

Who all along the way touched every woman, child, and man with your grace And became The Father of All Letter Writers through the decades at such a prolific pace
With your photographic memory where nothing erased
A real American hero who the accolades upon him would not let them place An a American sportsman of the highest order, as competition and fun as ever you chased As you and your buddy Arnold stressed, the importance of fitness to our children to embrace
And being around and on the sea, your soul was so graced While, in your boat like a bat out of hell all around Kennebunkport you raced Jumping out of a helicopter at 90 as Father Time could not keep pace Born of wealth, privilege, and prestige you could have led a life of such ease paced Raised by a great Mother and Father who watched, their work of art to public service race
And like the cowboy and pioneer you were and became, out to the West with your Bar to your new love TEXAS as oilman to stake your claim And after great success realizing that it was in public service your heart should remain Rising up to Congress, Vice President, to President to be the best not looking for fame
With your life's creed of God, Family, and Country became your life's refrain As A Man For All Seasons, for so many reasons your lessons to all of our children we must train
Part of the greatest generation as a warrior Saving The World as back home you came As you were always A Man On A Mission, to bless our Nation and World with your wise decisions, time and again And now George it is time Rise, rise up to heaven with tears in your eyes
As the love of your life Barbara, and your precious little girl Robin you'll find "Daddy its been so long" and Bar says "now were all together where we belong" And don't worry George you don't have to eat broccoli in heaven all day long That's the other place where the bad ones belong
As our Lord says,
"George, and you never let me down",
"I'm so glad I pulled you From The Sea where I found, on the wings of a dove" Rise, up to heaven my son
At Ease your time on earth is done As a new Angel in The Army of Our Lord in heaven mission has just begun RISE, MISSION ACCOMPLISHED my son

RECOGNIZING DOWNTOWN AURORA VISUAL ARTS

HON. MIKE COFFMAN

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, December 6, 2018

Mr. COFFMAN. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor to rise today to recognize Downtown Aurora Visual Arts. This non-profit organization located in my hometown of Aurora, Colorado provides art education courses for students of all ages. Originally founded in 1993, Downtown Aurora Visual Arts has become a place for children and young people to fuel their creativity and to develop character through an artistic avenue.

For the younger artists, Downtown Aurora Visual Arts' OASIS Studio program introduces them to pottery, sculpture, and a variety of other art projects. Doing so allows their imagination to grow. The development of imagination is incredibly important to the overall development of children. Such programs are especially important after school and during the summer months when children are not in school.

Another program, 'Job Training in the Arts' familiarizes middle and high school students with the critical workforce skills needed to succeed in a real job. It emphasizes teamwork, respect, personal responsibility, and the development of problem-solving skills in the workplace. The programs that Downtown Aurora Visual Arts provides promote positive youth development and encourage students to address issues and concepts that personally impact them.

I am very proud to note that Downtown Aurora Visual Arts was awarded the 2014 National Arts and Humanities Youth Program Award. This award serves as the nation's highest honor for out-of-school arts and humanities programs focused on America's young people. Additionally, I would like to recognize the leadership of the Executive Director Susan Jensen who was awarded 2018 Arts and Society Award from the Bonfils Stanton Foundation.

Organizations like Downtown Aurora Visual Arts help make the city of Aurora, and our greater community the wonderful place it is today. I am honored to salute Downtown Aurora Visual Arts' achievements and look forward to its continued success in the years to come.

2007 DEPLOYMENT OF MARINE
SPECIAL OPERATIONS TASK FORCEHON. DANA ROHRABACHER

OF CALIFORNIA

Thursday, December 6, 2018

Mr. ROHRABACHER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to inform my colleagues that on March 4, 2007 the first deployment of a Marine Special Operations Task Force to combat in Afghanistan was conducting a combat reconnaissance patrol in the village of Bati Kot, Afghanistan near the Afghan-Pakistan border when they were attacked by enemy forces who used a car bomb and a complex ambush consisting of groups of fighters on both sides of the road and a sniper element. The Marines courageously counter-attacked the enemy with accurate firepower and immediately reported the situation from the ambush site using satellite radio and data transmissions to their special operations command center as was factually proven through eye-witness testimony during legal proceedings.

The most significant element of this engagement was the fact that the Marine unit did not choose the battlefield. As so often has happened, the terrorist element who attacked the Marines intentionally chose to launch their ambush while in an area where many non-combatants would be put in grave danger. The terrorists were hiding behind innocent residents knowing many would be caught in the crossfire.

The Marines smartly departed the ambush site after five minutes and continued to receive enemy gunfire and sniper fire from multiple enemy positions. Twenty minutes following the attack the Marines returned to their patrol base and were informed that reports of Marines murdering Afghan civilians including women and children had already been announced in the international media. These reports of Marines committing civilian atrocities swiftly grew in the international media and a command investigation was ordered by the Commanding General of the Special Operations Command Central in Tampa, Florida. Only one day following the arrival of the command investigator who had heard testimony from only ten Marines who were on the patrol the entire Marine Special Operations Task Force consisting of 120 personnel were ordered out of Afghanistan and faced a criminal investigation led by Naval Criminal Investigation Services into accusations of negligent homicide.

The Marines returned home in disgrace, several were relieved of their duties prior to the investigation being completed and were subject to greater slander by the international media of a war crime that alleged killing 19 Afghan civilians and wounding 50 Afghan civilians without ever having any prima facie evidence of a bullet, a body or even a photograph of a murdered Afghan.

NCIS' investigation lasted over one year and utilized techniques that centered on strong arm tactics against two Marine witnesses of Latino ethnicity to include repeated coercion and false threats made against their families and careers if they did not comply with their unlawful requests for taking an "ordered" polygraphs and signing NCIS' prepared witness statements.

Seven of these Marines who were falsely accused of war crimes were continually vilified in the press, families and careers were ruined from countless statements in the press for over one year after the alleged massacre took place. Over four months following a 3.5 week courtroom trial the Marine Corps Central Command released a short statement that, "the Marines 'acted appropriately' according to the rules of engagement and tactics, techniques and procedures for a complex ambush." This statement enraged many Afghans and led to rioting in Afghanistan meanwhile the press continued to print libelous statements for eight more years accusing the Marines of having committed these crimes and not being punished. However, the Marines continued to serve their Corps and faithfully deployed to combat in Afghanistan and other locations overseas, with these repeated libelous statements being written and believed as facts in the media, books and many military senior commands.

The effects were devastating to the seven Marines health (including fighting cancer and diabetes), destroying marriages and the careers of these Marines who continued to faithfully serve.

It is time that the record be clearly be told that the Marines from the first Marine Special Operations Task Force were proven in court to have been attacked by enemy forces and the Marines fought with courage as they killed enemy forces, immediately and accurately reported the events to their command and were subsequently unethically interrogated by NCIS and in the media using methods that caused permanent destruction to their health, families and careers.

These reports of war crimes were unsubstantiated, and these Marines deserve to be recognized for their courage as they encountered the enemy who inflicted the first casualty on a U.S. Marine from the Marine Special Operations Command and these Marines all deserve their God given rights to pursue happiness and not suffer the professional embarrassment of these false accusations of war crimes.
