

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2116

AN ACT

To enhance stabilization of conflict-affected areas and prevent violence and fragility globally, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Global Fragility Act”.

3 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

4 Congress finds the following:

5 (1) According to the United Nations, an un-
6 precedented 68.5 million people around the world,
7 the highest level ever recorded, are currently forcibly
8 displaced from their homes.

9 (2) According to the World Bank, violence and 10 violent conflict are now the leading causes of dis-
11 placement and food insecurity worldwide, driving 80
12 percent of humanitarian needs, with the same con-
13 flicts accounting for the majority of forcibly dis-
14 placed persons every year since 1991.

15 (3) According to the Institute for Economics
16 and Peace, violence containment costs the global 17 economy $14.76 trillion a year, or 12.4 percent of 18 the world’s GDP.

19 (4) Violence and violent conflict underpin many 20 of the United States Government’s key national se-21 curity challenges. Notably, violent conflicts allow for 22 environments in which terrorist organizations recruit
23 and thrive, while the combination of violence, cor-
24 ruption, poverty, poor governance, and underdevelop-
25 ment often enables transnational gangs and criminal

1 networks to wreak havoc and commit atrocities
2 worldwide.

3 (5) According to research by the University of 4 Maryland and University of Pittsburgh, exposure to 5 violence increases support for violence and violent 6 extremism. Research increasingly finds exposure to 7 violence as a predictor of future participation in vio-
8 lence, including violent extremism.

9 (6) United States foreign policy and assistance
10 efforts in highly violent and fragile states remain
11 governed by an outdated patchwork of authorities 12 that prioritize responding to immediate needs rather 13 than solving the problems that cause them.

14 (7) Lessons learned over the past 20 years, doc-15 umented by the 2013 Special Inspector General for 16 Iraq Reconstruction Lessons Learned Study, the 17 2016 Fragility Study Group report, and the 2018
18 Special Inspector General for Afghanistan Lessons
19 Learned Study on Stabilization, show that effective,
20 sustained United States efforts to reduce violence
21 and stabilize fragile and violence-affected states re-
22 quire clearly defined goals and strategies, adequate
23 long-term funding, rigorous and iterative conflict
24 analysis, coordination across the United States Gov-
25 ernment, including strong civil-military coordination,

1 attention to the problem of corruption, and integra-
2 tion with and leadership from national and sub-na-
3 tional partners, including local civil society organiza-
4 tions, traditional justice systems, and local govern-
5 ance structures.

6 (8) The “Stabilization Assistance Review” re-
7 leased in 2018 by the Departments of State and De-
8 fense and the United States Agency for Inter-
9 national Development states, “The United States
10 has strong national security and economic interests
11 in reducing levels of violence and promoting stability
12 in areas affected by armed conflict.”. The Review 13 further states, “Stabilization is an inherently polit-
14 ical endeavor that requires aligning U.S. Govern-
15 ment efforts—diplomatic engagement, foreign assist-
16 ance, and defense—toward supporting locally legiti-
17 mate authorities and systems to peaceably manage 18 conflict and prevent violence.”.

19 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

20 It is the policy of the United States to—

21 (1) ensure that all relevant Federal depart-
22 ments and agencies coordinate to achieve coherent,
23 long-term goals for programs designed to stabilize
24 conflict-affected areas and prevent violence and fra-25 gility globally, including when implementing the

1 Global Fragility Initiative established pursuant to 2 section 6;

3 (2) seek to improve global, regional, and local 4 coordination of relevant international and multilat-5 eral development and donor organizations regarding 6 efforts to stabilize conflict-affected areas and pre-7 vent violence and fragility globally, and, where prac-
8 ticable and appropriate, align such efforts with mul-
9 tilateral goals and indicators;

10 (3) expand and enhance the effectiveness of 11 United States foreign assistance programs and ac-
12 tivities to stabilize conflict-affected areas and pre-
13 vent violence and fragility globally;

14 (4) support the research and development of ef-
15 fective approaches to stabilize conflict-affected areas
16 and prevent violence and fragility globally, and data 17 collection efforts relevant to such approaches; and 18 (5) improve the tools and authorities for assess-19 ment, monitoring, and evaluation needed to enable 20 learning and adaptation by such relevant Federal de-21 partments and agencies working to stabilize conflict-

22 affected areas and prevent violence and fragility
23 globally.

3 It is the sense of Congress that the President, the 4 Secretary of State, the Administrator of USAID, the Sec-
5 retary of Defense, and the heads of other relevant Federal 6 departments and agencies should work with the appro-
7 priate congressional committees to provide sufficient types 8 and levels of funding to—

9 (1) allow for more adaptive and responsive poli-
10 icy and program planning, implementation, and scal-
11 ing under the Global Fragility Initiative established
12 pursuant to section 6, including through more flexi-
13 ble funding mechanisms and exemptions from spe-
14 cific and minimum funding levels when such exemp-
15 tions would make such programs better able to re-16 spond to local needs, the results of monitoring and 17 evaluation, or changed circumstances in relevant
18 countries;

19 (2) better integrate the initiative and other con-
20 flict and violence reduction objectives and activities
21 into other policy and program areas, where appro-22 priate; and

23 (3) support transparent and accountable multi-

9 (i) ranking on recognized global fra-

14 Bank Harmonized List of Fragile Situa-

18 (2) in a manner that ensures that—

19 (A) not fewer than three countries or re-

23 among the highest in the world;

24 (B) not fewer than three countries or re-
25 gions are designated as “Prevention Countries”

1 or “Prevention Regions”, as the case may be,

3 than such levels in Stabilization Countries or 4 Stabilization Regions but risk factors for vio-
5 lence or fragility are significant;

6 (C) countries and regions selected are in 7 the areas of responsibility of at least three geo-
8 graphic bureaus of the Department of State; 9 and

2           priate local actors, including government and civil 3           society entities and organizations led by women, 4           youth, or under-represented communities, have an
