

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 192

AN ACT

To establish an interagency program to assist countries in North and West Africa to improve immediate and long-term capabilities to counter terrorist threats, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Trans-Sahara Counter-
3 terrorism Partnership Act”.

4 SEC. 2. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

5 It is the sense of Congress that—

6 (1) the Trans-Sahara Counterterrorism Part-
7 nership, launched in 2005, is an interagency pro-
8 gram to assist partner countries in the Sahel and 9 Maghreb regions of Africa on their immediate and 10 long-term capabilities to address terrorist threats
11 and prevent the spread of violent extremism;

12 (2) armed groups and violent Islamist terrorist
13 organizations, such as Al Qaeda in the Islamic 14 Maghreb, Boko Haram, the Islamic State of West
15 Africa, and other affiliated groups, have killed tens
16 of thousands of innocent civilians, displaced popu-
17 lations, destabilized local and national governments,
18 and caused mass human suffering in the affected
19 communities;

20 (3) it is in the national security interest of the 21 United States to combat the spread of radical
22 Islamist extremism and build partner countries’ ca-
23 pacity to combat these threats in Africa;

24 (4) extremist movements exploit vulnerable and 25 marginalized communities suffering from poverty,

1 lack of economic opportunity (particularly among 2 youth populations), and weak governance; and

3 (5) to address critical security, political, eco-
4 nomic, and humanitarian challenges in these regions
5 of Africa, a coordinated, interagency approach is 6 needed to appropriately allocate resources, share re-7 sponsibility, de-conflict programs, and maximize the 8 effectiveness of United States defense, diplomatic,
9 and development capabilities.

10 SEC. 3. TRANS-SAHARA COUNTERTERRORISM PARTNER-
11 SHIP.

12 (a) TRANS-SAHARA COUNTERTERRORISM PARTNER-
