

keeping more of what they make. The average tax cut this year in my district was over $900. Like a constituent who commented on my Facebook wall put it: "Any time that the American taxpayer has more money in their pocket, it's a good thing." Mr. Speaker, I couldn't agree more.

Businesses and workers are seeing tremendous benefits, too. With the tax savings, businesses all across the country are expanding and hiring more people. In my district, a local brewery can now purchase new equipment and raise wages. A local manufacturer told me she plans to expand operations and bring on new employees.

Working with the Trump administration, I will continue to work to build on this progress so that more people can achieve their American Dream.

HONORING THE LIFE OF WILLIAM "BILL" WOLFE, JR.

(Mr. KIHUEN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KIHUEN. Mr. Speaker, today I rise to remember the life of William "Bill" Wolfe, Jr. Bill attended the Route 91 festival in Las Vegas on October 1.

Bill and his wife, Robyn, had two kids together, Ethan and Trevor. Bill worked as a senior project manager for Dewberry Engineers, Inc.

Bill lived for his community. He enjoyed being a wrestling coach with the Shippensburg Elementary wrestling program and a coach for a Little League team.

Although he loved coaching, he loved being outdoors more. Bill enjoyed hunting, fishing, boating, camping, gardening, and jogging.

Bill and Robyn had traveled to the Route 91 festival to celebrate the 20th anniversary of their wedding. Unfortunately, they were separated when the gunfire erupted, and Robyn later found out that Bill did not survive.

Bill is remembered for being very smart and always being willing to help others. He was passionate about everything he did and was loved by many.

I would like to extend my condolences to William "Bill" Wolfe, Jr.'s family and friends. Please know that the city of Las Vegas, the State of Nevada, and the whole country grieve with you.

THANKING ALZHEIMER'S AMBASSADORS

(Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. THOMPSON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, earlier today I met with Christie Glick in my Bellefonte office. Christie is an Alzheimer's ambassador in my district, and through the Alzheimer's Ambassador Program, people like Christie work throughout the country to connect with Members of Congress and share their personal experiences with Alzheimer's disease.

Alzheimer's is the sixth leading cause of death in the United States, and it has reached crisis proportions. There is no effective treatment, no means of prevention, and no method of slowing the progression of this disease. Sadly, one in three seniors will die with the disease.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 5 million Americans were living with Alzheimer's disease in the year 2013. That number is expected to almost triple to 14 million by the year 2050.

Mr. Speaker, Alzheimer's not only has a devastating impact on those who are diagnosed with the disease, but also their caregivers and loved ones. My own mom, Mary Thompson, lived with Alzheimer's for 10 years until it took her life.

Mr. Speaker, I thank Christie and all of the Alzheimer's ambassadors for the important work that they do to raise awareness about Alzheimer's disease and to never stop searching for a cure.

RECOGNIZING JOCELYN DORSEY

(Mr. JOHNSON of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. JOHNSON of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the historic retirement of broadcast pioneer and Atlanta, Georgia, treasure, Jocelyn Dorsey. She is really a national treasure.

Jocelyn's list of achievements and accolades are too long for me to recite here, but needless to say, her groundbreaking 40-plus-year career has served as an inspiration to so many, and she has been a role model to so many of us, not just African Americans, but all Americans, all Georgians. So we tip our hats to her and wish her the best in her retirement. I understand that long-distance motorcycle trips may very well be in her future.

I hope that she will keep us abreast of her exploits in the future. We will miss her but know that she will always be in our hearts, and we will always look forward to hearing about her life as she proceeds on.

So I congratulate Jocelyn Dorsey for a job well done.

THE 12TH WOMAN

(Mr. POE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, last week I was joined in the House gallery by five incredible young women. Each of them has their own story of survival. Each was sexually assaulted while in college. They call themselves the 12th Woman.

Mr. Speaker, one in five women will be sexually assaulted while in college in the United States. Sexual assault is a crime that tries to steal the dignity, self-respect, and humanity of the victim.

Mr. Speaker, the 12th Woman has something to say about that. They came to Congress and publicly told their heartbreaking stories on the steps of our Capitol, demanding change not only at their own school, Texas A&M, but nationwide. These ladies are determined not only to be survivors, but victors over their assault.

Mr. Speaker, my grandmother taught me that there is no stopping a bold, tenacious, Texas woman who has made up her mind.

Abbie, Meghan, Sydney, Kirsten, and Nikki have made up their minds with unwavering resolve that sexual assault on campus will stop.

And that is just the way it is.

PUTIN'S DANGEROUS ACTIONS

(Ms. KAPTUR asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. KAPTUR. Mr. Speaker, like a bull in a china shop, President Trump bulldozed his way through the NATO summit, offending our allies, and then in Helsinki was shamefully servile to Russia's autocratic ruler, Vladimir Putin. Autocrat Putin boasts a long list of brutal and violent threats to liberty here at home and abroad.

In early 2014, Russian forces illegally invaded Ukraine's Crimea and the Donbass region. Thousands have been killed and millions of Ukrainians displaced.

On February 27, 2015, Russian freedom fighter, Boris Nemtsov, was gunned down outside the Kremlin's crimson walls.

In the 2016 election, Russian intelligence services used social media and cyber attacks to target our democratic elections and those of several of our allies.

According to the Committee to Protect Journalists, 58 Russian journalists have been brutally murdered since 1992.

Mr. Speaker, Russia is "Murder Incorporated" under Putin's abhorrent rule.

I include in the RECORD a long list of some of Russia's brutal, murderous actions.

BRUTAL AND UNDEMOCRATIC ACTIONS OF DICTATOR VLADIMIR PUTIN'S RUSSIA

2000—Putin was supposed to face a second-round runoff in the 2000 presidential election, had it not been for widespread fraud. Biased coverage by large media outlets controlled by the Russian state and Kremlin supporters can be accredited for this. (Freedom House)

2003—Mikhail Khodorkovsky is arrested by Russian authorities and charged with fraud. The trial was criticized for lack of due process. Charges against him were grounded in reasonable suspicion.

2003—Russia ranked 86 out of 133 countries in Transparency International's 2003 Corruption Perceptions Index.

2003—Russia saw a significant deterioration of fundamental rights and the emergence of an increasingly aggressive foreign
