6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

1 (1) There are an estimated 70,000,000 adults
2 in the United States with an arrest or conviction
3 history.

4 (2) Nearly 700,000 adults reenter their commu-
5 nities after incarceration every year.

6 (3) Research shows that a conviction record re-
7 duces the likelihood of a job callback or offer by 8 nearly 50 percent.

9 (4) Employment is a critical factor in successful
10 community reentry and reduction of recidivism for 11 adults with a conviction history.

12 (5) After two years, nearly twice as many em-
13 ployed adults with criminal records avoided another
14 interaction with the criminal justice system com-
15 pared to their unemployed counterparts.

16 (6) A study conducted by the Kellogg School of 17 Management at Northwestern University found the 18 turnover rate for employed adults with criminal
19 records to be approximately 13 percent lower than 20 individuals without criminal records.
