A BILL

To improve diversity and inclusion in the workforce of national security agencies, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “National Security Di-
5 versity and Inclusion Workforce Act of 2019”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) The greatest national asset of the United 2 States in protecting the homeland and advancing the 3 interests of the United States abroad is the talent
4 and diversity of the national security workforce.

5 (2) The United States has made important
6 progress toward harnessing the extraordinary range
7 of backgrounds, cultures, perspectives, skills, and ex-
8 periences of the population of the United States to-9 ward keeping the United States safe and strong.

10 (3) The 2015 National Security Strategy recog-
11 nized that the diversity of the national security
12 workforce of the United States is a strategic asset
13 that enhances the ability of the United States to 14 lead on the global stage.

15 (4) In March 2011, the Military Leadership Di-
16 versity Commission demonstrated that minorities
17 and women are still underrepresented among the top
18 leadership of the Armed Forces, as compared with 19 the members they lead.

20 (5) Although African Americans, Latinos or 21 Hispanics, Native Americans, and Asians represent 22 34 percent of the workforce of the United States, in 23 2016, only 10 and 13 percent, respectively, of the 24 senior positions in the civil service and the Foreign

1 Service at the Department of State were occupied by 2 members of these groups.

3 (6) As of 2015, African Americans, Latinos or 4 Hispanics, Native Americans, and Asians rep-
5 resented only 22 percent of the officer corps of the 6 Armed Forces, far less than the enlisted forces they 7 lead, 40 percent of the members of which are from 8 these groups.

9 (7) In the intelligence community, African 10 Americans, Latinos or Hispanics, Native Americans,
11 and Asians represented 24 percent of the employees,
12 but only 11 percent of the senior positions.

13 (8) The percentages of Latinos or Hispanics as 14 part of the overall Federal workforce and in senior 15 positions in the Federal workforce are even lower, at 16 8 percent and 4 percent, respectively, as compared 17 to the general population of the United States,
18 which is 17 percent Latino or Hispanic.

19 (9) Latinos or Hispanics represented only a 20 fraction of the senior positions at the Department of 21 State, 3 percent and 5 percent, respectively, for posi-
22 tions in the civil service and Foreign Service, only 1
23 percent for the officer corps of the Armed Forces,
24 and 3 percent for senior positions in the intelligence
25 community.

1 (10) With regard to gender diversity, of the in-
2 dividuals in senior positions in the civil service or the 3 Foreign Service at the Department of State 39 per-4 cent and 31 percent are female, respectively. For the 5 Department of Defense, 24 percent of the individ-
6 uals in senior civilian positions are female, of the 7 senior grades of the Armed Forces, 8 percent of the 8 officers are female, and 12 percent of enlisted mem-
9 bers of the Armed Forces are females. Of the indi-
10 viduals in senior positions in the intelligence commu-
11 nity, 29 percent are female, compared to the overall
12 Federal workforce, which is 33.7 percent female.

13 (11) In concert with the findings of the Military
14 Leadership Diversity Commission, the amendments
15 made by section 519 of the National Defense Au-
16 thorization Act for Fiscal Year 2013 (Public Law 17 112–239; 126 Stat. 1721) mandated that the Armed 18 Forces develop and implement a plan to accurately
19 measure the efforts of the Department of Defense
20 and Coast Guard to “achieve a dynamic, sustainable 21 level of members of the armed forces (including re-22 serve components) that, among both commissioned 23 officers and senior enlisted personnel of each armed 24 force, will reflect the diverse population of the 25 United States eligible to serve in the armed forces,

1 including gender specific, racial, and ethnic popu-
2 lations.”.

3 (12) The amendments made by section 1011 of 4 the Intelligence Reform and Terrorism Prevention
5 Act of 2004 (Public Law 108–458; 118 Stat. 3643)
6 called on the intelligence community to prescribe 7 personnel policies and programs that ensure its per-8 sonnel “are sufficiently diverse for purposes of the 9 collection and analysis of intelligence through the re-
10 cruitment and training of women, minorities, and in-11 dividuals with diverse ethnic, cultural, and linguistic 12 backgrounds”.

13 (13) The Department of State Authorities Act, 14 Fiscal Year 2017 (Public Law 114–323), urges the 15 State Department to promote a diverse representa-
16 tion among mid- and senior-level career professionals
17 and section 101 of the Foreign Service Act of 1980
18 (22 U.S.C. 3901) urges the Department of State to 19 develop policies to encourage the entry into and ad-
20 vancement in the Foreign Service by persons from 21 all segments of American society.

22 SEC. 3. STATEMENT OF POLICY.

23 It is the policy of the United States that—

24 (1) in order to protect the homeland and ad-
25 vance the interests of the United States abroad, na-

1 tional security agencies of the Federal Government
2 must have a workforce that reflects the rich com-
3 position and talent of its citizenry;

4 (2) the skills, knowledge, perspectives, ideas,
5 and experiences of all of the members of the work-
6 force of national security agencies contribute to the 7 vitality and success of their national security mis-
8 sion;

9 (3) promoting diversity and inclusion within the 10 national security workforce must be a joint effort
11 and requires engagement by senior leadership, man-
12 agers, and the entire workforce, as well as effective
13 collaboration among those responsible for human re-
14 sources, equal employment opportunity, and diver-
15 sity and inclusion issues; and

16 (4) as the United States becomes more diverse 17 and the challenges it faces more complex, the United 18 States must continue to invest in policies to recruit,
