Ms. MURKOWSKI, from the Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, submitted the following

R E P O R T

[To accompany H.R. 267]

[Including cost estimate of the Congressional Budget Office]

The Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, to which was referred the bill (H.R. 267) to redesignate the Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site in the State of Georgia, and for other purposes, having considered the same, reports favorably thereon without amendment and recommends that the bill do pass.

PURPOSE

The purpose of H.R. 267 is to redesignate the Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site in the State of Georgia as the Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historical Park.

BACKGROUND AND NEED

Public Law 96-428 established the Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site in Atlanta, Georgia, to preserve, protect, and interpret for the benefit, inspiration, and education of present and future generations, the places where Martin Luther King, Jr. was born, where he lived, worked, and worshiped, and where he is buried, while ensuring connections are made to his life and legacy.

Since 1980, Congress has twice modified the boundaries of the Historic Site and Preservation District (Public Laws 102-575 and 108-314). H.R. 267 further modifies the boundaries to include the Prince Hall Masonic Temple, where the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) established its initial headquarters on Auburn Avenue in Atlanta, Georgia, in 1957. This historic civil rights organization was co-founded by Dr. King, who also served as its first president. The SCLC has now relocated to another building on the same block. Including the Prince Hall Masonic Temple within the unit's boundary would enable the National Park Service (NPS) to provide technical assistance to the building's owners with respect to repairs, renovations, and maintenance to help preserve its historic integrity.

H.R. 267 also redesignates the National Historic Site as a National Historical Park. The titles given to various areas managed by the NPS vary widely, but Congress has generally tried to give similar titles to areas that contain certain common features. National Historical Parks are commonly areas of greater physical extent and complexity than National Historic Sites, which may only contain a single building. The redesignation of the Historic Site as a National Historical Park will make it Georgia's first National Historical Park.

LEGISLATIVE HISTORY

Representative Lewis and 30 cosponsors introduced H.R. 267 on January 4, 2017. On March 15, 2017, H.R. 267 was passed by the House of Representatives by a voice vote.

In the 114th Congress, Representative Lewis introduced similar legislation, H.R. 2880, on June 24, 2015. The bill was reported favorably by the House Committee on Natural Resources with an amendment (H. Rept. 114-431) on February 3, 2016. The House of Representatives passed H.R. 2880 by voice vote on February 24, 2016. H.R. 2880 was received in the Senate on February 25, 2016. The Subcommittee on National Parks held a hearing on H.R. 2880 on March 17, 2016. The Committee on Energy and Natural Resources ordered the bill favorably reported on July 13, 2016 (S. Report 114-337).

The Committee on Energy and Natural Resources met in open business session on March 30, 2017, and ordered S. 267 favorably reported.

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION

The Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources, in open business session on March 30, 2017, by a majority voice vote of a quorum present, recommends that the Senate pass H.R. 267.

Junior, National Historic Site” shall be deemed to be a reference to “Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historical Park.”

COST AND BUDGETARY CONSIDERATIONS

The following estimate of costs of this measure has been provided by the Congressional Budget Office.

H.R. 267—Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historical Park Act of 2017

H.R. 267 would redesignate the Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site in Atlanta, Georgia, as a National Historic Park and expand its existing boundaries to include the original headquarters of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC). The SCLC is a civil rights organization co-founded by Dr. King.

Based on information provided by the National Park Service, CBO estimates that any cost to provide financial and technical assistance for maintenance and upkeep of the privately owned headquarters would be insignificant; any such spending would be subject to the availability of appropriated funds.

Enacting H.R. 267 would not affect direct spending or revenues; therefore, pay-as-you-go procedures do not apply. CBO estimates that enacting H.R. 267 would not increase net direct spending or on-budget deficits in any of the four consecutive 10-year periods beginning in 2028.

H.R. 267 contains no intergovernmental or private-sector mandates as defined in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act and would not affect the budgets of state, local, or tribal governments.

The CBO staff contact for this estimate is Jon Sperl. The estimate was approved by H. Samuel Papenfuss, Deputy Assistant Director for Budget Analysis.

REGULATORY IMPACT EVALUATION

In compliance with paragraph 11(b) of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, the Committee makes the following evaluation of the regulatory impact which would be incurred in carrying out H.R. 267. The bill is not a regulatory measure in the sense of imposing Government-established standards or significant economic responsibilities on private individuals and businesses.

