and beyond. In 1982, Mr. Kunde purchased Sonoma Grapevines, where he continued to push Sonoma County to the top of the world in both vine growing and wine production. Always one to put the industry above his own personal gain, Mr. Kunde was one of the first nurserymen in his field to sell his cloned vines to other growers.

Mr. Kunde’s legacy extends from a personal mission to serve the industry and product that he loved so dearly. As leaders in the wine industry, he and his late wife, Saralee, were unparalleled supporters of Future Farmers of America, 4-H, the Sonoma County Fair, and the Harvest Fair. Whether it was placing the highest bid at an auction, against himself, or becoming the single largest donor to the education and events building at the Sonoma County Fairgrounds, Mr. Kunde’s generosity was unmatched. He received many honors over his illustrious career, including induction into the Sonoma County Farm Bureau’s Hall of Fame and the Award of Distinction from the College of Agriculture and Environmental Sciences at UC Davis, both in 2008.

Mr. Kunde is survived by his son, Matthew Kunde and his daughter Catherine “Catie” Kunde, his granddaughter, and many nieces, nephews, and cousins. It is hard to speak about Mr. Kunde’s personal or professional life without mentioning his constant companion in both, his late wife Saralee McClelland Kunde. Known as the shining star of their duo, Mrs. Kunde was intimately involved in all of Mr. Kunde’s professional and philanthropic work.

Mr. Speaker, the depth of Mr. Kunde’s service to his community has left a positive legacy across Sonoma County and the entire grape growing industry, and he will be profoundly missed. It is therefore appropriate that we pay tribute to him today and honor his memory.

IN RECOGNITION OF KEVIN SHAUGHNESSY, RECIPIENT OF THE ANCIENT ORDER OF HIBERNIANS' PAUL "HOOK" O'MALLEY MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD

HON. MATT CARTWRIGHT

OF PENNSYLVANIA

Mr. CARTWRIGHT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize Kevin Shaughnessy, who will be honored as Man of the Year by the Ancient Order Hibernians Division 4, the Paul "Hook" O'Malley chapter, on Thursday, March 1. Kevin is a charter member of the AOH chapter named in memory of the late boxing trainer known for his charitable nature. The Man of the Year award is given to an individual who has worked to enrich the well-being of the community in the spirit of "Hook" O'Malley.

Kevin is the son of Jack and Rose Shaughnessy. He is a graduate of West Scranton High School, class of 1988. Kevin currently serves as the Lackawanna County Director of Building and Grounds. In addition to his government position, he has served two three-year terms as an executive board member of the IBEW Local 81 and is a past delegate to the Scranton Central Labor Union. Along with his leadership roles in organized labor, Kevin is a member of the John Mitchell Man of the Year Committee.

It is an honor to recognize Kevin as he receives the Man of the Year award from The Ancient Order of Hibernians. I am grateful for his efforts on behalf of the citizens of Lackawanna County and his colleagues within the labor community. I wish Kevin all the best as he continues to serve his neighbors with the generosity of "Hook" O'Malley.

HIS BOOK OF LOVE, IN MEMORY OF THE REVEREND BILLY GRAHAM

HON. PETE SESSIONS

OF TEXAS

Monday, February 26, 2018

Mr. SESSIONS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in honor and remembrance of a great American Hero, who touched and blessed so many lives. As an Ambassador of the Gospel he spread the word of our Lord and his Book of Love lifting people up. The Evangelist, The Reverend Billy Graham. I include in the RECORD this poem penned in his honor by Albert Carey Caswell.

