Month.

- (4) 500 individuals are killed in unintentional shootings;

Whereas, since 1968, more individuals have died from guns in the United States than have on the battlefields of all the wars in the history of the United States;

Whereas gun violence typically escalates during the summer months;

Whereas nearly 2,900 children and teens are killed by gun violence every year;

Whereas, every 70 minutes, one person in the United States under the age of 25 dies because of gun violence;

Whereas more than 6,300 of such persons die annually, including Hadiya Pendleton, who, in 2013, at age 15, was killed while standing in a Chicago park;

Whereas, on the first weekend of June to recognize Hadiya Pendleton's 22nd birthday, people across the United States will recognize "National Gun Violence Awareness Weekend" and wear orange in tribute to Hadiya, other victims of gun violence, and their loved ones; and