No personal information would be collected in administering the program. Therefore, there would be no impact on personal privacy.

Little, if any, additional paperwork would result from the enactment of H.R. 267, as ordered reported.

CONGRESSIONALLY DIRECTED SPENDING

H.R. 267, as ordered reported, does not contain any congressionally directed spending items, limited tax benefits, or limited tariff benefits as defined in rule XLIV of the Standing Rules of the Senate.

EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

Because H.R. 267 is similar to legislation considered by the Committee in the 114th Congress, the Committee did not request Executive Agency views. The testimony provided by the NPS at the hearing before the National Parks Subcommittee on March 17, 2016, follows:

STATEMENT OF PEGGY O'DELL, DEPUTY DIRECTOR FOR OPERATIONS, NATIONAL PARK SERVICE, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Mr. Chairman and members of the subcommittee, thank you for the opportunity to present the views of the Department of the Interior on H.R. 2880, a bill to redesignate Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site in the State of Georgia, and for other purposes.

The Department supports H.R. 2880.

This legislation has two components: it would redesignate the National Historic Site as a National Historical Park and modestly expand the site's boundaries to incorporate the Prince Hall Masonic Temple, where the Southern Christian Leadership Conference established its initial headquarters on Auburn Avenue in Atlanta, Georgia in 1957. This historic and distinguished civil rights organization was co-founded by Dr. King, who also served as its first president.

The Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site was established by Public Law 96-428 on October 10, 1980. The historic site, located in Atlanta, Georgia, encompasses 38.38 acres, 18.08 of which are Federally owned. The historic elements of the site include: Dr. King's birth home at 501 Auburn Avenue; the original Ebenezer Baptist Church, which he co-pastored with his father from 1960-1968; the Martin Luther King, Jr. Center for Non-violent Social Change, Inc. (commonly referred to as the "The King Center"); the Birth Home Block which contains portions of the historically African-American Sweet Auburn residential community; and, Historic Fire Station No. 6 where white firefighters operated within a predominantly African American community. Approximately 700,000 national and international visitors come to the site each year.

H.R. 2880 would redesignate Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site as the Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historical Park. National historical parks are commonly areas of greater physical extent and complexity than national historic sites. Both designations denote units of the national park system, both are considered to be national parks, and both would be subject to the same laws and eligible for the same funding streams. The change in designation would not alter the management or operation of the park in any way. However, designating a unit as a national historical park, as opposed to a national historic site, is a way to let potential visitors know that the unit probably contains a greater collection of resources, or properties, than a national historic site, which may simply be one building. It is a more accurate designation for the collection of resources at this park, and we believe that the re-designation will increase awareness of the park.

H.R. 2880 would also expand the boundary of the Martin Luther King, Junior, National Historic Site to include the Prince Hall Masonic Temple at 332–34 Auburn Avenue in Atlanta. Prince Hall was the historic national headquarters for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference where Dr. King was a co-founder and first president. Today, the SCLC is located in a new facility on the same block. Including the Prince Hall Masonic Temple within the unit’s boundary will permit the National Park Service to provide technical assistance to the building’s owners with respect to repairs, renovations, and maintenance that would preserve its historic integrity.

H.R. 2880 also updates the official park boundary map to recognize a land exchange between the National Park Service and the City of Atlanta that was authorized by Public Law 108–314 in 2005. That exchange permitted the National Park Service to exchange a vacant lot with no historic significance for city-owned property that has enabled the National Park Service to establish easy street access to the park’s visitor center and museum. H.R. 2880 replaces the previous park boundary map with a new map that incorporates both the land exchange authorized by Public Law 108–314 and the boundary expansion proposed in H.R. 2880.

Mr. Chairman, this concludes my statement. I would be happy to answer any questions that you or other members of the subcommittee may have.

CHANGES IN EXISTING LAW

In compliance with paragraph 12 of rule XXVI of the Standing Rules of the Senate, changes in existing law made by the original bill, as reported, are shown as follows (existing law proposed to be omitted is enclosed in black brackets, new matter is printed in italic, existing law in which no change is proposed is shown in roman):
