

John Dicken

John Dicken is a Director for Health Care issues at the U.S. Government Accountability Office where he directs GAO's evaluations of private health insurance and prescription drug pricing issues. Recent areas of focus for GAO reports under Mr. Dicken's leadership include implementation of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, health benefits offered to federal and U.S. Postal Service employees and retirees, and prescription drug payment and pricing in federal programs including Medicare Part D, Medicaid, and the Departments of Veterans Affairs and Defense. He has also led GAO evaluations of nursing home quality of care and long-term care insurance. He previously held Analyst and Assistant Director positions with GAO's Health Care team. Prior to working at GAO, Mr. Dicken was a Senior Analyst for the Presidential Advisory Commission on Consumer Protection and Quality in the Health Care Industry and a legislative fellow with the majority health staff of the Senate Committee on Labor and Human Resources (since renamed the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions). Mr. Dicken is a graduate of Carleton College and has a Masters in Public Administration from Columbia University.
