priations for the Department of the In-

TAX REFORM

(Mr. JOHNSON of Louisiana asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. JOHNSON of Louisiana. Mr.
Speaker, I am honored to rise today to speak to the success in Louisiana's Fourth Congressional District that we have seen since the implementation of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act.

Every skeptic, even the early skeptics of tax reform, saw near immediate benefits when the IRS adjusted their withholding tables and it resulted in bigger paychecks for more than 90 percent of Americans.

Now we are 7 months out, and after the enactment of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, the results are undeniable.
Nearly every economic indicator, whether you are talking about the unemployment rate or wages or job creation, is showing record growth; and because of this tax reform, more than 1 million jobs have already been created and more than 4 million Americans have received increased wages or bonuses.

The average tax cut in Louisiana for a family of four was more than $1,700.
That is not crumbs. That is real money for the people in my district, and it provides them with greater flexibility to save for the future.

Real benefits for real people, that is what tax reform delivered. I look forward to many more success stories because of this historic legislation.

HONORING COMMISSIONER ROY CHARLES BROOKS

(Mr. VEASEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. VEASEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to join my fellow Texans in honoring Tarrant County Commissioner Roy Charles Brooks for a tremendous year of leadership as president of the National Association of Counties.

For over 30 years, Commissioner Brooks has fought for underserved communities across Tarrant County.
As a community volunteer, a city elected official, and county commissioner, his integrity, innovation, and fervor to help others has touched generations of Texans.

He has taken on issues such as healthcare for the homeless, infant mortality, obesity, criminal justice reform, mental health, and AIDS education; and this past year, he worked tirelessly to bring awareness to his presidential initiative Serving the Underserved: Counties Addressing Poverty.

The project has pushed over 3,000 counties to look at the role they play in alleviating poverty and to develop best practices to address vital societal needs, especially as pertain to early childhood development.

Through his work, he has created a community family that supports and lifts each other up, building hope and faith across Tarrant County. I honor his lifetime of work and his dedication to advocating for the toughest issues that our communities face.

CONGRATULATING THE NEVADA COUNTY FARM BUREAU

(Mr. LAMALFA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAMALFA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commend and note Nevada County Farm Bureau in my district in northern California that is celebrating this weekend their 100th anniversary of existence in Nevada County, helping farmers and ranchers with the very diverse types of crops they have, not like in the flatlands, but nestled in the foothills and the mountains of Nevada County.

They have different crops: hay crops, tree crops, even a level of forestry that they are all involved with there. The Farm Bureau has been a leader a long time in helping those folks to navigate regulations, ideas for better propagation of their crops, and just a better way to do things in the community.

We appreciate their leadership and all of their memberships to help make farming strong.

Congratulations to the Nevada County Farm Bureau on 100 years of helping their members in Nevada County.

PRESIDENT TRUMP'S COMMENTS AT HELSINKI

(Ms. SHEA-PORTER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Ms. SHEA-PORTER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to share an editorial from the Union Leader, New Hampshire's statewide newspaper.

People who thought a weak and dying Roosevelt gave away too much to the Russians at Yalta in World War II may want to reconsider. Compared to the pathetic, boot-licking performance of President Trump in Helsinki this week, FDR had his A-game going against Joseph Stalin.

Republicans who are now, finally, trying to distance themselves from Trump have no one to blame but themselves. They kept silent as Trump has disgraced and demeaned the office, damaged our relations with loyal allies, and repeatedly attempted to destroy a free press.

But when an American President openly sides with a Russian KGB thug against our own country, those politicians sense that the 'optics' don't look so good and might threaten their power and perks in midterm elections.

Trump, of course, is now trying to walk things back, but even his hard-core supporters must wince at how he tries to worm his way out of his nauseating Helsinki brownnosing of the dictator Putin.

But the Republican Party isn't Trump's hardcore faithful; and if the party doesn't clearly denounce this shameful and disgraceful performance, it is going to find itself with no credibility and no hope for years to come.

That is the end of the editorial.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Members are reminded to refrain from engaging in personalities toward the President.

GUN LEGISLATION

(Ms. JACKSON LEE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. JACKSON LEE. Mr. Speaker, last school year was a deadly year for so many of our children going to school in America. School shootings shocked the very core of Americans and communities across the country.

As we approach the beginning of school, this Congress has passed no gun safety legislation, no universal background check, no banning of assault weapons, no holding parents responsible for children getting guns.

Although I understand that there are many discussions about school security, the proliferation of guns is one of the issues that contributes to the dangers that our children face.

We know that the Second Amendment guarantees the right to bear arms, but there is nothing in the Second Amendment that does not allow us to have sensible gun safety legislation.

It is time for us to recognize that a Nation that has more guns than citizens can stand down in order to provide a safe educational climate for our children.

Are they not our most precious resource? It is time to act now.