HIS BOOK OF LOVE

(By Albert Carey Caswell)

His book of love
A gift from above
As was this
To so uplift
As God's kiss
To touch all hearts
As he did his part
To help us walk with God
With no facade
Was Billy thou art
To lighten our burdens
To help open the curtain
Which, separates us for certain
To feel the presence of Jesus Christ, for all those hurting

To give us hope and strength Reminding us of the power of faith, all in our short time with him spent Armed with his gift from God ever forth he went For the Reverend Billy Graham was such a man Grabbing hearts,
as he took our hand
A messenger from God in his life span
With his Special Gift
Which was all this
To so uplift
His book of love
From above
A humble man from the South
A holy spirit who espoused
The word of God, in his voice to all would shout
With him we felt the presence of Jesus Christ, inside and out
To Save us bringing us to tears no doubt
No matter the denomination
Or the color of one's skin, he fought against discrimination And hatred's abomination my friend
As he walked with Dr. King
As the Angels up in Heaven they'd sing
We are all God's children in his equation
He did not just talk the talk
But, throughout his life he walked the walk
For in the sonnets of our lives
What have our moments comprised?
All in our time realized
And what have we left behind?
Who have we Saved or helped in our time?
Did we take or did we give?
Because, it's all about how we've lived
In our short lives
To turn the good from bad, as Billy had
To spread the word
All in our actions and our deeds
Which all else supersedes
To give this world what she so needs
In that battle as old as time Of GOOD versus EVIL which comes to mind For in our darkest hours, it's only our faith upon us which showers To strength and courage and hope to find the power To move forth all in that hour
While, The Reverend Graham's faith above all so towered
And yet he was such a humble man all throughout his hours
So, strengthened by his beliefs, as onward this Christian Soldier battled to achieve A lifetime to Save souls and bring relief To walk with Jesus Christ, he'd speak With his shot heard around the world, to touch almost every woman and man, boy and girl
As twelve Presidents counted on him so With his council of love, hope, faith, and peace to help them grow
As a Soldier in the Army of our Lord, the path he strode
He was put on this earth to help us know
The greatest blessings are found in our Lord's plans we sow
For almost 100 years on earth he walked here Because, God knew we needed him far more down here
For his was an open tent into everyone who went
As we could fill the oceans up with the tears he brought us to A great Crusader who with such passion God's word pursued Answering his calling, as you could almost hear the Lord saying, I love you
As Billy asked us to take that walk of faith so true

So, one day with our Lord we could live in Heaven's hue
In Billy's presence, with God we were always knew The Holy Spirit
So, all in him imbued
As we could feel it coming through Whether, on a TV screen or listening to a radio, we felt the presence of the Holy Spirit so true
Giving us strength
Giving us hope
Giving us the faith to somehow cope
As with each new word Billy spoke
The Bible, the word of the Lord he invoked And with it in hand and upon a pulpit he would stand
As you could feel the fire and brimstone, but even more the Lord reaching out his hand
Telling us you're not alone
Touching every woman, child, and man Showing us God's plan
Of resurrection and forgiveness and hope
As the love of Christ invoked
As thoughts to our Lord and Heaven awoke
To take that walk down the aisle, as in that moment we began to smile
To be Saved,
all in his reassuring southern style As his voice and presence conveyed, such warmth and hope each day So simple, so strong, giving hope to all hearts who so longed As he was an ambassador of the Lord, so mighty and so strong And yet so kind like a love song
In sermons out to hearts on Sunday's poured
The word of God to all restore As all across the land in cars to work and churches more
On radios in hearts he forged Words of gold to souls as the tears began to pour
I know, because I was one of those for sure With his book of love the Angels him must have him so adored
And tears of love flowing from our Lord And Billy look at your beautiful family, surely the sum of what love can be Making our Lord up in Heaven happy even more
All throughout the world Billy wherever you spoke In heart,
the love of Jesus Christ you awoke
We will miss you my son, and all that you have done
On earth in that war which must be won But, your voice and words and memory lives on Rise
Rise, now my son
Up to Heaven's gate as you have come With our Lord's arms around you, his chosen one With tears in eyes perhaps these words he's begun
"Billy, you never let me down my blessed son"
A new Angel in Kingdom Come
To serve in The Army of our Lord this one To watch over us day and night America's son
As happily a family reunites up in Heaven's Sun
And now we lay your body down to rest
We pray our Lord your soul to bless As you Billy were one of our very best Who touched so many lives and blessed Lifting them up with the gift of love to help them crest
And let us remember, this man and his embers, he left behind to warm us in his time in His Book of Love, as we go out in our life's quests
