7 Department an Office of Rural Economic Invest-8 ment (referred to in this subsection as the ‘Office’).

9 “(2) LEADERSHIP.—The head of the Office
10 shall be the Assistant Secretary for Rural Economic 11 Investment (referred to in this subsection as the ‘As-12 sistant Secretary’), who shall report directly to the 13 Secretary.

14 “(3) MISSION AND GOALS.—The mission and 15 goals of the Office shall be to coordinate with other 16 offices and agencies within the Department and with 17 other Federal agencies—

18 “(A) to ensure that the unique needs and 19 attributes of rural transportation, involving all 20 modes, are fully addressed and prioritized dur-21 ing the development and implementation of 22 transportation policies, programs, and activities
23 within the Department;

24 “(B) to improve coordination of Federal
25 transportation policies, programs, and activities

1 within the Department in a manner that ex-
2 pands economic development in rural commu-
3 nities and regions, and to provide recommenda-
4 tions for improvement, including additional re-5 organization and realignments;

7 frastructure investment in rural communities, 8 including by providing recommendations for 9 changes in formula funds or other existing 10 funding distribution patterns;

11 “(D) to use innovation to resolve local and 12 regional transportation challenges faced by 13 rural communities;

14 “(E) to promote and improve planning and 15 coordination among rural areas to maximize the 16 unique competitive advantage in those areas 17 while avoiding duplicative Federal, State, and 18 local investments; and 19 “(F) to ensure that all rural communities

20 lacking resources receive proactive outreach, 21 education, and technical assistance to improve
22 access to Federal transportation programs.

23 “(4) DUTIES OF ASSISTANT SECRETARY.—The 24 Assistant Secretary shall—

1           “(A) provide information and outreach to 2 rural communities concerning the availability 3 and eligibility requirements of participating in 4 programs of the Department;

6 petitive economic advantages and avoid duplica-
7 tive transportation investments in order to en-
8 sure continued economic growth;

9           “(C) serve as a resource for assisting rural 10 communities with respect to Federal transpor-
11 tation programs;

12           “(D) ensure and coordinate a routine rural 13 consultation on the development of policies, pro-
14 grams, and activities of the Department;

15           “(E) serve as an advocate within the De-16 partment on behalf of rural communities; and 17           “(F) work in coordination with the Depart-

18 ment of Agriculture, the Department of Health
19 and Human Services, the Department of Com-
20 merce, the Federal Communications Commis-
21 sion, and other Federal agencies, as the Sec-22 retary determines to be appropriate, in carrying 23 out the responsibilities of the Assistant Sec-24 retary.

1           “(5) CONTRACTS AND AGREEMENTS.—For the 2           purpose of carrying out the mission and goals of the 3           Office under paragraph (3) and the duties of the As-4           sistant Secretary under paragraph (4), the Assistant
5           Secretary may enter into contracts, cooperative 6           agreements, and other agreements as necessary, in-7           cluding with research centers, institutions of higher 8           education, States, units of local government, non-9           profit organizations, or a combination of any of 10          those entities—

11                   “(A) to conduct research on transportation
12                   investments that promote rural economic devel-13                   opment;

14                   “(B) to solicit information in the develop-15                   ment of policy, programs, and activities of the 16                   Department that can improve infrastructure in-17                   vestment and economic development in rural 18                   areas;

19                   “(C) to develop educational and outreach 20                   materials, including the conduct of workshops, 21                   courses, and certified training for rural commu-
22                   nities and regions that can further the mission 23                   and goals of the Office and the Department;
24                   and

1           “(D) to carry out any other activities, as 2           determined by the Secretary to be appropriate.

3           “(6) EMPLOYEES.—The Secretary shall ensure 4           that not more than 4 full-time equivalent employees
5           are assigned to the Office.

6           “(7) APPLICABILITY.—In carrying out the mis-
7           sion and goals of the Office under paragraph (3) 8           and the duties of the Assistant Secretary under 9           paragraph (4), the Assistant Secretary shall consider 10          as rural any area considered to be a rural area
11          under a Federal transportation program of the De-12          partment.”.

