

Smith High School, where he was student body president. He attended the University of Arkansas and served as student commander of the Army ROTC while earning a degree in business.

A member of the Greatest Generation, he was a second lieutenant in reconnaissance and intelligence in the U.S. Army during World War II. He served in the European Theater and was injured in the Battle of Siegfried Line. Shipley received the Bronze Star and Purple Heart for his service to his country.

After the war, he graduated from the American Institute of Baking in Chicago, IL, and joined his father at the Shipley Baking Company. He worked there for 54 years, from 1945 to 1996, along with his brother and sons. He retired in 1996 as chairman of the board after the company was sold to Flower Foods.

Mr. Shipley was also a man of faith and someone who was involved in his community in a variety of ways. He was a lifetime member of First United Methodist Church and served as an usher and on several committees within the congregation.

I join with many in the Fort Smith community to honor Harry Shipley, Jr., and the wonderful legacy he leaves behind. My thoughts and prayers are with his loved ones as they mourn his passing and celebrate his life.●

40TH ANNIVERSARY OF COASTAL ENTERPRISES, INC.

● Mr. KING. Mr. President, today, I wish to recognize the 40th anniversary of Coastal Enterprises, Inc., CEI. Headquartered in Brunswick, ME, CEI is a national leader in rural economic development, helping to grow businesses and support communities through providing financing assistance and support for environmentally sustainable practices to increase prosperity in Maine and across the country. CEI provides loans and technical assistance to small businesses and community development stakeholders while simultaneously advancing changes in public policy to promote an environment ripe for economic growth.

Since its founding, CEI has been a mission-driven organization, striving to enable all people, especially those from low-income backgrounds, to reach their full potential. With a joint focus on economic growth and environmental health, CEI has tirelessly worked for 40 years to create a Maine economy that is sustainable both for our citizens and our land.

CEI's immense impact is undisputed; since inception, they have financed $1.32 billion dollars' worth of loans, helping over 2,700 businesses. These companies often provide the backbone of their communities, in total employing over 37,000 people. Furthermore, CEI has been instrumental in the areas of affordable housing and childcare. Through their investments, they have created or preserved 2,075 affordable housing units and 5,818 childcare slots, providing much-needed relief for families.

The success of the last 40 years speaks to the vision of the founders and the dedication of CEI's employees. We are lucky to have Coastal Enterprises, Inc., in our State, and I wish to congratulate them on their 40th anniversary. I am looking forward to watching the positive impacts of CEI's work for years to come.●

REMEMBERING WILLIAM "BILL" VARN

● Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, today I would like to take a moment to recognize and honor the life of William "Bill" Varn, a great South Carolinian, who departed this life on November 18, 2017. Bill was a veteran of the U.S. Navy and served in World War II. After the war, Bill joined and eventually took over Enterprise Bank, originally located in Smoaks, SC. Mr. Varn served as CEO from 1951 to 2013, when he was named director emeritus last spring. It is believed that he is South Carolina's longest serving banker ever, and dedicated more than 70 years of his life to the industry. Today Emeritus Bank is a $333 million institution spread across six SC counties.

Mr. Varn will be remembered not only for the great contributions he made in the financial services industry, but also for his love of his country, State, and family.●

100TH ANNIVERSARY OF FAIRVIEW BAPTIST CHURCH

● Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I would like to congratulate and honor Fairview Baptist Church in Spartanburg, SC for their 100th anniversary, which will be celebrated on June 24, 2018. Fairview Baptist Church was established in 1918 by a group of residents of the Fairview community, known also as the Flatwoods, under direction of Rev. C.M. Ellis and nine charter members. Starting with only 40 members 100 years ago, Fairview Baptist has since grown to include hundreds from the Spartanburg area, while still remaining a welcoming and devoted place of worship in the community.

I acknowledge and celebrate the church's 100 years as a congregation faithfully serving the people of Spartanburg.●

200TH ANNIVERSARY OF STANDING SPRINGS BAPTIST CHURCH

● Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I would like to congratulate and honor Standing Springs Baptist Church in Simpsonville, SC, for their 200th anniversary, which will be celebrated on October 18, 2018. As Standing Springs celebrates their bicentennial throughout the week and weekend, I thank them for their ongoing mission of service and fellowship that I hope will continue for 200 more years to come. I acknowledge and celebrate the church's 200 years as a congregation faithfully serving the people of Simpsonville and Greenville County.●

UNVEILING OF THE BISHOPVILLE JAMES DAVISON HERIOT STATUE ON THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF ARMISTICE DAY

● Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I would like to recognize the American Legion Post 29 in Bishopville, SC as they celebrate the unveiling of the James Davison Heriot statue in downtown Bishopville on Sunday, November 11, 2018. James Davison Heriot was a South Carolina National Guard soldier who received the Medal of Honor for his actions during World War I.

Post 29 is honoring the Americans who fought in World War I by unveiling this statue on the 100th anniversary of the end of the American involvement in the conflict, previously known as Armistice Day. I look forward to the unveiling of the Bishopville Heriot statue, as well as all other commemorations that will take place on this special 100th anniversary.●
