16       (a) CONTINUING ELIGIBILITY.—

17                  (1) PART B LOANS.—Section 428J(g) of the 18   Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1078– 19   10(g)) is amended by adding at the end the fol-20   lowing:

21                  “(4) CONTINUING ELIGIBILITY FOR CERTAIN
22   MILITARY SPOUSES.—

23                  “(A) IN GENERAL.—

1                     “(i) COMPLETE BUT NONCONSECU-
2                     TIVE YEARS.—Notwithstanding paragraph
3                     (1) of subsection (b), an individual who is 4                     employed in a full-time teaching position
5                     that meets the requirements of this section
6                     for a period that includes 5 complete but 7                     nonconsecutive years may be eligible for 8                     loan forgiveness pursuant to such sub-
9                     section, if the individual was a qualified
10                    military spouse, as defined in subparagraph
11                    (B)(i), with respect to any year dur-
12                    ing such period for which the individual 13                    was not employed as a full-time teacher in 14                    a school or location meeting the require-
15                    ments of this section.

16                    “(ii) EMPLOYMENT IN DEFENSE DE-
17                    PARTMENT SCHOOLS.—Notwithstanding
18                    paragraph (1) of subsection (b), an indi-
19                    vidual may be eligible for loan forgiveness
20                    pursuant to such subsection, if the indi-
21                    vidual is a qualified military spouse, as de-22                    fined in subparagraph (B)(ii), and the in-
23                    dividual has been employed as a full-time
24                    teacher for 5 complete school years in a
25                    school described in subparagraph (A) of

1 subsection (b)(1) or in a school of the de-
2 fense dependents' education system under
3 the Defense Dependents' Education Act of 4 1978 (20 U.S.C. 921 et seq.) that is lo-
5 cated outside of the United States, and
6 met the requirements of subparagraph (B)
7 of subsection (b)(1).

8 “(B) QUALIFIED MILITARY SPOUSE DE-
9 FINED.—In this paragraph, the term ‘qualified
10 military spouse’ means—

11 “(i) with respect to a year, an indi-
12 vidual who—

13 “(I) during the previous year,
14 served as a teacher in a school or lo-
15 cation meeting the requirements of
16 subparagraph (A) of subsection (b)(1)
17 and met the requirements of subpara-
18 graph (B) of subsection (b)(1);

19 “(II) is the spouse of a member
20 of the Armed Forces who is relocated
21 during the year pursuant to military
22 orders for a permanent change of 23 duty station;

24 “(III) did not serve as a teacher
25 in a school or location meeting the re-

1                    requirements of subparagraph (A) of 2                    subsection (b)(1) during the year or 3                    any portion of the year because the 4                    individual accompanied the spouse to 5                    a new residence as a result of such 6                    military orders; and

7                    “(IV) during the following year,
8                    resumed service as a teacher in a
9                    school or location meeting the require-
10                  ments of subparagraph (A) of sub-
11                  section (b)(1) and met the require-
12                  ments of subparagraph (B) of sub-
13                  section (b)(1); or

14                  “(ii) an individual who is the spouse
15                  of a member of the Armed Forces who is 16                  relocated overseas during a year of employ-
17                  ment as a teacher for which the individual
18                  seeks loan forgiveness under this section
19                  pursuant to military orders for a change of 20                  duty station and the individual accom-
21                  panied the spouse to a new residence over-
22                  seas as a result of such military orders.

23                  “(C) REPORTS TO CONGRESS.—Not later
24                  than 90 days after the end of the second aca-
25                  demic year during which this paragraph is in

1 effect, and every 2 years thereafter, the Sec-
2 retary shall submit to Congress a report de-
3 scribing the number of individuals who, as a re-4 sult of this paragraph, remained eligible for 5 loan forgiveness pursuant to subsection (b) dur-6 ing the 2 most recent academic years.”.

7 (2) PART D LOANS.—Section 460(g) of the 8 Higher Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 1087j(g)) 9 is amended by adding at the end the following:

11 MILITARY SPOUSES.—

12 “(A) IN GENERAL.—

13 “(i) COMPLETE BUT NONCONSECU-
14 TIVE YEARS.—Notwithstanding paragraph
15 (1) of subsection (b), an individual who is
16 employed in a full-time teaching position
17 that meets the requirements of this section
18 for a period that includes 5 complete but 19 nonconsecutive years may be eligible for 20 loan cancellation pursuant to such sub-
21 section, if the individual was a qualified
22 military spouse, as defined in subpara-
23 graph (B)(i), with respect to any year dur-
24 ing such period for which the individual
25 was not employed as a full-time teacher in

1           a school or location meeting the require-
2           ments of this section.

3                 “(ii) EMPLOYMENT IN DEFENSE DE-
4                 PARTMENT SCHOOLS.—Notwithstanding
5                 paragraph (1) of subsection (b), an indi-
6                 vidual may be eligible for loan cancellation
7                 pursuant to such subsection, if the indi-
8                 vidual is a qualified military spouse, as de-
9                 fined in subparagraph (B)(ii), and the in-
10                dividual has been employed as a full-time
11                teacher for 5 complete school years in a
12                school described in subparagraph (A) of 13                subsection (b)(1) or in a school of the de-
14                fense dependents’ education system under 15                the Defense Dependents’ Education Act of 16                1978 (20 U.S.C. 921 et seq.) that is lo-
17                cated outside of the United States, and
18                met the requirements of subparagraph (B)
19                of subsection (b)(1).

20                 “(B) QUALIFIED MILITARY SPOUSE DE-
21                 FINED.—In this paragraph, the term ‘qualified
22                 military spouse’ means—

23                         “(i) with respect to a year, an indi-
24                        vidual who—

1                         “(I) during the previous year,
2                         served as a teacher in a school or lo-
3                         cation meeting the requirements of
4                         subparagraph (A) of subsection (b)(1)
5                         and met the requirements of subpara-
6                         graph (B) of subsection (b)(1);

7                         “(II) is the spouse of a member
8                         of the Armed Forces who is relocated
9                         during the year pursuant to military
10                        orders for a permanent change of 11                        duty station;

12                        “(III) did not serve as a teacher
13                        in a school or location meeting the re-14                        quirements of subparagraph (A) of 15                        subsection (b)(1) during the year or 16                        any portion of the year because the 17                        individual accompanied the spouse to 18                        a new residence as a result of such 19                        military orders; and

20                        “(IV) during the following year,
21                        resumed service as a teacher in a
22                        school or location meeting the require-
23                        ments of subparagraph (A) of sub-
24                        section (b)(1) and met the require-

1                         ments of subparagraph (B) of sub-
2                         section (b)(1); or

3                         “(ii) an individual who is the spouse
4                         of a member of the Armed Forces who is
5                         relocated overseas during a year of employ-
6                         ment as a teacher for which the individual
7                         seeks loan forgiveness under this section
8                         pursuant to military orders for a change of 9                         duty station and the individual accom-
10                         panied the spouse to a new residence over-
11                         seas as a result of such military orders.

12                         “(C) REPORTS TO CONGRESS.—Not later
13                         than 90 days after the end of the second aca-
14                         demic year during which this paragraph is in 15                         effect, and every 2 years thereafter, the Sec-
16                         retary shall submit to Congress a report de-
17                         scribing the number of individuals who, as a re-18                         sult of this paragraph, remained eligible for 19                         loan cancellation pursuant to subsection (b) 20                         during the 2 most recent academic years.”.

21                         (b) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The amendments made by 22                         subsection (a) shall apply with respect to individuals who 23                         first become employed as full-time teachers on or after the 24                         date of the enactment of this Act.