13          (2) COUNCIL ON CREDIT AND FINANCE.—Sec-14          tion 117(b)(1) of title 49, United States Code, is 15          amended by adding at the end the following:

16                 “(I) The Assistant Secretary for Rural 17                 Economic Investment.”.

18          (c) REORGANIZATION PROPOSAL.—

19                 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary, in consulta-20                 tion with the relevant congressional committees, 21                 shall develop a proposed reorganization of the func-
22                 tions of the Department to ensure improved coordi-
23                 nation and prioritization of programs and services 24                 that promote rural infrastructure investment, expan-25                 sion, equity, and economic development.

1           (2) REPORT.—Not later than 180 days after 2 the date of enactment of this Act, the Secretary
3 shall submit to the relevant congressional commit-
4 tees a report that describes the proposed reorganiza-5 tion plan under paragraph (1).

6           (d) RURAL CONSULTATION.—

7                 (1) REQUIREMENT.—

8                     (A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 1 year 9 after the date of enactment of this Act, each of-10 fice and agency within the Department shall de-11 velop and implement a process to ensure mean-12 ingful and timely input from rural stakeholders
13 during the development of any regulation, guid-
14 ance, or policy that would have substantial di-15 rect effects on 1 or more rural areas.

16                     (B) CONSULTATION.—To the maximum 17 extent practicable and in accordance with appli-18 cable Federal law, an office or agency of the 19 Department shall not promulgate a regulation, 20 issue guidance, or implement a policy described 21 in subparagraph (A) unless the office or agen-22 cy—

23                             (i) consults with rural stakeholders 24 before developing the proposed regulation;

1 (ii) publishes in the Federal Register
2 a summary rural impact statement, which 3 shall consist of—

4 (I) a description of the consulta-
5 tion with rural stakeholders on the 6 regulation, guidance, or policy;

7 (II) a summary of any concerns
8 raised by the rural stakeholders;

9 (III) a description of the extent
10 to which concerns referred to in sub-11 clause (II) have been alleviated; and

12 (IV) a description of why the reg-
13 ulation, guidance, or policy is needed;
14 and

15 (iii) submits to the Director of the Of-16 fice of Management and Budget—

17 (I) the summary rural impact 18 statement described in clause (ii); and

19 (II) on request of the Director, 20 any written communications sub-21 mitted to the office or agency from 22 rural stakeholders.

23 (2) DESIGNATION.—Not later than 180 days
24 after the date of enactment of this Act, each office
25 and agency within the Department shall designate

1 an official within that office or agency to serve as 2 the official with principal responsibility for the im-
3 plementation of this subsection.

4 (e) ADVISORY COMMITTEE.—

5 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall establish 6 a rural transportation advisory council (referred to 7 in this subsection as the “advisory council”) to con-8 sult with and advise the Office of Rural Economic 9 Investment.

10 (2) MEMBERSHIP.—The Secretary shall appoint 11 members to the advisory council in a manner that 12 ensures that the geographic and economic diversity
13 of rural regions of the United States are rep-14 resented.

15 (3) MEETINGS.—The advisory council shall 16 meet not less than twice per year, as determined by 17 the Secretary.

18 (4) DUTIES.—The advisory council shall—

19 (A) advise the Office of Rural Economic 20 Investment on issues related to rural needs re-
21 lating to Federal transportation programs;

22 (B) develop recommendations for any 23 changes to Federal law, regulations, internal 24 Department guidance, or other measures that 25 would eliminate barriers for rural access or im-

1           prove rural equity in transportation invest-
2           ments;

3           (C) examine methods of maximizing the 4           number of opportunities for assistance for rural 5           areas under Federal transportation programs, 6           including expanded outreach and technical as-7           sistance;

8           (D) examine methods of encouraging inter-9           governmental and local resource cooperation to 10          mitigate duplicative investments in key regions 11          and improve the efficiencies in the delivery of 12          Federal transportation programs;

13          (E) evaluate other methods of creating new 14          opportunities for rural regions; and 15          (F) address any other relevant issues as 16          the Secretary determines to be appropriate.
