HONORING BARBARA HANKINS
 WITH CALIFORNIA'S THIRD DIS-TRICT WOMAN OF THE YEAR
 AWARD

HON. JOHN GARAMENDI

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 26, 2018

Mr. GARAMENDI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Barbara Hankins as a woman of the year. She has devoted herself to the selfless service of others. She began her career as a school nurse in 1988 and began her path to becoming an important force for positive change in Colusa Unified School District. Throughout the years, Ms. Hankins has served the students and families of Colusa County with fairness and dedication, proving her willingness and ability to provide quality and exceptional service. In addition to her work as a school nurse, Ms. Hankins has served as a steadfast supporter, volunteer, and organizer for various anti-drug groups and programs. Since 1994 she has been an advisor for the Four Seasons anti-tobacco and anti-drug group where her selflessness has allowed her to connect deeply with the community youth, including non-traditional and underserved students. By implementing Red Ribbon Week campaigns throughout the school district, Ms. Hankins has led the fight against drug abuse, in large part by consistently advocating for her students to become the change they wish to see. She has consistently supported her students along their journey of self-discovery by helping them find their talents and value their self-worth. In this way, every student, mentor, and fellow volunteer who knows her can attest to her zeal for making every individual feel cared for. Even during the floods near her residence in Meridian, Ms. Hankins' first response was to work to ensure the safety, security, and comfort of those around her.

HONORING THE NEW HAMPSHIRE
 PRESERVATION ALLIANCE

HON. ANN M. KUSTER

OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 26, 2018

Ms. KUSTER of New Hampshire. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the New Hampshire Preservation Alliance.

For years, the New Hampshire Preservation Alliance has worked to transform the future of our state by protecting our history and our culture. They have saved barns in our countryside, Main Street communities in our valleys, and preserved countless historic locations. I am so grateful for the benefits our community has reaped from the stewardship, rehabilitation, and restoration efforts of the New Hampshire Preservation Alliance.

On behalf of my constituents across New Hampshire's Second Congressional District, I want to thank the New Hampshire Preservation Alliance for all they have done to preserve the integrity of our Granite State. I look forward to our continued work together.

HONORING PAUL BOUDREAU,
 PRESIDENT, MORRIS COUNTY
 CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

HON. RODNEY P. FRELINGHUYSEN

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 26, 2018

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Paul Boudreau on the occasion of his retirement after 10 years as President of the Morris County Chamber of Commerce, located in the Borough of Florham Park, County of Morris, New Jersey.

Paul A. Boudreau is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire in Durham. After receiving his Masters Degree at the University of Maine, he ran successfully for the Maine House of Representatives in 1976 and 1978. Paul also worked for Scott Paper Company, after his two legislative terms, as Manager of Public Affairs, New England Region.

In 1983, he joined Allied Corporation (Honeywell) and moved to Detroit, Michigan as manager, government and public affairs, for company operations in six mid-western states. In 1996, he returned to Morris Township, New Jersey, as Director of State Government Relations. In this capacity, he was responsible for state and local government relations in North America. He also served for six years as Executive Director of the Honeywell Foundation and was a member of the company's Political Action Committee Board for ten years. During his career at Honeywell, he worked on business-critical issues covering twenty-five states. He retired as Vice President of State and Corporate Relations after twenty-five years with the company.

Paul joined the Chamber in the summer of 2008. He has led the effort to grow the organization from 660 members in 2008 to 840 today. Under his leadership the chamber's Economic Development Corporation is providing value added services to organizations to retain and growing jobs in Morris County. He has served in leadership roles with a number of state and local organizations including
