The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the gentlewoman from California wish to present argument on the parliamentary question of whether the text presents a question of the privileges of the House?

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I do.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentlewoman is recognized on the question of order.

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, the House and Senate Democrats and Republicans of the Appropriations Committee have worked hard and long to come up with bipartisan legislation to meet the needs of the American people.

Right now, we are in the midst of Congress delaying. The market is down almost 5 points for this and other reasons. This is not the time for us to shut down the government.

We have a product developed in a bipartisan way for the reasons described by the Clerk, who read it, and it is privileged because of the time of the year, because of the extent of the concern that the American people have, and because of the harm that will be done to them if the government shuts down. It would be totally irresponsible.

That is why I consider it a privilege to rise to say: Let’s keep the government open by passing this bipartisan legislation first introduced by Congresswoman LOWEY, our distinguished Democratic leader on the Appropriations Committee.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair is prepared to rule.

The text presented proposes legislative language to continue funding for certain elements of the U.S. Government. The text, by proposing legislative language unachievable by a simple resolution, does not qualify as a question of the privileges of the House.

For what purpose does the gentlewoman from California seek recognition?

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I appeal the ruling of the Chair.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is: Shall the decision of the Chair stand as the judgment of the House?

For what purpose does the gentleman from California seek recognition?

MOTION TO TABLE

Mr. MCCARTHY. Mr. Speaker, I have a motion at the desk.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Clerk will report the motion.

The Clerk read as follows:

Mr. MCCARTHY of California moves to lay the appeal on the table.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion to table.

The question was taken; and the Speaker pro tempore announced that the ayes appeared to have it.

RECORDED VOTE

Ms. PELOSI. Mr. Speaker, I demand a recorded vote.

A recorded vote was ordered.

The vote was taken by electronic device, and there were—ayes 187, noes 170, not voting 75, as follows:
