

116TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 383

Expressing support for recognizing the week of May 13 through May 19, 2019, as “National Police Week”.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 15, 2019

Mr. GUEST (for himself and Mr. KING of New York) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

RESOLUTION

Expressing support for recognizing the week of May 13 through May 19, 2019, as “National Police Week”.

Whereas President John F. Kennedy first designated May 15, 1963, as Peace Officers Memorial Day;

Whereas it is important to celebrate the estimated 850,000 law enforcement members serving and protecting our country;

Whereas members of law enforcement create strong security for communities across the United States, providing support at all hours of the day and night;

Whereas members of law enforcement perform a wide range of responsibilities that varies from stabilizing hostile situations to responding to dangerous and unforgiving natural disasters;

Whereas law enforcement officers often put themselves in harm's way for others;

Whereas there have been times of tragedy when members of law enforcement have sacrificed their lives in the line of duty; and

Whereas this level of dedication to communities across the United States should be recognized and valued: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

2 (1) acknowledges and honors members of law
3 enforcement for their service to the United States;

4 (2) supports the mission of law enforcement
5 agencies to keep our communities safe; and

6 (3) celebrates the officers and agents who make
7 a positive difference in our country.
