PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Eternal God, in these challenging and unpredictable times, we look to You for guidance. You are the source of our strength and the center of our joy.

Remind our lawmakers that You are prepared to shower them with wisdom if they would only request it. Thank You for inviting our Senators to ask and receive, to seek and find, and to knock and open closed doors. Bless our legislators with productivity and progress for the glory of Your Name.

Today and always, let Your will be done on Earth as it is done in Heaven.

We pray in Your strong Name. Amen.

NOMINATION OF BRETT KAVANAUGH

Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, tomorrow morning, the Senate and the American people will hear from Judge Brett Kavanaugh and Dr. Christine Blasey Ford under oath. We will hear sworn testimony from both of them regarding the allegation of 30-plus-year-old misconduct that Dr. Ford has raised.

It goes without saying, but it bears repeating: Sexual assault is completely abhorrent. Everyone deserves to be safe. So I am glad Dr. Ford will be heard.

I would like to particularly thank Chairman GRASSLEY, who worked tirelessly to establish a fair process and a secure, comfortable setting for this to take place. He gave Dr. Ford the opportunity to testify in public or in private or to speak with investigators who would meet her anywhere she wished or to conduct the entire interview by phone. He has brought a patient professionalism to this process—one that stands in stark contrast to those on the other side of the aisle who self-describe as “Spartacus” and play to the television cameras. Dr. Ford will be heard, thanks to Chairman GRASSLEY and despite the irresponsibility of Senate Democrats, who ignored her allegation for weeks and then discarded her request for confidentiality and leaked it to the press.

Let me walk you through this again. The ranking Democrat on the Judiciary Committee received a letter from Dr. Ford all the way back in July in which she stated her allegation and asked for confidentiality. That was in July. The committee’s thorough review of Judge Kavanaugh was just getting started. There was ample time to vet this allegation in a serious and bipartisan manner that would have maintained confidentiality and honored Dr. Ford’s request for privacy.

All the Democrats needed to do was go through proper channels and share the information with their Republican colleagues so the committee could tackle it together, but that is not what Senate Democrats did. This is the Democratic caucus whose leader, my friend the senior Senator from New York, said just hours after Judge Kavanaugh was nominated that he would “oppose him with everything I’ve got.” This was just hours after the nomination. This is the Democratic caucus of which several Members preemptively announced fill-in-the-blank opposition to any nominee before
