5 Code, is amended by striking subsections (a) through (f)
6 and inserting the following:

7 “(a) Prosecutions for violations of all police or munic-
8 ipal ordinances or regulations of the District of Columbia 9 and for violations of all penal statutes of the District of 10 Columbia in the nature of police or municipal regulations
11 shall be conducted in the name of the District of Columbia 12 by the head of the local prosecutor’s office or the assist-
13 ants of the head of such office, except as may otherwise
14 be provided in any such ordinance, regulation, or statute.

15 “(b) An indictment or information brought in the 16 name of the United States in the United States District
17 Court for the District of Columbia may include charges
18 of offenses prosecutable by the District of Columbia if the 19 head of the local prosecutor’s office consents to the inclu-
20 sion of such charges in writing.

21 “(c) An indictment or information brought in the 22 name of the District of Columbia in the Superior Court
23 of the District of Columbia may be joined for trial in the 24 United States District Court for the District of Columbia
25 with an indictment or information brought in that court 26 if the offenses charged therein could have been joined in

1 the same indictment or information and if the head of the 2 local prosecutor’s office consents to such joinder.

3 “(d) In this section, the ‘local prosecutor’s office’ is 4 the office designated under local law of the District of Co-
5 lumbia as the office responsible for conducting prosecu-
6 tions under this section.

7 “(e) Nothing in this section shall affect the authority 8 of the Attorney General of the United States or the United 9 States Attorney for the District of Columbia to exercise
10 jurisdiction concerning violations of the laws of the United 11 States.”.
